Will Elect Opposition Candidates.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—A correspondent from Kelligrews, over the signature of "Old Liberal", in your issue of the 28th inst. demands the right of selection of one or more members for this district in the coming bye-election. Allow me to inform "Old Liberal" that the voters of this shore are not greatly concerned over the choice of a member save that they are determined to put in, with the greatest majority ever recorded in Newfoundland, the two men seeking election in the interest of the present Opposition. This is a decided fact, Mr. Editor. A fact that "Old Liberal" cannot truthfully dispute. We want truth, not fiction. The tactics of "Old Liberal" are well known to the people of this shore the past twelve months and if he bestows a little more energy in his daily avocations than in setting forth his views on the political issue, it would be better for him.
Take a bit of advice, my friend: hang on to the little job you have, save your pennies—you'll want them after the deluge. You belong to a coterie of a baker's dozen who had their pockets well lined last fall in connection with road mending, and do not for the moment represent the opinions of the electors of this shore. Give us the truth—you know it well. Hang the job, you'll live as you did before the reign of the Squires-Coaker Government began. You know as well as I that there are not 50 votes on this South Shore for any Government candidate.
You say the people of this shore were awake last fall and are still awake. Yes, brother, they are awake, hundreds of them, to the fact that in voting for the Squires-Coaker party last fall they supported a rotten combination—a combination that has been piling burdens on our shoulders, and the end is not yet.
To the good people of the "head of the bay" I say in good faith, we are one with you this time in support of ANY opposition candidate. Situated as we are, of course we lean to the advisability of having one man in the city, but we are a unit in anything that will tend to the discomfiture of the present corrupt administration.
Yours truly,
NEMESIS.

Wedding Bells.

CROWDELL-ATLWARD.
Yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Madge Crowde, daughter of Mr. James Crowde, to Mr. John T. Aylward took place in the Oratory of the Sacred Heart Convent, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Dr. Greene. The bride, who was attired in a pretty travelling costume of lawn gabardine with hat to match and white fox fur and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, was attended by Miss Addie Aylward. The groom was supported by Mr. James R. Macdonnell, M.H.A. The groom's present to the bride was a silver handbag, and to the best man a suitably engraved watch. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's father, Henry Street, after which the happy couple entrained for O'Rourke's, Holyrood, where the honeymoon will be spent. Numerous presents testified to the esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their many friends. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Aylward many happy and prosperous years of wedded life.

Digby Picks Up Tow.

A message was received yesterday by the Furness Withy Co., stating that the S.S. Digby bound from this port to Liverpool, had picked up a disabled steamer and was towing her to Greenock. A further message was received from Liverpool last night which read as follows:—"Digby delayed, towing disabled steamer Laidian Range, due Liverpool Saturday." The Digby left here on Jan. 25th.

Shipping Notes.

S.S. Canadian Sapper left Halifax for this port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
The sailing of the S.S. Fortia, for Western ports is postponed until tomorrow morning, owing to delay in discharging her coal cargo. The steamer is taking very little freight.
S.S. Minola which arrived in port yesterday at 2 p.m. brought a full freight equivalent to 20,000 barrels. This is the Minola's first trip on the service from St. John, N.B., to here.
CARD PARTY POSTPONED.—Out of respect for the Hon. Mr. Grieve, the card party and supper of the St. Andrew's Society which was to have taken place last night was postponed. Mr. Grieve was a past president of the St. Andrew's Society and an enthusiastic member of many years' standing.
