in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a si-milar stamp now published, while the poli-tical complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candour, and forbarance not often found in works of a party character. They embrace the views of the three great parties in England--Whig, Tury, and Radical-Blackwood and the London Quarterly are Tory ; the Edinbugh Re-wiew, Whig; and the Westminster, Radical. The Foreign Quarterly is purely literary, being dovoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works.
