GIANTS WIN THIRD MATCH IN WORLD SERIES, 1-0.—STEN-GEL'S BOMBER DOES THE TRICK.

New York, Oct. 12.—Cast permanently, it would seem, in heroic mould, Casey Stengel smashed the New York Giants to victory with a home run today. For the second time in three days he lashed into the right field bleachers of the Yankee Stadium in the 7th inning. Stengel's blow broke up the tense, thrilling, hurling duel between Art Nehf, southpaw star of the Giants, and Sam Jones, of the Yankees, and gave the world's champions their solitary but sufficient margin of one to none triumph. Sten-gel's feat of winning the two games with home runs in a single championship has no equal in the world's series annals. It was a heart-breaking setback for Jones who pitched even-more brilliantly than did his southpaw rival Nehf, and too it was doubtless disastrous for the Yankee machine for with the defeat they lost, at least temporarily, the services of their first baseman, Wally Pipp, as he wrenched again his weakened right ankle in sliding to second in the 7th inning and was forced to leave the game.
Ruth finished at first for Pipp, and Pinkie Haines took Babe's post in the rightfield for the eighth inning.
Jones baffled the Giants save Stengel, with marvellous change of pace and superb control, yielding but four scored hits, while Nehf was being found for six. Except for Stengel, but one Giant got as far as second base. Coming back in the 8th after Stengel's crashing blow, Jones displayed his mettle by striking out Bancroft and Groh in succession, but he was withdrawn in favor of a pinch hitter in the Yankee half of the innings, when Higgins directed his last desperate but futile attack when Joe Bush held the Giants hitless in the ninth. Facing the first real crisis of the series, John McDrew played his ace Nehf and the merry little southpaw came through with flying colors.

His work was but slightly less effective than that of Jones. Three times he faced serious threats by the Yankees, but on each occasion he rose to the emergency and turned back his foe. In only one inning, the fifth, did the Yankees gather more than one hit off him. He issued three passes, two of them purposely, to Babe Ruth, and each time the strategical, though unpopular with the crowd, was vindicated.

A.A.A. PLEASE NOTE.

Editor Sportographs
Dear Sir,—As previously announced in your column, the A.A.A. Indoor Championships Meet is to be held Nov. 1st. It is not time for the Committee to get busy and give the competitors a chance; by getting the Ring open for practice.
Yours truly,
FAN.

A CHAMPION 30 YEARS AGO.

The following account is taken from the Canadian Recorder, Halifax, Sept. 30, 1893.

"The sixth annual sports of the M.

* BROKE HAMMER RECORD.
Dan R. Chisholm, representing the Xavier High School, broke the Maritime Record of 136 feet in the hammer throwing event at the Annual Sports of St. Francis Xavier's University on Oct. 6th, with 142 feet 1 in.

—A PROPOSED BOUT.
A New York despatch says: For an all-around diving and plunging contest, with no holds barred, why does not some ingenious soul come along and match Joe Beckett, the celebrated English tank worker against Freddie Fulton, the elongated plasterer from Rochester, Minn.? The show would be a riot. They would show more fancy back-flops than any other half-dozen canvas-batters in the business.

MTIGUE CLAIMS LIFE THREAT-ENED—SAYS HE WAS LUCKY TO GET AWAY WITH ONLY
BROKEN HAND.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(A.P.)—Declaring his life had been threatened and that he was forced into the ring at the point of a gun, despite a fractured left thumb, Mike McGuire returned to New York to-day from Columbus, Ga., where last Thursday he reclaimed his light heavyweight championship of the world only when it had nearly toppled off in the riotous demonstration that accompanied his match with young Stripling, 18 year old schoolboy and pugilistic pride of the South, which ended in a draw.
"Sure, I was lucky to get out of there with nothing but a broken hand," said Mike.

McGuire was accompanied by his manager, Joe Jacobs, and Harry Erlie, of Jersey City, who refereed the fight. The trio united in charges that they had been subject to threats and intimidation in the rapid succesion of events that followed the attempt by McGuire to call off the bout because of the injury to his hand; that guns were flourished in efforts to force McGuire to go through with the fight; and that the entire affair was a "frame up," instigated, they charged by John Paul Jones, promoter of the match, with the idea of gaining the championship for Stripling.

BELGIAN BOXER GOES LIMIT WITH CRIQUEL.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—(A.P.)—Eugene Criquelet met a tartar in his first fight in Europe since he won and lost the world's featherweight championship in New York, when Young Henri Hebrans, a Belgian, stayed the limit of 15 rounds to-night with the Frenchman.
Hebrans lost the verdict on points.
The gate receipts amounted to 200,000 francs, which will go to the benefit of scientific laboratories in France.

DESCHAMPS HAS "HEAVY FIND"
IN BRITAIN.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Georges Capenier's manager, Francois Deschamps, is to take a hand in training British boxers and already has under his tu-elage one, whom he hopes to mould into a heavyweight champion, says the Daily Mail.

Lamenting the present dearth of boxers of championship class in this country and pronouncing the British outlook in the fight game as "very gloomy, whichever way it is viewed," the newspaper says there are multitudes of boxers in Great Britain, but no managers with enough skill to convert them into champions. The Daily Mail, therefore, welcomes the decision of Deschamps, who, it says, believes the British makes the best boxers in the world when properly handled.

The Frenchman's first pupil in London is 16-year old Johnny Sullivan, who has been boxing since he was 10, and who has already made good showing in the ring. He appeared on last Monday night's card, at the Olympia, which included the Carpentier-Beckett match. Deschamps was so impressed with Sullivan's skill, which the manager regarded as unusual, that he undertook to shape him into what he hopes will prove to be a first-class fighter.

Does Your Roof Leak?

If your roof leaks and you know where the water comes in, you can probably make it watertight with Plastic LASTY-GUM. A 5 lb. pail of Plastic LASTY-GUM costs only $1.50.
Your carpenter will tell you that Plastic LASTY-GUM won't crack like cement and won't run like tar. Plastic LASTY-GUM is put on with a trowel and is guaranteed to stop leaks.

If your roof needs coating, we recommend LIQUID ELASTIGUM, which is put on with a brush. Liquid Elastigum will put a new surface on your roof and keep it in good condition. A gallon can costs $1.50, a five gallon can costs $4.50. This is the best coating for rubber roofing.

If your roof needs a new covering, we can sell you Campbell's Patent Roofing complete with fittings for $2.89 per full size roll. A roll weighs about 55 lbs., contains 108 square feet of roofing and will cover 100 square feet of roof surface. Regular price is $4.50.
In June this year we purchased 3000 rolls of Campbell's Patent Roofing from the manufacturers, who were selling their stock at auction. When our present supply is sold, new shipments will sell at $4.50 per roll. Now is the time to get a new roof covering at a bargain price.

Roofs covered with Campbell's Patent Roofing pay less for Fire Insurance than roofs covered with ordinary tarred felt. At our present low price of $2.89 per roll with fittings FREE, Campbell's Patent Roofing is cheaper than felt. Don't delay ordering, we are selling hundreds of rolls each month.
