OVERCOMES BIG EARLY LEAD AND TURNS TIDE FOR LONDON

Deneau's Delegation "Breaks" Into League by Winning a Game From St. Thomas Here on Saturday-Score Was 11 to 9-London's New Line-Up Works Much Better.

IEY JINX.]

HE goddess of fortune, or of chance, or whatever old goddess it is that guides the destiny of ball players and ball games, smiled on the efforts of Mr. Deneau and his gang of pennant pursuers Saturday afternoon, at the local premises across the river, and London finally managed to break into the Canadian league for 1913. That poor old losing streak, which has been abiding in the Deneau camp since last Wednesday, was chased to the tall timbers for keeps, and if it ever dares to show its face in the vicinity of Mr. Deneau and his dauntless demons again, it is going to be shot on sight.

THIS IS STRANGE, BUT TRUE.

And all this prepares the way for the welcome news which we have to impart today. London beat St. Thomas on Saturday, by the score of 11 to 9. We can vouch for this because we were there and witnessed the glad happenings and believe us, after those three successive defeats, it was some merry occasion. The best part of it was that our demon Deneaultes sneaked the game away from The best part of it was that our demon Deneaultes sneaked the game away from The section hands after the latter gents had imagined they had it packed away in the cooler for keeps. The Saints kind of threw a scare into us by accumulating in the carly spasms, and visions of the dire doings of Wednesday a large lead in the early spasms, and visions of the dire doings of Wednesday a large lead in the early spasms, and visions of the dire doings of Wednesday a large tucked up their sleeves and they sprang it all in a heap, as it were, in the fifth inming. In this section of the joust they unloaded seven runs into the first inming. In this section of the joust they unloaded seven runs into the turmoil and gave the official scorer another kink. It was a bulgy inning, that fifth.

ORT PROTESTS IT.

However, there is still a fly in the olintment, so to speak. Before said game efforts to put it out of Mr. Ort's reach, the said Mr. Ort issued a large and beautiful protest to the official scorer, and it is likely that the winner o to cut him off, Myers hit him in the back with the ball, the run scoring. The next

Some Loyal Fans Present.

It was a nice game despite its large score, and its parade of pitchers, and the freezing weather it was played in. A court of the ball and filled the bases. Kustus flied out to Furssedonn, Forgue being held on third. Wright struck out. Higgins getting himself out of a the freezing weather it was played in. A good Saturday crowd, considering the weather and the showing of the team against St. Thomas in the first three games, was present, and the fans pulled for the team all the way. This was one of the features of the contest. Every inning, the bleachers kept up a continual roar, and gave the players every encouragement. It was the kind of spirit that helps win ball games and speaks volumes for the loyalty of the local fans, when the team is running in a bady rut. It was a pleasure to hear it.

Two Out of Three From Colts Is What Deneau Anticipates With Much Strengthened Team

With the infield greatly strengthened, the Tecumsehs will open a threegame series at Hamilton this afternoon, returning to London Wednesday night and starting a three-game series at home Thursday with the Guelph Maple Leafs, the team that Louis Cook is piloting this season. The London players left for Hamilton at 9 o'clock this morning, and Manager Deneau was confident of taking two out of the three games from the Colts. Dunlap, the new infielder, reported yesterday, and if size and build counts for anything, he should prove a mighty fine ball player. He puts one a lot in mind of Charley Isaacs, the former Guelph third-sacker. He also looks something like Harry Furssedonn, and is about the same build. He will likely be found at third base today, with Linneborn at second. Linn will report to Manager Deneau when the team arrives in Hamilton, noon, although Chaput may get another chance. If the weather is mild in all probability Chaput will be picked, and he should cop the game. Del got away to a bad start last Wednesday, but he was not altogether to blame, and with a good team behind him today everything should be in his favor.

If Chaput works today, Nicholls will work tomorrow, and the prospects look by hight for two controls of the same of the prospects.
