The magistrate told Mrs. Leonard to keep the peace for a year, but during that time, if he had broken it, Mrs. Leonard had made no complaint, and if he ill-used her it was her own

Turning to Leonard, the P. M told him he would bind him over again to keep the peace for one year in his own recognizances, and $100 in each of two others, and if he failed to find these sureties he would commit

He lives on Pall Mall street, near Waterloo George McLennan, a drunk, was up again. Fined $2 or 10 days. John Hubbard, a one-eyed tramp, was arrested for vagrancy, and as he had been up before for the same offense-begging on the street-when he was here two years ago, the magistrate took compassion on him and gave him one month. The Sting Wi hin. It is said there is a rankling thorn in every heart, and yet that none would exchange their own for that of another. Be that as it may, the sting arising from the heart of a corn is real enough, and in this land of tight boots a very common complaint also. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a never-failing remedy for this kind of heartache, as you can easily prove if afflicted. Cheap, sure, painless. Try the genuine and use no other.

Sincerity is the base of every virtue.
