Great Housing Scheme.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—I shall esteem it a special favour if you will kindly publish the short note of explanation. During my brief absence from the Colony nothing has been done in connection with the great Housing Scheme. Although absent much information has been gained. I beg to thank the Industrial Workers, and Citizens generally for the great interest that has been manifested in one of the greatest problems that has confronted Great Britain, United States, Dominion of Canada, and the Dominion of Newfoundland. We are only interested in what concerns ourselves at the present time.

When the Health Authorities raise the ban from holding public gatherings, and all danger is passed, and the "Flu" stamped out, we hope to call a meeting of the public including men and women, and submit for their consideration a scheme for building one thousand houses. Due notice will be given at an early date. Our objective should not be less than one thousand houses. We can do it by co-operation, thrift and common sense, and take many a family from houses not fit for hogs to homes of health and comfort.

Yours truly,
HENRY T. SQUIRES,
Pool's Cove, F. B. Oct. 28, 1918.
