

Wedding Bells.

Messrs. Furness, Withy & Co's. premises are decorated with bunting to-day in honour of the wedding of Capt. J. T. Yeoman. The following notice of the event is taken from the Halifax Herald of the 12th inst.:

YEOMAN—HUGHES.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place at number 3 Jubilee Road, Wednesday, at 6 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hughes, of Halifax, but formerly of Birmingham, England, became the wife of James Thomas Yeoman, captain of the Furness liner "Tobasco," son of the late Thomas Yeoman, of Salcombe, England.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. F. Dykeman, pastor of the West End Baptist church, took place in the drawing room, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, under the supervision of F. W. Killam, manager of the Nova Scotia Nursery, a friend of the bride and groom. In front of the large bay window a bower of palms and trailing English ivy had been artistically placed, and it was directly in front of this that Captain and Mrs. Yeoman were pronounced man and wife.

The chandelier in the center of the room was also ivy-clung and depending from it were three large white lilies. To complete the effect of the whole arrangement, jardiniere and vases of field daisies were placed on the chiffonier, mantel, piano, etc. These were all the more appropriate, as they were emblematic of the bride's name.

Promptly at the appointed hour, the sweet strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin were heard, being skilfully rendered by Mr. Woodin, organist of the North Baptist church; and presently the bridal party appeared, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She looked very lovely in a gown of white silk with overdress of brocade and pearl trimmings, and wore the conventional veil faughed with a wreath of orange blossoms and white heather. Her bouquet was a handsome shower of roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride and groom were attended only by Miss Helen Misenner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Misenner, of Woodside, who acted as flower girl. She was daintily dressed in white, with pink trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

At the conclusion of the impressive ceremony, a wedding luncheon was partaken of by guests to the number of about fifty. The dining room was very prettily decorated with roses, pink carnations and ivy. The table was a sight long to be remembered, being literally heaped up withainties and centered by a magnificent two-tiered cake, surmounted by a handsome bouquet of roses. This cake was sent out as a present to the bride, by the groom's sister, from Liverpool, England. Directly above it was an ivy bound hoop, suspended in space from the chandelier by means of white satin ribbons, fastened below to the corners of the table.

At the conclusion of the luncheon the health of the bride was drunk and a social time enjoyed, which passed away all too quickly, until it was time for the happy couple to leave in a motor car which bore them away for a short trip to a neighbouring town. They will return to Halifax this afternoon in order to sail by the steamer "Tobasco" for England. After reaching the other side, Captain and Mrs. Yeoman will spend three months in visiting their many friends and relatives, after which they will return to Nova Scotia and reside with the bride's parents for a year, when it is their intention to make England their home.

It is very seldom that so large and beautiful a collection of gifts is seen as that received by Captain and Mrs. Yeoman. It comprised solid silverware, cut glass, linen, cutlery, etc. One of the handsomest presents of all was a complete cabinet of solid silver and mother of pearl dinner cutlery, the gift of Furness Withy and Co's. staff.

The groom's present to the bride was a very beautiful pearl and amethyst necklace. To the little flower girl he gave a gold locket and chain. —Halifax Herald, July 12.

Dear Madam, St. John's,—

You have perhaps heard of the 100,000 people a day who follow a crooked street, just because years before this beaten path was begun by a calf wandering aimlessly along a country common. Is this crooked and beaten path following applicable in your case, when it comes to spending your dimes to the best advantage?

We have left the crooked and beaten path of selling, because first we left the crooked and beaten path of buying, and you can profit by it.

Follow the economy road, which is a straight one, and leads to our store. Therefore, Madam, start right to-day.

Yours, very truly,

J. M. DEVINE.

P.S.—Last weeks sales will be repeated on lines which were not cleared, then.

The Laborites are Resentful.

Special to Evening Telegram. HANLEY, To-day. Southneair, liberal, was returned to Commons at bye election on Saturday to fill vacancy caused by death of Enoch Edwards, laborite. He defeated the Unionist candidate by 654, and laborite by 553. The action of the laborites in contesting the seat is bitterly resented by the Labor Party and is threatening to strain alliance to breaking point.

Hymenal.

On last Wednesday evening, July 10th, a very pretty wedding took place at the R. C. Cathedral when Mr. John Coleman led to the altar Miss Kitty Toucher, of Jersey City, N.J., formerly of St. John's, daughter of the late Wm. Toucher. The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche. Mr. John Duffy, cousin of the groom, performed the duties of best man. The bride wore a charming gown of Duchess satin draped with a tulle of ovetnet, and wore a veil and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was assisted by Miss Annie Ivey, who was gowned in a dress of blue silk, with hat to match. Miss Georgie Long, niece of the groom, and the Misses Cecilia Kehoe and Molly Doran acted as flower girls. After the ceremony the happy pair drove to the residence of the groom's sister, Carter's Hill, where the reception and wedding supper were held, after which in conjunction with their many guests they enjoyed themselves till the wee sma' hours of the morning, when the bride and groom drove to their future home, Hayward Avenue. The happy pair were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents.

Torbay En Fete

AT FATHER CLARKE'S RETURN.

A most spontaneous display of whole-souled enthusiasm was witnessed at Torbay yesterday when Rev. Fr. Clarke, for many years the rev. pastor at the place, returned on a short holiday from Ireland. The entire population turned out in a body and met the Rev. gentleman at Piper's Stock Hill. Preceded by the Total Abstinence band of the place, with the members of that Society also present, the procession moved to the village amidst tumultuous cheering. Here Father Clarke addressed them in his usual eloquent manner and in a speech which showed how deeply he appreciated this profession of regard from his old parishioners, thanked them sincerely for the honour done him. It was easy to observe with what pleasure he again visited the scenes of his forty years of labour. In the evening at 7 o'clock the people again assembled at the Total Abstinence Hall, where an address of welcome was made by Mr. Michael Parsons, the venerable President of the Society. To this another response was made by Father Clarke, and the scenes of joy of the early afternoon were again repeated. An impromptu concert was organized and the people generally gave way to an expression of rejoicing at having their beloved old pastor again with them. It was decided that a demonstration in his honour will take place on Wednesday night.

Record Catch.

The banking schooner Donald E. Hollett, Capt. T. Hollett, came into port Saturday evening from the Grand Banks with 1,100 quintals of codfish after three weeks fishing. This is the third voyage so far this season, and Capt. Tom has caught 3,400 qts., which breaks all records up to this date. The Donald E. Hollett is a new craft, built last year, and is of the knock-about-type.

Marine Notes.

The S. S. Beatrice left Sydney today coal laden for M. Morey & Co. The schr. Checkers arrived at Burn yesterday and will load fish there for Europe for Bishop Sons & Co.

Here and There.

Stafford's Liniment for sale by Mr. T. McCarthy, Water Street.—July 5, 11.

ON LEAVE.—Const. M. Grouchy, of Harbor Grace, arrived here to-day on leave and will be in the city for a week.

Stafford's Liniment for sale by Mr. Barrett, New Gower Street.—July 5, 11.

S. S. DURANGO.—The S. S. Durango, Capt. Cheevers, left Liverpool at 1 o'clock Saturday night for this port.

WARSHIP COMING.—H. M. S. Sirius will arrive on this station about August 1st and her crew will take part in the Naval Race on Regatta Day.

Stafford's Liniment for sale by Mr. Breaker, New Gower Street.—July 5, 11.

FURNESS LIVE.—The S. S. Tobasco, Capt. Yeomans, reached port yesterday from Halifax, bringing 400 tons of cargo. She sails for Liverpool tonight taking as passengers Messrs. Greaves and Snow.

MONEY FOUND.—Mr. Michael Kelly picked up $20 last week and returned it to the owner, Mr. E. Noseworthy, who was, needless to say, delighted to receive his money.

REALIZED $97.—The R. C. people of Carboneau who attended all the Masses at St. Patrick's Church there yesterday subscribed $97 to the Marine Disasters Fund, a fact which does them credit.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.—By the express to-day there arrived from Hodges Cove, T. H. Reuben Hiscock, who was taken to Hospital in the ambulance by Mr. Whiteway. The man was brought along in a box-like arrangement, suffers from chill of the legs and is dangerously ill.

FOGOTA'S FISHERY NEWS.—The Fogota reports that at Seldom and Joe Batt's Arm and Cape Fogot there is a good sign of fish for traps which average daily 10 to 12 qts. A man named Rowe, of Seldom, has 500 qts. ashore to date. From that place south it is almost a blank. The fishery at Musgrave Harbor is the worst in 20 years and not 100 qts. for the whole fishery at the Wadhams is also a failure.

FOGOTA IN PORT.—The Fogota, Capt. B. Barbour, arrived here at 12.50 p.m. to-day. She had fine weather on the run to Twillingate which she reached at 10 o'clock Thursday night and would have made a record but that she was delayed there taking freight until 6 p.m. Friday. She was delayed one night at Change Islands owing to fog. Her passengers were:—R. Templeman, W. Atwill, H. McShane, J. McKnight, E. Lush, W. Tilley, Capt. A. Carter, Lieut. Butler, S. A. Rev. S. Han, Mrs. P. Templeman, Mrs. D. Richards, Mrs. A. Ross, Mrs. (Miss) E. Hann, Miss E. Purchase, Miss E. Tilley and 9 in second class.

Yesterday's Services.

GOWER STREET.
Rev. Dr. Fenwick conducted the morning service in this church yesterday, assisted by Mr. T. Van Dyke, son of Rev. Dr. Van Dyke. Rev. Dr. Van Dyke preached at the night service and was listened to with rapt attention. Large congregations were present and Miss Jessie Diamond presided at the organ.

GEORGE STREET.
Mr. Archibald, of London, England, preached at the morning service, and in the evening Rev. Mr. Moody conducted the service. Mr. Archibald's sermon was fluent and instructive.

ST. ANDREWS.
An inspiring service was held in the Kirk yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Mr. Sutherland, who had just returned from a trip abroad, thanked the people for the cordial welcome extended to him. Rev. Dr. Van Dyke preached a beautiful sermon from Eph. 4: 24. Dr. Grenfell conducted the evening service.

WSELEY CHURCH.
The morning service in this church was largely attended and Dr. Grenfell preached from the words, "What will it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?" Mr. C. A. Warburton, the celebrated Y. M. C. A. worker, was the preacher and delivered a very eloquent and able address.

Another Death.

Yesterday afternoon there died after a tedious illness Amelia, the bright little daughter of the late Constable P. Hanrahan. Only two months ago her father, who lost his leg over a year ago, died, and the present bereavement is a sore blow to the widowed mother. Shortly after the death of their father the whole family became stricken with scarlet fever, and the house was only released from quarantine last week. Mrs. Hanrahan has the sincere sympathy of her many friends in the city.

FOR HOSPITAL.—By the express yesterday there arrived from Grand River, Bay St. George, Jno. Gabriel, a game warden, for the Hospital. He suffered intense pain, both his arms being badly swollen as a result of blood poisoning. He was taken by Mr. E. Whiteway to Ordnance Street in the street cars and walked the rest of the way to Hospital.

Arrested for Theft.

Friday night some thief went on board the schr. St. Elmo at the Smith Co's. wharf and breaking the lock of the cabin companion, searched the apartment and also the forecastle, which had been left open. He stole a suit of oil clothes, and Saturday Sergeant Byrne arrested one Sparks on suspicion of the theft.

Presentation.

A very pleasing event took place at the Cochrane St. Methodist Place on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., when a deputation representing the Quarterly Official Board and the congregation of the Cochrane Street presented the pastor, Mr. W. H. Webber, with an address appreciative of his services during the past year, as a well filled purse of gold as an expression of good will and esteem. The rev. gentleman carries the good wishes of all to his new sphere of work at Botwood, where it is hoped that Mrs. Webber will spend many happy years in the Master's work.

Portia Returns.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. Jos. Be, arrived back from western ports 7 a.m. to-day. She brought a fine freight and the following passengers: R. B. and Mrs. Job, G. H. Williams, H. Coles, Mrs. Peddie, P. H. See, Mrs. Elliott, A. E. Hickman, S. D. E. Jones, Miss Doody, Miss Byrne, Harvey, J. C. Duffy, Miss Dina, M. Edstrom, Miss O'Neill, Mrs. Lynn, Miss Costello, G. W. Geary, Mrs. S. T. Stone, Leo, Lynch, H. Brown and 11 in steerage.

Disorderly Scene

Saturday night a seaman who was going in the Neptune, and who had been released from prison on heavy bonds a few hours previously, was on board the ship and started to whip out everybody and everything in the forecastle. Two stokers also had a "friendly" combat, and Inspector Collins, Head Sheppard and several policemen had to be called to remain until the steamer moved off from the pier. One of the "lucky" Scott's party retorted that this would be an ideal spot for Jack Johnson to make his mark.

The Bruce express arrived at noon yesterday with a few passengers.
