TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 30, 1872

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

The production of oil in Canada oil fields averages 2,000 barrels a day.

The Spring Assizes for the County of Bruce will be opened on Tuesday the 14th of May, before Judge Galt.

A new Post Office is to be established on the 8th and 9th concession of Brant, with Mr. McIntyre as post-master.

The Fall Wheat around Wingham looks bad, being frosted down, but hopes are entertained that the roots are all right.

A ewe owned by Mr. David Campbell, of Garafaxa, gave birth to 6 lambs a week ago. All doing well.

A fine and hook and ladder company is about being organized in Arthur village. The Council is to procure the apparatus.

The steady advance in wheat and flour in the Eastern markets, is being felt by dealers in this country. Flour has advanced 25c. per hundred pounds.

The Waterloo Battalion of Infantry, No. 4 Company, Waterbourne.—To be Ensign provisionally, Corporal James Glenzie, vice Chas. Hendrie, whose resignation is accepted.

The severity of the winter and the sudden rise of the water seems to have killed all the muskrats in Bruce, as not one is to be seen in the rivers this Spring.

The Walkerton Herald says there has been a good flow of sap in some localities during the past week, and there is still likely to be a considerable quantity of sugar maple sap.

The storm of Sunday evening, the 22nd, swept with considerable violence south of Walkerton. In the neighborhood of Midway and Balakava several barns were unroofed and fences laid level with the ground.

Building operations are being pushed forward with great energy in Orangeville.
Several dwelling houses are under construction, and many more are under contract to be built during the present season.

Farmers in the Ottawa district have begun to plough the lands, and do not think this is a very late spring after all.
They report favourably of the general appearance of the fall crops, and are of opinion that they are comparatively safe after the winter's frost.

The Rev. Wm. Darling, of Holy Trinity, for Enclun this week on business connected with the church. It is understood that he will bring back with him two ladies connected with the English Protestant Sisterhood, to aid in forming a Sisterhood under the auspices of the Holy Trinity.

NEW TICKET.—A great boon has just been granted by the G. W. R. It is in the shape of a ticket which enables the purchaser to travel for 1,000 miles at a less rate than the usual tariff. The passenger is allowed one year in which to complete his pilgrimage, but we feel assured that numbers of our travelling citizens will get through more than one of the "Thousand Mile Tickets" per annum. These tickets can be obtained by letter to W. K. Muir, G. W. R., Hamilton.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LASH.—As will be seen by a reference to the proceedings at the termination of the present Assize, Mr. Justice Gwynne has introduced the punishment of the lash, in addition to imprisonment with hard labour, in the case of the graver offences against the person. We believe and hope that this severe species of punishment will exercise a salutary effect on that class of criminals who so often unfortunately degrade what has hitherto been a happy home by the perpetration of a crime so foul and abominable.

TROUT FISHING.—In reference to the opening of the trout season the Galt Reference says:—The disciples of Isaac Walton are getting ready for the fishing season, which commences on Wednesday next, 1st May. Mill Creek and Cedar Creek will be the chief points of attraction this year, more especially in the neighbourhood of Killam, where the trout have been protected for a year or two past. The sportsmen expect that part of the stream to be teeming with speckled beauties. In the meantime the dwellers thereabout are determined to maintain control of their "preserves," and what with fierce dogs, wild bulls, and the fears of the bear, expect to drive the enemy from their borders.

THE AT THE TANNERY FACTORY.—At noon today smoke in a dense volume was observed issuing from the kiln used for drying a large quantity of lumber remained in the manufacture of tanks at the recently established factory of Messrs. George Jackson & Co. Fortunately the tank was full of water and being immediately contiguous to the kiln the fire was soon extinguished, little or no damage being done beyond the scorching of a few of the boards. David Sharpe, the engine-man, had looked into the kiln not more than five minutes previous to the first detection of the fire and no signs of combustion were then at all visible. The engine and hose were with great alacrity brought ready for action, but fortunately their services were not required. The fire, it is supposed, originated from a spark.

Wellington Spring Assizes.

BEFORE MR. JUSTICE GWYNNE.

McALPINE vs. STEPHENS.—Non-suit accepted in order to test the opinion of the judge in term hereafter, as to whether the defendant had reasonable and proper cause for his suspicions.

FINLAYSON vs. SCHROEDER.—Referred by consent to His Honor Judge Macdonald.

MASSE vs. McNEIL.—Action on note.
Defence waived with consideration. Referred to Judge Macdonald. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff; Mr. E. Burns for defendant.

ROSE vs. HOPE.—An action for damages brought on by Mr. Rose, of Montreal, against Messrs. Adam Hope & Co., of Hamilton. The facts of the case appeared from the evidence to be these: Charles & Son, of Kenilworth, gave a chattel mortgage to Adam Hope & Co., of Hamilton, upon a boiler, engine and other saw mill machinery early in 1869.
Subsequently Hartley & Son gave a mortgage upon the land upon which the mill was erected to Duncan McLaren, of Kenilworth. Each mortgage was for $2,000. As a condition these mortgages were given Hartley owned the chattels, did not own the land, but had an agreement with one Elliott (who it appeared was not entitled to the land although Hartley thought he was), that he (Elliott) could give him a deed for $60. Subsequently Hartley assigned his interest in the land really amounting to nothing, to his interest in the chattels—boiler, engine, &c.—to one McKenzie, in which assignment it was expressly stipulated that the conveyance was subject to the two mortgages to Hope & Co., and Mc-Laren. McLaren then took a fresh mortgage from McKenzie to secure the second debt due McLaren by Hartley & Son, and Hope & Co. took a fresh chattel mortgage from McKenzie to secure their old claim, but in this second chattel mortgage it was recited that the intention was that it should operate as a confirmation or renewal of the original granted to Hope & Co. by Hartley & Son direct. After this second mortgage to Mc-Laren, McKenzie bought in the fee simple of the land. McLaren then assigned his mortgage upon the land to one Rose, of Montreal, the plaintiff. McKenzie in 1870 went into insolvency, and Hope & Co. having notified the assignee of their claim obtained leave to enter and remove the boiler and engine as being their property by virtue of the chattel mortgage.
Rose brings the action claiming that the mortgage of the realty covered the chattels, which, in law must be regarded as fixtures, and not chattels, and hence that the chattel mortgage was virtually rendered of no effect. It was proved that plaintiff's whole debt was $600 and interest, and they still held the land and building. The jury brought in a verdict for $800, which has the curious effect of giving the plaintiff more money than if his debt had been actually paid by the mortgagor in full and no mortgage given in security. Such is the curious uncertainty of the law. One party who holds a security upon chattels finds that a few serow nails put through the latter fixing them to the soil, renders the former valueless, and another party who gets a security on land for $600 and interest, in all $720, gets $800 to satisfy him, two acres of land and a building to boot. Mr.
T. A. Merritt for defendant; Mr. J. Kennedy for plaintiff; Dr. McMichael, Mr. Crerar and Mr. McPayden for defendant.

WYLIE vs. LEWIS.—Referred to Judge Macdonald. Mr. McDougall for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

PETRIE vs. BARKLEY.—Made a reference to the County Court by consent.
Mr. A. H. Macdonald for plaintiff; Mr.
Jacob for defendant.

HULL vs. PATTERSON et al.—An action for balance of contract. Verdict by consent for plaintiff for $115. Mr. Hall for plaintiff; Mr. Guthrie for defendant.

FORESTER vs. PHILLIPS.—An action of ejectment. The plaintiff claims that the defendant was a monthly tenant of certain land in Fergus; defendant claims that he was a yearly tenant. This case had been previously tried under the overriding tenants act before Judge Macdonald, who decided that it was not a case in which the provisions of the Act applied. Case withdrawn, as consent was given for a monthly tenancy. The plaintiff had been receiving rent from defendant since this action was commenced. Mr. English and Mr. A. H. Macdonald for plaintiff.

KORSE vs. GREEN.—This was an action for breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff lived with defendant a long time, and alleges that defendant, as consent was given for a monthly tenancy, had promised to marry her. As the case was about to be called on, the defendant applied to have the trial postponed to the Fall Assizes on account of illness of an important witness, and the trial was put off accordingly. Dr. McMichael and Mr.
Robert Mitchell for plff.; Mr. Dunbar and Mr. Merritt for defendant.

MCELLAN vs. SMITH.—SMITH vs. Mc-LELLAN.—In consequence of the verdict in the suit Smith vs. McLeLlan, previously tried, being in favour of the defendant, these cases were settled between the parties. Hon. M. C. Cameron, Q. C., for Smith, and Mr. D. Guthrie, for Mc-Lellan.

McKAY vs. BILLS.—Postponed to County Court, in June, by consent of the parties. Mr. D. Guthrie for plaintiff; Mr. Palmer for defendant.

WYLIE vs. LEWIS.—Referred to arbitration. Mr. McDougall for plaintiff; Mr.
Guthrie for defendant.

EVANS vs. HOPE.—An action brought by plaintiff for damages in the destruction of a house on land claimed by plaintiff. It is intended by defendant that the land belongs to him, and that therefore he had a right to pull down the house. By consent a remand. Messrs. McMillan and O'Connor for the Plaintiff, Hon. M.
C. Cameron, Q. C., for Defendant.

April 30.

LEWIS vs. McDONALD.—Before the Judge, by consent. An action for damages for $220. It appears that the plaintiff was indebted to the Defendant, and to enforce and satisfy his claim the Defendant issued a warrant of seizure on plaintiff's goods and chattels, it being alleged by defendant that the Plaintiff intended to abscond, in consequence of the Plaintiff's studiousness to avoid being served with a summons to appear at the Erin Division Court. The Plaintiff contends that Macdonald had no reasonable cause for this belief, and hence the action.
Dr. McMichael and Mr. McCarthy for Plaintiff, and Mr. Guthrie for Defendant.

Judgment $50 damages, which carry costs.

SENTENCES.
The Judge then proceeded to pass sentences on the convicted persons as follows:— James Lowry—assault—fined $10 and one month's imprisonment and one month's more if the fine is paid.
Levi Gillies—assault with intent to commit rape—one year and eleven months with hard labour, with 30 lashes within a fortnight from sentence, 30 lashes in a twelve-month, and 30 lashes within a fortnight of the expiration of his imprisonment, in the presence of the medical officer of the jail.
Theophilus Coats—Assault with intent to commit a rape. Six months in common jail with hard labour and 20 lashes within a fortnight of sentence and 20 lashes before expiry of sentence in presence of the Jail Surgeon.
John Wilson—Bribe.—Sentenced to be hung at Guelph on the 20th of June.
The prisoners received their various sentences with composure; Wilson as usual wearing a hardened defiant mien—entering and leaving the criminal dock with the same jaunty air he has manifested throughout the entire period of his imprisonment and trial. The Court rose at 2 p.m., after an unusually long sitting.

The Chicago Stock Yards.
(From Harper's Magazine.)
In passing the tourist bound to California will do well to stop two days in Chicago, and one day in Salt Lake City, in which case he would get to San Francisco in ten days, and with surprisingly little fatigue, and he will have seen several very remarkable sights on the way.
For instance, though Chicago itself was burned and is not yet rebuilt, the ruin is worth seeing; and near at hand, accessible by frequent trains, he may find one of the most characteristic sights of our continent, the great Chicago stock yards—a city whose inhabitants are cattle, sheep, and hogs, and where these creatures are so well cared for that many a poor human being supposed to have an angelic disposition and amenable soul, living in a New York tenement house, is neither so obviously lodged nor so well protected against harm or cruelty.
This city of the beasts has streets, severs, drains; it has water laid on; it is lighted with gas; it has a bank, an exchange, a telegraph office, a post office, an admirably kept hotel; it has even a newspaper—else it would not be an American city.
It has very comfortable accommodation for 118,350 residents—namely: 21,000 head of cattle, 75,000 hogs, 200,000 sheep, with stalls for 350 horses. It contains 345 acres of land; and with all this is prepared for use, 210,000 head of cattle can be lodged, fed, and cared for there at once, and with the certainty that not one will suffer to go astray.
It has thirty-five miles of sewers; ten miles of streets, alleys, all paved with wood; three miles of water-troughs, all so arranged that the water may be stopped at any point; 2,800 gates; 1,500 open pens, heavily fenced in with double plank; 100 acres are covered with pens for cattle, and all these are floored with three-inch plank; 800 covered sheds for sheep and hogs; and seventeen miles of railroad connect this city of beasts with every part of the West, and into Chicago, by the Artesian wells, one 1,032, the other 1,190 feet deep, which, being sponting wells, send the water into huge tanks forty-five feet high, whence it is distributed all over the place in pipes. Fourteen fire-plugs are ready to furnish water in case of fire; immense stacks of cattle and carcasses of corn contain the food for the beasts; and I believe, a train of palace cattle cars now bears the entrained animals from this their city comfortably to the Eastern butchers.
Of course, as the "lower animals" do not help themselves, a considerable force of men is needed to attend upon those gathered here. The company receives orders for all animals sent to it.
It has thus taken in, penned, fed, watered, littered, and taken account of 41,000 hogs, 3,000 cattle, and 2,000 sheep in a single day, and that without accident, hitch or delay. From 175 to 200 men are constantly employed in labor; and to accommodate these and their families numerous cottages have been built, while a town-hall for public meetings and lectures, a church, a Sunday-school, and a well-kept day-school provide for their instruction and amusement. The hotel, which has bath-rooms, and is in other respects well fitted, is for the use of the drovers and owners of cattle whom business brings hither. At the Exchange sales are effected, and the news of a sale may be sent to Maine or Texas by a telegraph from the same room, while the money paid may be securely deposited in the bank, which is under the same roof.
Thus you will see that this enterprise is completely furnished in every part; and it will not be the least part of your surprise and pleasure to find that this whole business, which about New York often involves painful brutalities, is here conducted as quietly as though a Quaker presided over it, and with as much care as if the feelings of the dumb brutes as though good Mr. Bergh were looking on all the time.

It will cost about two millions when it is completed; is a pecuniary success, as it deserves to be; and when you hear that so long ago as 1869 Chicago received and sent off 403,102 head of cattle, 1,661,809 hogs, and 340,072 sheep, and that it will probably remain for years the largest stock cattle markets in the world, you will see the need for such elaborate arrangement as I have described; and if you are a human person, will be pleased that these immense droves of animals are kindly cared for and comfortably lodged and fed on their way to a market. Most of the people employed in the yards are Americans.

Among such a multitude of beasts as are here received, Mr. Buckle's law of averages would tell you that there will be a certain few monstrosities; and you will probably be blown over one or two Texas steers which look much more like elephants or mammoths than horned oxen; perhaps a two-headed sheep, or a six-legged hog; and, indeed, when I saw the stables, they contained a collection which would have turned the face of a Chatham street exhibitor green with envy.

FIRE IN STRATTON.—The fine brick residence of Mr. Wm. Eason was burned on Monday morning. By the falling of a chimney three men were badly injured, one dangerously. The furniture of the house was nearly all saved. Loss about $1,000, partially insured.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Mount Vesuvius.

The Mexican Revolution.

The Coming Struggle.

Naples, April 29.—The view of Mount Vesuvius, from this city, is now one of the grandest that has been witnessed since the year 1631. The Government have been compelled to order troops to the abandoned villages to prevent the stealing of property. The people in Naples use umbrellas to protect themselves from falling ashes. Rain is badly wanted.

Matmoros, April 29.—Skirmishing has been going on all day between Cortina's men and Trevino's advance and the wounded are being brought in. The enemy is not in full force. This morning the black flag is floating on the morfications around the city, with cross bones and death's head as insignia. This crosses much indignation on both sides of the river, and apprehensions are felt that if the attacking army is successful they will show no quarter.

Cincinnati, April 29.—Hotels, streets and everything to-day indicated the near approach of the two political conventions to which the country for weeks has been looking. A pretty close canvass shows that while there is a wide diversity of opinion on the question of tariff there is an earnest desire to harmonize one platform. The revenue reform element pre-ponderates, but protectionists are firm and hold that unless that is ignored or very carefully expressed a large vote in the east will be lost.

The Parry Sound District.

Lecture in Elora.

From our Correspondent.
A lecture was delivered on Friday evening last in the Drill Shed, Elora, on the resources and free grant lands of the Parry Sound district, by Dr. Stevens, who has been a resident there for some time, and who, we understand, is making a lecturing tour through the Province under the auspices of the Commissioners of Crown Lands. The attendance was very small, owing to sufficient notice not having been given of the lecture. Chas.
Clark, Esq., M. P., was called to the chair, and after a few preliminary remarks introduced Dr. Stevens, who commenced by speaking of the importance of emigration to new countries, and the tax efforts of Canada in the past in aid of it. The latter, he thought, was caused partly by the belief that Canada had no wild lands valuable for settlement. This was owing to the failure of the attempt to engraft settlement on the Laurentian Space. He then described the course of the Laurentian range, and said that upon turning the flanks of the Laurentian line, plenty of good land was found where it had not been dreamed to exist. He went on to say that the Parry Sound Free Grant District lies within this Laurentian line, and contains forty townships, with an area of 2,500 square miles or about 1,600,000 acres. It was enacted into a provisional judicial district in 1870, and settlement there has been chiefly under the "Free Grant and Homestead Act" of 1868, 100 acres of arable land (?) is granted to settlers of 18 years and over, without families; to male heads of families 200 acres, pine timber and mineral being reserved by the act until the issue of the patent. He thought the settler should get the pine charges described in the Act, or a per centage on lands fit for cultivation. About 50 per cent and even more of the land in the district is admirably adapted for grazing purposes. The soil is very fertile, sand and clay loam being the general varieties.
The section is more adapted for pastoral and manufacturing purposes. As to the climate it is not severer than in Wellinton. The snow lies better than in the front settlements, the air is dry and bracing, sky clear and sun bright. Winter is not longer than in most parts of Ontario.
It usually sets in about the middle of November, and leaves about the end of March. All the cereals grown in Canada do well in the district as far as the soil is tried. Oats, hay and Indian corn are more profitable than wheat, owing to the demand for feed by the lumbermen. There are excellent local markets for everything the settler may have to sell. After describing the class of settlers who inhabit the district of Parry Sound and the scenery of that country, he concluded by saying that there was no necessity of emigrants going to Manitoba, as the place whose advantages he advocated was as good and better, as those who had travelled through both could testify.
He did not want the papers of Great Britain to go there, the class required was the industrious agriculturist with a little means to keep him for a short time until some clearance was effected in accordance with an invitation of a lecturer, Mr. Hamilton, Reeve of Elora, asked him questions about the quantity and kind of fish in the district. A vote of thanks was then carried to Dr. Stevens for his lecture.

Accidentally Shot.

A very sad accident occurred on Sunday evening at the residence of Mr. W. Wolland, shoemaker, Kingston. A son of Mr. Wolland's, about 15 years of age, and an apprentice of his father's, named Keenan, 17 years old, from Odessa, were trifling with a revolver, and it went off in Wolland's hands and shot Keenan in the forehead. He never spoke a word, and died in five hours.
