(cently I was asked by Sir Robert Borden to join the government about to be founded, but while I expressed my sympathy with the movement I pointed out to him the difficulties which I personally felt prevented me joining the government. While unhesitatingly offering the co-operation of the provincial government of Nova Scotia to any representative national government, I conscientiously felt for many reasons that the general interests of Canada and of the province would at the present stage be best served by one of the federal members having the confidence of the Liberals of the province, entering such a government This view then expressed was confirmed when I consulted the Liberals of this province. I am pleased to obclass tailoring establishment and fur department. Our specialty is remodeling adopted the course I have referred to and has invited A. K. MacLean, a leadernment. "Mr. MacLean is thoroughly repre sentative of Nova Scotia Liberalism is actuated by a profound sense of public duty, and will, I know, bring crimination, but perhaps it is well to say frankly that there was much in the record of the Conservative party which did not meet with the ap of Liberals. I am quite sure that it is a matter of regret to the Liberals of attended Nova Scotia that Sir Wilfrid Laurer.

Phone is not participating in the national government, for in no province is he held in higher esteem than he is by the Liberals of this province. All wellwishers for Canadian unity will regret that up to the present Quebec Liberals have declined to co-operate in the Works. A. Aris, Mgr. 830 16th Ave.

safe in our hands." "Your tire is national government. With the difference on the conscription issue settled, I hope that the Liberals of Quebes will yet be able to join with the Liberals of the other provinces in the maintenance of Canadian unity, and our common purpose in the war. "I recognize that the formation of the national government presents many difficulties. In my judgment you cannot extinguish party lines in this country. I do not ask that criticism if deserving, shall be withheld: I do not expect, nor do I look for, perfect unanimity and harmony, but I do ask that the Liberal party of Nova Scotia to do its utmost in this direction. "By the present action the Liberal

H Gosselin was annulled. Both are Roman Catholics. They were married at Cohoes, N.Y., some years ago. The marriage was annulled by Judge Cannon on the ground that the couple were related to one another previously to related to one another previously to their marriage. The annulment was re-quested by the wife. The husband did not contest the case.
