SEIZURE CAMP AFTER CONFLICT CLOSES.

While the discussion was in progress shots were heard in the direction of the camp and it was discovered that the small detachment of the attacking force, unaware that the conflict had closed, and attributing to their own skill the ease with which they were then able to make their way through the brush into the camp without opposition, had swooped down upon the half-dozen occupants of the tent. Fortunately for the hungry combatants, who soon returned to the camp for dinner, the life of the conflict was spared.

Without exception, every man in the camp, which on Sunday numbered more than 120 officers and men, displayed the most admirable spirit, and from the moment of arrival until the hour of departure, not one incident occurred to mar the pleasure of the party.

THE TIMELY ESCAPE OF ONE OF HIS NATIVE OFFICERS WHO HAD BEEN CAPTURED, BEING OF THE NIGER PROTECTORATE.

The timely escape of one of his native officers who had been captured, being of the Niger protectorate, brought relief to the Major's force in the nick of time, and saved the Major from a fate which, while it would doubtless have had the result of satisfying the appetites temporarily of several native chiefs, would have plunged a host of friends into very real grief.
