surgent leaders, who went to Coube, near Retimo, on Sunday, to meet the Russian consul, who has been delegated to confer with them, has caused much indignation. The consul had in-vited them to Coube, but did not meet them on Sunday, because of the failure of the Turkish officials to inform him of their arrival, as they had promised to do. Monday the consul, accompan-ied by twenty Russian soldiers, went to Coube, hoping to see the rebel chiefs. The insurgents mistrusted his notives, after their experience on Sunlay, and from the hills they fired upon the Russians, despite the fact that they were carrying a flag of truce. Eventually the consul, by signaling, persuaded a score of the insurgents to come to a parley, but among those who descended from their positions was none of the leaders. Knocked Out. Ottawa, March 31.-Even in the Senate, the activity of the Government finds vent. At yesterday's session Sir Oliver Mowat introduced a bill to amend the criminal code. The bill makes provision for more stringent powers to prevent the circulation of obscene or scurrilous literature and makes it a criminal offense to have improper relations with a girl under 16 years of age, whether or not she has been previously of chaste character. The explanation of the amend-ment is that for the last two years protracted race meetings have been held at Windsor and other points lasting 60 days continuously, and under been under consideration of the Department of Justice, and it is agreed to participate in the Queen's jubilee that these meetings are extremely decurred on the Turkish side of the troops from the island, as the adroceedings.
