—Wednesday evening at the residence of the Rev. J. Ballantyne, the marriage of Mr. W. S. Corbin, of London West, and Miss Lucy Pugsley, of South London, took place, Mrs. Johnson and Florence Ballantyne acting as bridesmaids. The reverend gentleman at whose house the coremony was performed tied the knot and made the couple happy. The bride was arrayed in a pale blue cashmere. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin were then driven to the residence of Mr. J. Flannigan, of South London, where quite a number of friends were gathered. The presents were of a most useful and ornamental character. Yesterday Mr. Corbin's fellow-employes in the Apvartiser made him the recipient of a handsome lamp as a token of their good wishes.
