THE STAR.

"STAR" OFFICE,

Harbor Grace, March 14, 1873.

like the rolling snow ball, whilst so little [Capt. P's.] side of the house. They had appeared in the "Chronicle," we con-ably," and at the same time publish to was done for the encouragement of agri been returned to that house, and had been sidered ourselves justified in placing the world an unquestionable proof of culture. He (Mr R.) would ask, how placed in their present position, by the it before the public, who are able to your want of honor. Is it honorable the government showed their interest voice of the people, to whom they were judge rightly between maliciousness to show to the public private corres-in agriculture? Hon. Premier-By their attention to the trust confided to them. Another im and gospel. We made no remark, pendence? Is it honorable to circulate, the repairing of old roads, and the open-provement for which the present Govern either good, bad or indifferent, as to the for mercenary motives, slanderous and ing of new ones, to which the hon mem- ment were entitled to much credit, was article, which did not seem to us to dis- unfounded reports concerning your that of the contract which they had ne play any jealous feeling or desire to in-friends? Is it honorable to exult over bers seem so much opposed.

Mr. Rogerson-Notwithstanding all that gociated for Ocean Steam service, which jure the late publisher of the "Stand-a father's death and exile a brother had been said by the Government in re- was calculated to exercise such a salutary ard." However, the "Standard," from the parental home? Is it honor ference to the subject, there was no evi influence upon the interests of the colony, backed by Mr. R. T. Squarey, has come able to (by misrepresentation of facts) Gigantic frauds on the Bank of England dence before the House to shew that they by giving increased facilities for trade, backed by Mr. R. T. Squarey, has come able to (by insrepresentation of lacts) have been discovered. They were com-had effected such an extraordinary amount In fact every constituency of the colony down rashly upon us, accusing us of subvert the interests of your employees? have been discovered. They were com-had effected such an extraordinary amount In fact every constituency of the colony down rashly upon us, accusing us of subvert the interests of your employees? have been discovered. They were com-had effected such an extraordinary amount In fact every constituency of the colony down rashly upon us, accusing us of subvert the interests of your employees? of improvement in the construction of afforded instances of the improvement things we never for one moment thought Is it honorable to ____; but I will not an American by forcing Balls ' Horton, roads. So far as concerned the district of which had been effected by the present of; and to pay back in their own coin shock the readers of the "Star," by a other financial houses. It is believed Bay-de-Verds, which he (Mr. R.) had the government. When the troops were with is quite an easy matter. In the first recital of this HONORABLE (?) action; the frauds on the bank will reach $1,000,honor to represent, there had been in one drawn from the colony, it was said by cer-place let us suggest that the hide of the suffice it to say that the particulars 000. The discovery of the forgeries was portion of that district about 10 miles of tain hon. geutlemen opposite, that life "white elephant," instead of making a are recorded in the Magistrate's office. altogether by accident, and was brought road gravelled, and about 21 miles in an-other, of new road, while some other roads had undergone some repairs. He appeal-the prophisies been verified. So far from "Star," would be more suitable for the "Upon that writ for S— s arrest?"

ed to the hon. Receiver General to hold that being the case, the peaceable and purpose of covering some old ledgers The ready clerk at once replies : out some advantages to the people, by the orderly character of our people had been that used to be in service at King's 'Tis written on the writ, non est." reduction of some portions of the tariff. endorsed by so high an authority as His Cove; the tail and proboscis could be Hon. Receiver General—Why did not Excellency the Governor, in the speech retained for personal adornment by the 'onest man '' 'onest man !' the hon, gentleman's friends effect such a delivered by him at the opening of the "Standard" family, we kindly promis-reduction when they were in power? Mr. Rogerson-His (Mr. R,'s) remark session. Such, however, was not new to ing to acquaint Professor Darwin of a would be (metaphorically speaking) applied to the present time, not to that at all times the happiness to enjoy such a new species of WHAT-D'YE-CALL-'EMS. would be (metaphorically speaking) now said to amount to two million dol-when his friends were in power. He ap- character. Were not the Government also pealed to the hon. gentleman to return to entitled to any credit for the establishhis old landmarks and fulfil his pledges ment of the new Police force, which in its by taking the burdens off the people. Hon Receiver General—So we have. P.] considered was indeed a credit To Mr. R. T. Squarey,—

Mr. Rogerson-They had, it was true, to them? How. gentlemen opposite SIR,-Your "expiring groan," echoed you to withdraw your ILLUMINATING (?) serves to itself the constituent power ataken one shilling off the barrel of flour might talk of discord and personalities; SIR, -Your "expiring groan," echoed you to withdraw your incontractive (r) serves to itself the constituent power a distance of the constituent power a but withdraw your incontractive (r) serves to itself the constituent power a distance of the constituent power a dista but why not take the duty off molasses? but such only emanated from them, and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and through the columns of last Wednes-interary rays from the western hemistic and the set of the set of the set of the columns of last we are set of the truth and say: the construction of the truth and say: the construction of the truth and say is a losing concerned. The "Standard" is a losing concerned we are set of the truth and say is the construction o General. Has he more money than he Government through any motives of self tainly reflects little credit on either of The "Standard" is a losing concern; ing election for members in Spain and required?

Hon. Colonial Secretary—The hon gen- and as one who was not prepared to sell no better from such a source, being you to desperation; you're tired of the present Assembly after it has voted for tleman talks about the stringency of the his birthright for position. Hon. gentle-tariff; but he can charge 75 or 80 per cent men opposite finding that they were un ing volunteers, and providing in the *in*able to regain their lost position, sought publicly demonstrate your characteris the coupletprofit to his dealers.

Mr. Rogerson-Many who invested to injure the hon. Chairman of the Board tic meanness; but I must confess I feit Squarey must torture his invention, their capital in the trade were never paid of Works, who, by his conduct during the somewhat surprised to find a person so To flatter rogues, or lose his pension; for their supplies; but there was such past three years, had shown his anxiety RESPECTABLY CONNECTED as the editor and now, finding an easy dupe in poor, from being injuriously affected by his prices. He (Mr.R.) had some further ground to go over, and some suggestions for the reception and alleviation of the suffering of the sick and now, finding an easy dupe in poor, to advance the interests of the people. named making his paper a vehicle for innocent Mr. M., you'll try something the conveyance of personalities. The case in point is one, I believe, almost without a precedent, viz.: that of giving the conveyance of giving the conveyance of personalities. The case in point is one, I believe, almost without a precedent, viz.: that of giving the conveyance of personalities of the sick and no hospital without a precedent, viz.: that of giving to offer, which he considered as calculat-suffering of the sick and poor, whereas, publicity-without my permissioned to improve the condition of the opera. through the exertions of the hon. C. B. W. to a private letter which I addressed

Secred Aderaine

Latest Despatches.

LONDON, 3.

about by the Rothschild's noticing in some Bills of Exchange a difference in the color of the ink from that ordinarily used. The Bills them selves were so neatly executed that they would have escaped de-LONDON. 4.

The frauds on the Bank of England are Mr. Thiers made a great speech in the tainly the editorial chair had no honororable charm for you, or, doubtless, it letermination to maintain the part of the would not be vacated for the saw pit Bordeux preamble to the constitutional

CARD.

You say "failing health" has compelled project, declaring that the, Assembly reinterest, but as a native of the country, you. As regards yourself, I expected your pecuniary difficulties are driving Porto Rico on 10th of April, desolving the > terim a permanent committee shall sit, and as soon as Cortes meets the committee and ministry shall resign.

Assembly yesterday. He reaffirmed his

The yellow fever is raging to a fearful

Bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance day amount to £177,-

Markets generally quiet. A revolt against the French in Algiers

s rumoured, but uncertain.

FOR THE HAR The

"WHITE

An editor sat in Fatigued o'er His mind so caln Some theme fo

And as he sat an He spied the And at once a p For all the peo

For here he pict From North s Running freely o Fenced off from

But, alas ! a clou And danger h An elephant whi 'Mong the lan The editor in hi

> While the tea At the fearful b By the elepha

And, oh! how As his barga For but a little He, his all on

Yet although Killed all hi 'Tis blaming o That alone d

Yet of the whi He's pleased With mandible To help resto The front and a

To deck out Professer Darw On the specie

COAL FOR THE H letter, which we tim, was received

Glasgow a few w

cole pit, i was wa

"i was un

" Su

tive classes. At that late hour he would we have now three, well provided with to you some time since, and (clad in therefore ask an adjournment of the de- everything requisite for the comfort of the garb of hypocrisy and venality, by bate, reserving his observations for a fu-ture there had not only been an increase of agricul which corrupt means you endeavor to ture there had not only been an increase ture, there had not only been an increase impose upon a discerning public) mak-of agriculture, but of the amount of bonu-Capt. Parsons-Hon. members had ses paid to poor settlers for clearing land. ing insinuations such as could only insertion of an interesting item from 13,570 pounds in gold was found in herlistened, on the present occasion to the There was no feeling against the Govern. emanate from a perverter of truth the "Morning Chronicle" relative to apartment. She was committed to prison speech of the hon, gentleman, Mr. Roger- ment outside doors. It was all inside. and a reporter of falsehood. Doubtless the transfer of the former journal to for examination.

speech of the hon, gentleman, Mr. Roger-son, as they had during former sessions to speeches of a similar character from that hon, gentleman; his speech in the present instance being simply a rehash of those terance in that House. The hon, gentle-man professed as usual great interest in the welfare of the fishermen of the coun-the welfare of the fishermen of the coun-speeches of a similar character from that hon, gentleman; his speech in the present instance being simply a rehash of those terance in that House. The hon, gentle-man professed as usual great interest in the welfare of the fishermen of the coun-the welfare of the fishermen of the counthe welfare of the fishermen of the coun-kinds. He should like to hear the busy cerned, is, I think, without a parallel. Wonderful indeed ! from a heartless untry; buthe (Capt. P.) would ask him what hum of industry throughout the land, and Your endeavors to show, by the publi-feeling and despicable slave to lucre. The debate on Mr. Blake's motion was benefits had he (even during the time he had held a position in the Government) ever conferred upon the fishermen of the now most exorbitant prices were charged. in Mr. M's position are extremely ever conferred upon the fishermen of the now most exorbitant prices were charged. country? The hon. gentleman had ask-ed, what benefit had been rendered to would spend their time more profitably if the country by the present Government; be the devoted their attention to the con. be the to be the present for the hon gentleman had ask of a majority for the Government. The in Mr. M.'s position are extremely tonishing! I am no cipher in the busi-result was hailed with cheers and counter-futile. True, I expressed a willingness the country by the present Government; they devoted their attention to the con. be the present for the hon gentleman had ask of a majority for the Government. The in Mr. M.'s position are extremely futile. True, I expressed a willingness ness—I know my business well, he does not, never having learned it—Cipher ! many who woted with the opposition declared his position, while he [Capt. P.] could inform the hon. gen-sideration of measures calculated to im purchase for £600; but that does not oh, thank an all-wise Providence I am many who voted with the Government tleman that they had done something, a prove the condition of the people, instead fact well known to the whole community of wasting it in idle and useless declama-they had paid off a debt of £70,000, tion. He did not prove the concern worth half that sum his unbrotherly treatment and dom.

-they had paid off a debt of £70,000, tion. He did not intend occupying the which had been left to them as a legacy time of the house with any further obser-by their predecessors, the late Govern-vations, but would merely observe that he would ask a benefit conferred upon the ment went back to the country, for the would of the country. The time of the ment went back to the country, for the circulation of 700 or 800 copies; besides people of the country. The time of the purpose of seeking a renewal of its conti-House, he [Capt. P.] thought might be dence, they would, if anything, return with placing us in a position to issue a journ-consider it is well that such is the case, sea.

more profitably spent than in listening to increased numbers to that House. al the size of the "Standard" semi-for had their been more of us to have weekly and atfording every facility for received his persecutions, we would in the fulsome balderdash of the hon. gen-tleman. He had referred to the taxes as then rose, reported progress, and asked the execution of all kinds of job and the execution those taxes were not felt by the people, as they went back again to them in pub-row, he would move the suspension of the in a dvantage to the proprietors of the proprise the proprietors of the proprietors of th lic improvements, such as roads, educa-rules in reference to the address to His "Star;" but to a non-practical printer ourable, for "virtue hath its own re-extent at Chatham.

tion, lighthouses, &c. When the present Excellency the Governor. -such as the present editor of the ward." I regret the necessity of hav- English despatches from Madrid make Government came into power, the condi-tion of affairs generally were of a most gloomy aspect, and the people were leav-ing the country in large numbers. Was useb now the case? No quite the reverse such now the case? No, quite the reverse. inquire into the best means for furnishing produce another letter showing the con-Public improvements have been effected the town of St. John's with a more efficient trary. You are certainly aware that to a considerable extent, and the condi-supply of water. tion of the country generally is improved. The House then adjourned until to hausted, and that without the assistance Affectionate (?) brother, one word Affectionate (?) brother, one word Federal Republic is proclaimed. LCNDON, 8.

The hon. gentleman boasts of being a rendered by the proprietors of the more. I grieve over the fact that "ill Colonel Egerton Leigh, conservative, friend to the working classes of the country, but he (Capt. P.) would ask, would a friend of the operative classes be found

"Star" the former paper must, for a health" has by your own honourable (?) has been elected to Parliament for Mid-time at least, have become defunct for statement compelled you to relinquish want of type. Yet you try to make the "Standard"; but bear in mind I afternoon, in a Cartridge Manufactory.

a friend of the operative classes be found importing articles into the country which were calculated to take the bread out of the mouths of its people? The hon. gen-tlemen had employed persons elsewhere to manufacture herring barrels for him, which would have that effect. He [Capt.] In a for St. John's, called at this port P.] would ask the people of this country on Wednesday evening last. By were they content to displace the present Government, which had during its past three we learn that the ice was jam Harbon Gavernment, which had during its past three years of office done so much for the been as far as the FLOWERS. Some "What can ennoble knaves, or fools, or pearance, however, is much more like thronged yesterday, and much excitetlemen opposite in that position, for which forty seals, old and young, had been cowards?

on account of their mismanagement of public affairs had been scouted by the that wonderful gallop? His propensity ment prevailed. Guards were stationed, they were evidently so anxious; in the taken in the Bay recently. Old seals the blood of all the blood of all the blood of all the Bow-possession of power, and in the enjoyment in nets were taken on 16th February, of the sweets of office? They had, how being earlier than any year since 1859. I would not have made this exposi-ever, before occupied that position, and The steamers and sailing variable of the sweets of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweets of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of the sweet of office? They had, how set and sailing variable of the sweet of the swee ever, before occupied that position, and The steamers and sailing vessels got tion, were it not that your ungratefulness clined to stand his ground. I am sorry captured, is too evident, and your sordidness too that that honourable brother of mine flagrant to be allowed to pass unnoticed. should have so "sold" Mr. Munn, whom Webb's Australian line of steamers hay-people. Not one hon gentleman oppo site could be looked upon as actuated by THE "Standard" is awfully irritated Your efforts to sully a reputation un-be well knew had no practical exper-ing been disposed of to the Pacific Mail Your efforts to sully a reputation un-be well knew had no practical exper-ing been disposed of to the Pacific Mail Your efforts to sully a reputation una spirit of patriotism, or as returned to agent our having given publication to stained by any of the foul and loath-ience in the printing line, not to mention Company, there is no longer any mail comthat House through popular influence. the opinions of the "Chronicle" in re- some spots that mark your own have in- the fact that there is insufficient type munication with Australia.

Take from the hon. and learned leader ference to the bargain made by the new duced me to go farther still and ac in the bargain to print off an issue. I of the opposition, who held his seat in the proprietor in the purchase of that journ-quaint the public with a few other facts heartily endorse the "Chronicle's" re-A Hindoo Freemasons' lodge has upon the very slight tenure of a al. It is a curious fact that the "Stand of a more personal character. The gret that Mr. M., will probably lose been established in Bombay. majority of two or three votes, down to the most juvenile member of that party, all had been returned to that house by the weight of mercantile influence. Not of interest. When such a dandified as yourself, or he would never consider so, however, with hon. members on his and original essay as the one referred to you incapable of "acting so dishonor." W. R. SQUAREY.

"STAR" OFFICE, Consoles 923. Harbor Grace, March 14, 1873.

LONDON, 6.

Ottawa, 8

NEW YORK, 8.

your monish for liver to turbert to the city of tu used to got my c oke but he was much more then pae for them a used to was an many monish to ble as cheap a p tuke 2 corgos a 20 tons. twice land on thursda be sented to you agint of the ban his wife too and and never was sp as i was knew be prise to me the will rite you a an will come.

"i was like to and aulways did aul the Campbel unkle was a Car was a fishing sm of monish and 1 wive who will be selfe and gave and spoke the p the coles and wrighting a lett the coles.

> <sup>4</sup> i was got my riter to rite the co, he wood tuke him.''

"if U canot co

All the leadi agents in Lond uniformity in pr on Tuesday. shilling per ton on Monday a fu was agreed upon dealers were as what they call ' most instances for any other de

то

Shop & At present occu For par

FO

BY THE

HA

At Cost

HENRY

CAST STE

(Useful for Join

Feb. 7.

March 14.