

An Indispensible Favorite

Wealth and Beauty at Stake!

CHAPTER XXVIII.

saying, and she hears her clinking he may be. medicine glasses and bottles, and that has a chemist's shop odor. "Pray street-what house-does he live? do not give way, Yolande! Hysteria What people speak to him in the may supervene, and there is nothing course of each day? Happy people! Suthely Smith's prescription."

lande pleads, wildly. "Oh, Dallas, church and state—is an utter strang-Oh, my daring, my darling, if I only knew where you were now! Oh, Lady Pentreath" she asks humbly as—as—a sort of head waiter." Dallas, I burned your letter; and now and tremulously. "Did you hear from I don't care where you are!"

countess says, pityingly, but in a address-" very surprised voice. "I had no idea "Whose?" Lady Pentreath asks, must be some mistake. To begin with, you had such very strong feelings. blankly. "Oh, your husband! My he has had no experience in carving." Poor girl! Drink this nice little dose dear, is it possible you don't know he She can hardly get the words out, as of sedative medicine, my dear."

The glass of reddish-colored, sticky- yes, I think early last spring?" aromatic, vile-tasting mixture is at "Came back!" Yolande leaps up, her lips, and poor Yolande, helpless, with a face transfigured with joy and I know," the countess declares, sharp-better." the countess says, approving- Oh, Lady Pentreath, where is he?" ly. "And, as for your husband's ad- "He was in London when I heard," ployed in the office for taking people's dress, surely Lady Nora has it?"

Yolande says, hopelessly, "Lady Nora and all trat" never hears of him or from him, of "I knew nothing," Yolande responds, course, or she would tell me."

husband, to meet him, and to be re- her bosom now, "nothing, nothing! To know you will pardon me for leaving ray." Lady Pentreath says, reluctant- fuse to see me, will he, do you think Ty, in a rather scandalized voice, "you if I call at his club, or hotel, or whermust know, my dear, that that is a ever he is staying?"

most shocking impution to utter. There may have been some attach-Glynne, but, of course, when Captain Glynne was married, that ended at once. They are excellent friends now, I am glad to say. They used not to be: but Joyce has become quite a woman of business since she came in-Lord Pentreath gives her the benefit of his advice about money matters. and so forth. He says Joyce may be For Yolande, in an agony of grief quite a rich woman by and by. She is and gladness commingled, has thrown wonderfully shrewd and clear-headed. "Pray don't, my dear!" she is con- leagues of land and sea to that farscious at last that Lady Pentreath is away one, wherever in the wide world

What skies are above him?-In measuring out a dose of something what country-what town-what more destructive to the nervous sys- Perhaps he chats and laughs and entem! Ten drops of this, dear-Dr. | joys their society; perhaps he dines with one and sups with another and ritably,

"Do you know whereabouts he is. him at any time since he went to with crimson cheeks. On, dear-to "My dear, this is very sad!" the America? If you could give me an think of Dallas being a waiter! It came back from the States long ago- one ludicrous image after another excitement. "Is he is he in England? ly, "at the Baltimore Hotel-a sort of "That will make you feel so much No-no, I am not going to be excited! half-American, half-foreign place in her ladyship answers reluctantly. names, and showing them to their "Oh, no! She knows nothing about "But, my dear Yolande, I was quite rooms, and all that." him. We never mention his name," sure you knew all about his position, with a sobbing laugh, dashing away treath. The Baltimore Hotel, Hol-Lady Pentreath sits quite silent for her tears surreptitiously lest Lady born? I suppose a cab will take me beveral minutes. Then at fast, in an Pentreath should prescribe some other there in about a quarter of an hour?" altered voice, says very gravely: loathsome mixture to quiet the fever "Would you really wish to see your of hopes and fears which is burning in ing on her long black silk mantel. "I "If he cared," Yolande falters, her months and my not knowing! Where dry, aching eyes filling again with is he staying, Lady Pentreath? You hot tears. "But you know there was, will tell me, won't you " she pleads. with a piteous effort at gayety. "Do "If you mean my cousin, Joyce Mur- tell me where he is! He won't refor Stings and Bites, Sunburn, Cuts, etc.

necessaries of like," pursues Lady claims, hot with passionate chagrin knew about my husband's affairs all do not know her. I see, though she less than eight or nine weeks, A the titleholder lead with his right in more ingenuous, honorable, straightthe other sex, I never met!"

But does mademoiselle know my this trick by husband's present address?" Yolande fist back to his foe's left elbow, and asks, in a tone of forced calmness. With-a quick jerk, twisting him around "If so, perhaps she would give it to and off his balance. Since Dempsey me .I should be very grateful to

"My dear," Lady Pentreath says, ir- What Do You Think "Oh, let me cry, let me cry! My walks or rides with others; while she band's address. I have assured you heart has been sore so long!" Yo- -his wedded wife by the laws of so repeatedly. But I hope you are very lowly position, in the employment of a person who keeps an hotel,

"A head waiter!" Yolande repeats. can't be true, Lady Pentreath; there rises in her mind. "He is in some menial capacity, that is a very different, thing, Lady Penminute seems an age to me. Oh, dear, common hired conveyance, unattended, by night, through the streets?" the countess asks, in shocked tones.

on errands of business for her aunt alone. But she is obliged to wait now, until Mrs. Brett can be found and can get ready; and then, with a kind good-by and even a prim kiss from Lady Pentreath, she is permitted to

(To be continued.)

"Does she know?" Yolande ex- The champion carries a knockout With his right as he does with his left, and always seems to be ready the time I was in ignorance of them! style, to whip over a terrific punch Did he write to her, then, Lady Pen- from any angle. Back of Dempsey's "Certainly not!" her ladyship ans- ly effective blow. It seldom travels wers sharply. "I am surprised you more than a foot, but it carries the was your companion for eight or nine swings a punch; always hooks them

of a Fluid

That will draw roaches and ants out of every hole, crack, or crevice before killing them and not poison food?

That will kill bugs instantly and not leave an unpleasant odor?

That will knock flies off the wall and not harm paint or paper?

That will keep the bedroom kitchen, or verandah clear of flies, mosquitoes, etc., for several hours after a few sprays?

That will take fleas off a dog and not harm the

That will destroy chicken lice without any injury to your stock?

That applied in small quantities to the exposed parts of the body will insure you from Mosquito bites?

That as a general disinfectant is stronger than the ordinary carbolic solu-

THAT FLUID IS SAN-O-SPRAY.

No insect can live where San-O-Spray is used. Yet San-O-Spray is non-poisonous to human beings and can be used with perfect safety in pantry, kitchen, dining room, and cellars, moreover San-O-Spray has an agreeable and delightful ader, removing all fetid or and free from infection

"THE FISHERMEN'S "EXCEL" Lubber Boots Men and Boys SPECIAL FEATURES: Are made all in one piece to prevent ripping or crack. ing, by a Special Vulcanizing process. Specially reinforced tops to withstand chafing or cracking. 'An 8-Ply Heavy Rubber Sole with extension edge, run ning all the way under the heel. Insures more wear per pair than any other make of Boot on the market, Are made on a particular shape of last, which give the foot more room and prevents slipping at the instep and A heavy Cloth insole made under a new-process which absorbs all moisture, is nicely fitted in to add extra comfort for the wearer.

A 4-Ply Duck lining is also used, treated specially to keep the foot and leg cool during hot weather.

Ask your Dealer for

"THE FISHERMEN'S FRIEND"

Sold by all Reliable Dealers from Coast to Coast. Distributed by

Parker & Monroe, Ltd., Shoe Men

Special Offer

Baby Carriages.

The chance of a life time to get such a high-

U.S. Picture & Portrait Co.

WATER STREET ST. JOHN'S.

won the title, Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, the champion's opponent in a 15 round battle at Shelby, Mont., last July 4, is the only man who ever succeeded in staying the limit with him in a decision match. Gibbons suc- 000 mark for the first time in July, ceeded chiefly because, in ring par- the total being $2,124,429. The waterlance, he "outsmarted" the champion at times; outboxed him in spots, and held on with such tenaciousness in the last three rounds that the referee was constantly breaking them; rather, pulling the St. Paul challenger out of the clinch. Since winning the title, the champion's knockout victims were Billy Miske, Bill Brennan, and Georges Carpentier. Brennan gave him a desperate battle, going 12 rounds before taking the count in Madison Square Garden. Miske had been counted upon to give him a fight, as he had in two previous bouts, one at ten and the other at six rounds, but he fell a victim to Dempsey's blows in three rounds. Carpentie lasted four. Dempsey holds the distinction of boxing before the greatest crowd that ever saw a boxing contes and of drawing the biggest gate in ring history. More than 99,000 per-sons were jammed into the big bowl, on Boyles' Thirty Acres in Jersey City, the afternoon of July 2, 1921, when, he knocked out Carpentier. The gate receipts of what was classed as the "Battle of a Century" were more

A hostess announced a "White Elephant Party."

Each guest was to bring something forw hich she could not find any use, and yet was too good to throw away. The party would have been a great success but for the unlooked-for development which broke it up. Eleven

Panama Canal Zone.

Tolls paid by ships passing through canal, en the Panama Canal reachel the $2,000,- way was used by, 483 vessels.

ome Baby Car-has just ar-somewhat late season-so-

r not to have hanging over" pring, we are ring them at

renuinely away

mated by Colonel Jay J. Morrow, The fiscal year ended June 30 has ernor of the Panama Canal, a een the greatest in the history of the profit of about $10,000,000 is alishing it as a well-paying against only $3,789,833 in the proposed on the after month new re- year. Receipts in excess of all expe ords were made in tolls. With the tures have paid 3 per cent of peration at $7,500,000, as esti- canal bonds,

An agricultural experiment st is being built by the Panama C at Summit, in the Canal Zone, to in the improvement of agricul both in the zone and the republic. ama cultivation is increasing in region around Gatun Lake. Ba supplying the home market the tivators in 1922 shipped nearly 000 worth to the United States.

Fire Prevention.

When a fire occurs in Chile building is arrested and made to F that he is not guilty of having cal the fire. ne fruitful cause of fire Montreal (at least that is what claimed) is short circuit and of phases of electricity. I have rece observed that many switches are in iron-clad boxes, and in many of in the switch box, where one end If switches were encased and left ed, I believe no sparking of the switches would occur and no danger arise a nechanical injury or short driving rilling fuse holders with anything proper fuses should be prohibited observed a fuse box the other with two one-cent pieces instants plugs. Another danger and different boundaries of the control his should be prohibited and

The for de fective

by tho develo you'll Koda

THE

rms of Co ed by Gre stroyers A Lives Los Destroyed

ECE ACCEPTS T GRE nce of the eil of Ambassador the Italian-Gree ved officially o-day. Accepta sistence upon by the Italia orfu by the Italia er is that Corfu ediately the mplied with by

DESTROYERS HORE ON PAC United States e Pacific Mail high on the Island on the ra County, Califo ore last nig est and most im een on the so oast, according

RECEIV

a shipme

First Or rimr

or Pr

Limi