Mary & Pendleton, Wall street, New York, write The Advertiser: The move-ment from farmers to primary re-ceiving centers and thence by vessel to Europe is assuming large propor tions and appears to justify those who have assumed that the forward contracts, made during past months have been genuine and that the wheat will go. Under these circumstances, prices are likely to see a further sharp advance. It now looks like 90 cent wheat. Government report given condition corn 84.2 against 96 a year ago and the suggestion is 1,970,337,000 bushels. Oats condition 86 against 77.3 a year ago, indicating 699,557,000 bushels. An Indian to Be Shot on Monday Wil Be on the Diamond Until Saturday.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 13.-Wah teh-nish, a member of the Choctaw tribe, in Indian territory, is under senence to be shot next Monday. Meanwhile Wah-teh-nish plays ball, and very good ball indeed, for he is a star player on the baseball team which upholds the honor of his tribe on the diamond. It was originally intended that he should be shot next Saturday, but the governor of the Choctaw Nation is a man of tender heart. Wherefore, when he learned that to hold the execution on Saturday would interfere with a game to be played in this city on that day, he postponed the interesting cere-mony. Only one thing interfered with his complete enjoyment of the situation, and that was the probability that he would miss playing a few ball games. His fellow-players presented the case urgently to the governor, who paroled the condemned Indian. Since that time he has run up a good batting and fielding average. No restraint was placed upon him. He had agreed to report at Tuskahoma to be executed, and his tongue was not forked. Through many towns went the Choctaw braves, and Wah-teh-nish ran pases, and threw the ball home with unerring skill.

Rain caused a postponement until Saturday of a game scheduled at Fair-mount Park, this city, for Aug. 1.
