alls and operas, concerts ight; visits in and out of therings, sham-fights, reh deliveries, and a host of s. every day, are the cons. They seem, however, worse for this constant aich insures for them the mmunity, amongst whom largely increases, if it heir health. The manners escending and affable, that follow their steps where-

REVENCE.

urn, made up to the end of an increase upon every y, except those subject to the income tax. The cry rosparity was never, perthis return serves to in. theless, cautious and fariread anything like war, or since speculation is quite that dreadful year, 1846. st of venturers afloat, the le rumor would bring about inevitable ruin of theus. apything like the crash appen in America, is to be panic now in a week or sort or kind, would fall with bare contemplation of ewcastle is still living, but be in a most dangerous h so that his death may at nce. His son-in-law, Lord pest, died a day or two ago, afficiently conscious for the ade known to him. Both the Prince of Wales have m, and are understood to leave of him with many inand regard. to-day-for money, 9016 to nt, Aug. 9, 901/2 to 905/8.

E OF NEWCASTLE.

LIFORNIA. TO 6TH AUGUST.]

o, Aug. 4 .- James Fitzgermardered this morning by another soldier, at the bar-Point. They were both shut house, when Kennedy stabwith a bayonet. sian steam corvettes Abela, twenty days from Hono-

Vood has been ordered by ell to the command of Fort

Insurance Company incorcapital, $200,000. D. C. Elgelow, L. Stevens, W. C. elk, William Norris, Albert icknor, and Charles Main are

R. Harrold was arrested at T.), July 30th, for uttering guage.

Denmark.

ndet of 29th June, says: Ac-

THE WEEKLY BRITISH COLONIST.

VICTORIA, VANCOUVER ISLAND, TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1864. VOL. 5. NO. 41.

"HE BRITISH COLONIST | denounced the arbitrary and unconstitutional character of many of its acts, and expressed himself in favor of an armistice and a con-PUBLISHED vrntion of the States, believing both Sections EVERY MORNING. wanted peace and would have it. He believ-(Sundays Excepted, ed a reunion possible. The South has pro-AT VICTORIA, V. . to meet us, and see if we could not agree,

TERMS Annum, in advance, ----- $1000 For Six Months, - - - 600 Per Week, payable to the Carrier, ----- 25 Bingle Copies, ----- 10 Advertisements inserted on the most reasonabl

NOTICE:

ohn Meakin

ets & Nel

larkson & Co.,

W. R. Burrage,

L.P.Fisher, -

Sarnard's Express, - - -

THE WEEKLY COLONIST. by force of arms had been exercised under furnished to Subscribers for $6 a year; 34 for six the mask of patriotism. months; $2 50 for three months: payablein advance,

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent for the NEW YORK, Aug. 11 .- The steamer Per ollecting of advertisements, etc., in San Francisco.

AGENTS. New Westminster Quesnelle, B. C. Vanwinkle. and Territories under Juarez to be brought Barkerville within the authority of the new government. Camerontown. - - Clinton. Lord Howard called attention to the enlistment of emigrants in America, and com-Comax plained of British subjects being entrapped. He urged the necessity of watchfulness to put San Francisco F. Algar, - - Clement's Lane, London G. Street, - - - 30 Cornhill, London. it down. Mr. Layard admitted there were

Later Eastern News.

Grant fighting near Richmond.

Special Despatches to British Colonist

Monticello, August 20, 5¹/₂ p.m.

front of Royal Point. Great credit is due Generals Merrill, Custar and Col. Devenold Stanton.

OUR LONDON LETTER, July 16th, 1864. THE VOTE OF CENSURE.

homes.

NEW HOLY ALLIANCE !

"They do protest too much."

most importance.

The Palmerston Government has had a narrow escape, for although a majority of 18 gotiations for peace are proceeding as I write posed, through its President and his agents, was managed to be caught in the House of to you, and doubtless ere another fortnight Commons, by which Mr. Disraeli's rescluand instead of war wants an armistice and a tions were defeated, the majority of 9 against of war will have entirely evaporated, and arconvention. He considered, with a Repub- them in the Lords on the same evening, the angements be entered into to save Denmark lican form of Government it was impossible 8th inst., was tautamount to telling them that (from any repetition of those horrors which to keep States together by force of arms. He they must go to the right-about. Lord Pal- have desolated a large portion of her provwas for trying reconciliation, and compro- merston, however, has completely ignored the inces, and destroyed so many once happy mise. The resolution was unanimously adop- vote of the Upper House, and carries on his ted, declaring the country as passing through course of proceeding just as if nothing whata fearful political convulsion and that violence ever had been said or done against his administration. Of the debate itself, and of its results in the House of Commons. I am able to relate several particulars, for I will not say it was my privilege, but rather my mis-fortune, to be present in the Reporter's gal-sively and offensively, and to withstand the ery, the four weary nights through which it dragged its very slow length alorg. On popening the case against the Government, I opening the case against the Government, I a big has arrived.

Sia has arrived.
Nanaimo
Nanaimo
Nanaimo
The French journals continue to harp on the impending sea fight between the Federal and rebel cruisers in the Channel.
Yale.
Lytton
Said England intended to recognize the new than 1 had ever before witnessed. evidently that his method of the supposed allied powers, however, has positively contradicted it, using the case against the Government, a felt persuaded that Mr. Disraeli was aware of this announcement was put forth in a journal, generally supposed to draw its political inspirations from the Premier himself, has induced a universal belief in its accuracy. Each of the supposed allied powers, however, has positively contradicted it, using the case against the Government, a second control of the supposed in the supposed is the supposed allied powers, how ever, has positively contradicted it, using the supposed allied powers in the supposed allief in the supposed al his going in for "a forlorn hope." His man-ner, which never gives any very positive in-inspirations from the Premier himself, has arising from a conviction that his method of has positively contradicted it, using the attempting to upset the Government was strongest terms of denial, so strong, indeed, neither straightforward nor honest. The that most people are disposed to think, that resolutions he had cleverly framed, were of like the lady of the play, the usual tricky construction to which he invariably resorts, when he intends to fight a great political battle, and were so designated by many of his own followers. Then, as he ment, and continues to circulate a corres-

great complaints, but the government could proceeded to animadvert upon the treatment pondence, which bears upon its face every not do more than it had done. He trusted of Denmark, he did not attempt to define any that the American authorities would endeavor to check the abuses. Several other speeches policy should the Government be displaced, and the party to which he belongs become were made, including one by P. Taylor, who dominant. He was as loud too in the exdefended the Federal government, which was determined, he said, to put down the slave- pression of a desire that peace should be maintained as any one of the peace, at any holder's rebellion. price, party could be. No wonder, therefore, The Queen's speech was read by a Com- that when Mr. Gladstone immediately rose to mission. It deeply regrets a continuation of reply to him, he was utterly demolished; but civil war in America; promises a continued Mr. Gladstone lost his temper, and was painstrict neutrality, but would rejoice to see a fully personal, as his speech will show; but he hit the blot in his antagonist's tirade, and faction at the influe of action of ac

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—Correspondence from Grant to the 16th, 6 p m, says: The fighting on North James River to day, resulted favorably but without any decisive result although the enemy were driven back with considerable loss in killed and wounded, and forty prisoners. Rebel Generals Chamblin and Gerard were killed and their bodies left in our hands, also a number of wounded This morning we are north of the river. Our loss in killed and wounded is meanly a thousand, many slightly owing to thick woods. Bnemy's loss very severe.

a thousand, many slightly owing to thick woods. Benemy's loss very severe. A dispatch from Sheridan dated Winchester, 17, A dispatch from Sheridan dated Winchester, 17, I 0 an, reports that Merrill's Cavalry were at-tacked yesterday at noon on the north side of the shenandoah, by G R Shaw's division of Long-street's corps, and Wickhams and Lennox's bri-gades of cavalry. The enemy were beaten. Loss, 500 stands of arms, 24 officers, 276 prisoners. Sheridan lost heavily in the cavalry fight in Fort of Royal Point. Sheridan lost heavily in the cavalry fight in Kenton and the nessed. He evidently felt the degradation of his position, and yet he has so much of the esprit de corps in his composition, that he would not desert a colleague, or leave him to defend a policy for which he is heavly resdefend a policy for which he is instally res-ponsible, single handed. What he said was, himself. The dismissal of his war-cabinet | of royalty has scarcely been felt at all. Then by the King of Denmark is attributable a lesson has been taught, which they who solely to the advices he has received from run may read, if they wish to do so. Louis Napoleon, to whom the King's brother

MURDER IN A RAILWAY CARRIAGE. Prince Hans, has gone in his difficulty. Ne-The whole city has been all the week in the greatest state of excitement and consternation, on account of a most deliberate and calls me ro report the latest news, the dread horrible murder committed on the evening of the 9th inst., in a first-class carriage of the North London Railway. I will not attempt now to enter into the details, which will be supplied to you by the papers I forward to you by this mail. I may, however, just as well tell you, that not only are the murderer or murderers undiscovered, but that the police have really no positive clue to them. If the In the midst of "wars and rumors of war," the public have been startled by an ancriminals should escape, this is only another specimen of the inefficiency of our police nouncement in the Morning Post, that Russia, force, in spite of all that is said of its being. Prussia and Austria, have formed a solemn league and covenant, to act together defen- perfect in all its details.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

progress of liberal principles, not only in Things are getting slack, but the assurance that war has been prevented, is having its effect upon all classes, and prognosticates a prosperous amount of business after the ap-for account, Aug. 9th, 9078 to 91.

Mr. Cary yesterday sent in his resignation The Morning Post adheres to its first stateof the Attorney-Generalship, which was accepted by His Excellency. The vacancy thus caused will doubtless be filled provisionally at once, from among our local barristers, although the appointment rests not been put upon paper, by which means with or must be confirmed by the Crown. they can deny in one sense, that which they We hope that His Excellency, in making his could not repudiate in another! The time is selection for the Acting Attorney-General-coming, when doubtless the great antagon- ship, will consult the feelings and wishes of ism between the systems of the past and the community, and avoid the odium that present will take a more positive and critical would inevitably attach to an unpopular and osition than has ever yet been attempted. unsuitable appointment. It is possible to Diplomacy may strive to avert such an Eu- secure for the position a gentleman of inropean catastrophe; but it looms in the dis-tance, and a spark of any kind might in an qualifications that unfortunately have heretohour be fanned into a furious flame. What fore been "conspicuous for their absence," the results would be, it is not easy to con- and the want of which in the official adviser jecture ; but the struggle, whenever it com- of the Crown has caused so much dissatis-

LEECH RIVER JUSTICE.

LEECH RIVER, Aug. 20th.

NEW ZEALAND. EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST .- The follow. ing bare description of the manner in which The troubles of the northern part of this cases before our Gold Commissioner are conprosperous colony are very far from being ducted will be a novelty to your readers, if ended. The news by the last mail is very not very edifying to them. As the case will sad, relating as it does the defeat of Her than Mr. Cobden; and Mr. Horsman and Mr. Bernal Osborne were even more bitter and the death of many gallant officers, both and the death of many gallant officers, both entering into its merits. I laid a written remilitary and naval. General Cameron, no- entering into its merits. I laid a written re-Bourse was flat. FARMER POINT (Canada East), August 15—The steamer North American, from Liverpool the 4th, and Londonderry the 6th, Liverpool the 4th, Liverpool the 4t on the following morning went down to his another stronghold to which they had fled, availing themselves of the darkness of the camp with my witnesses-a distance of 21/2 miles. I met a constable who requested me night, after their successful resistance to the to return with him to the claim, I did so, and European troops. That they will in the end then again started for the Commissioner's be hunted down cannot be doubted; but it tent ; before reaching it, I met Mr. Golledge, will cost the mother country, no less than who told me he had adjourned the hearing the colony, much blood and treasure ere until Friday. On that day Mr. Golledge tranquillity be restored. It is reported that heard the case for my opponent, but on my the native chiefs have again resorted to cancalling a witness to disprove their statements. pibalism, and that has so exasperated the he refused to hear him, and at once gave the British that we fear very little quarter will decision against me. I requested him to: be given them when it comes to close hand swear the witness on the other side, on the to hand fighting. As usual it now turns out ground of false evidence, which he refused to that the natives have been well supplied with do. I add no comments, these facts tell their rifles and powder by the very colonists, who own story. I complain of the hardship of are now urging on the Government to a obliging me again to bring my witnesses 21/2 process of extermination. Such is the mormiles away from their work, and as my opality of greed ! ponents were working the claim in dispute, I HOAX ABOUT A NAVAL FIGHT. requested him to lay it over; his answer, if The whole town was set upon the qui vive not intentionally rude and over-bearing, was on Wednesday by a report being circulated anything but satisfactory or gentlemanly. Yours very truly, T. EVELYN VENABLES. NEW WESTMINSTER EXPLORING ASSOCIAS rion.-This association has despatched the first regularly organized exploring party which has gone out from New Westminster. lobby on a litter, and allowed to record his ed, inasmuch as there has not only been no The party left this morning and is composed of four of our citizens with as many Indians touching the turn-stile. Ministers knew while lying at anchor off Dover. By the bye, to do the packing, &c. The company is not numerically strong, but is composed of men possessing both scientific skill and a practical experimental knowledge of prospecting, and uartz as well as placer mining. The route aid out for them is to ascend the valley of the Coquitlam river until they arrive at the watershed from whence a number of rivers take their rise, where they will be guided by circumstances and indications as to the course they may take. It is proposed that they remain out about a month; but, of course, in this as in other matters they will necessarily be guided very much by circumstances. Recent prospectings of the most superficial character would lead us to hope fairs. that gold may be discovered in paying quan-THE LONDON SEASON. tities, on the Coquitlam river. A party of

LATEST PRICES.

Consols for money-905% to 9034. Ditto,

RESIGNATION OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

feature of truth and accuracy. The real state of things between those powers is doubtless, in effect, that a tacit arrangement has been come to between them, but it has mences, will be short, sharp and terrible. faction to the public generally. Expect, from the assertion that such an alliance has been formed, great news of the ut-advices from Alsen it is beopenhagen) that the embarcatroops has been successfully egiment has displayed grest

r of Marine on the 30th June t in the late capture of Alsen ke," although very hotly eut slightly injured. A ship of t add two gun sloops, succeeded d their escape from the Alsen one gun sloop and a jolly boat p to avoid capture, the crews, g saved.

Afghanistan.

Bombay, 9th June. Telegraph from Suez.) of Afghanistan has defeated thers, who has fled into British the Ameer is now marching her brothers.

WINSLOW'S DEMAND IE CONFEDERAE AGENT.

rom the London Star.]

U.S.S.S. 'KEARSARGE", ? Cherbourg, June 21. EUR BONFILS : SIR,-Certain piich I, from feelings of humanity ave several prisoners when the d gone down, took them into These officers and sailors are subject to the laws of war; they oners, and I demand that they rd the Kearsarge to surrender a y should endeavor to free themhis obligation under cover of the have been used for their es ust expect to meet with no mercy JOHN A. WINSLOW, Captain.

THE REPLY.

IN JOHN A. WINSLOW : SIR,ved your letter of June 21. Your ne which I have no power whattain, and should have been adthe French government, with unfortunates have found a rew of no law of war to prevent escaping from the field of batt rse, even although he had been er, and I do not see why a sailou himself by swimming, should be ase. I must, therefore, refuse to go-between toward certain indi om you do not even name, bu claim as prisoners. I canno nderstand how the authorities States can pretend to held pri territory of the French empir BONFILS. etc., or CRIM. CON.-Felix C'Byrne part proprietor of the Irish News ried man, was found by his wil d him, in a room with a woman nment House at a late hour la wife burst in the door and cauge spouse in flagrante delictu, a skedaddled down stairs, his w the woman, who, with fear reeches, alarmed the whole hou separation is probable, as O'By writ of habeas corpus to-day ion of his children.-Sac. Uni of the Potomac at noon of the 17th, says the 2d has just passed: The political news is al-corpa having been unsuccessful in the attack on most a blank. the north side the James on the 14th, fell back to the U.S. was steamer Niagara arrived at a safe position and remained and yesterday. The other assault was determined on and carried out with a salute from the British war steamer. 1,700 prisoners and some heavy guns were red. Our loss is severe. We hold the po-

The London Times publishes a letter from Gregg's cavalry had an engagement and drove writer expresses his belief that Grant knows the rebels around the works near New Market The Vanderbilt from City Point reports that mond can be taken by fighting, and that he the whole scene as pitiable to wites, as it full well that neither Petersburg nor Richroad, but were forced back. the rebels opened a furious cannonade on all our will make no more onslaughts on the Confedlines last night. The rebels fell back without attempting to assault. Loss small. A rconnoisance sent out yesterday by Hancock subsistence; but that Richmond can never reached Fair Oaks, five miles distant. be starved out until the two railroads from BOSTON, Aug. 11.-Reported at Halifax,-U. S. gunboat outside harbor.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 12.-The steamer from annihilated ; which he contends Grant is not Mobile arrived on the 11th. Farragut had prepared his fleet for action, and ordered an attack on Fort Morgan. It was to cover the placed on half rations, but this will not affect firing from the fleet. The land forces inthe result. vested wherever they got ground to stand upon. The rebels destroyed all the outbuildings, and burned the fort. Only one vessel lying under the guns. Everything indicates a determination to contend to the last

Farragut demanded the unconditional surrender of the fort. The rebels closed communication by saying they had six months' provisions, and would resist to the last mo-

Grauger in the rear cut the communications from the fort.

ment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 .-- The Richmond Sentinel of the 17th, contains the following : an engineer to inspect the alleged damage, MOBILE, August 15 .- Two Monitors and agreeing to abide their joint decision, and five gunboats crossed the Dog river bar, threatened to strike his colors unless satiscoming within two miles of the obstructions. faction was given in 24 hours. Accordingly The rebels opened fire for three hours on our after that time elapsed the flag was hauled batteries. No damage done. One gunboat replied. Battery silent. Enemy which arrived almost immediately afterward, withdrew. Firing was heard in the direction of Fort Morgan to-day. The Mobile Register of the 14th says that ter rests for the present. Chambers whipped the enemy at Abbyville, Miss., capturing 25 prisoners. WASHINGTON, August 18 .- News from Shanandoah to-day is favorable.

Sheridan is pushing Early from point to point at every encounter. The reinforcements of Early by Longstreets corps are doubted, as he is believed to be in Grant's front.

HAGERSTOWN, August 19th .- Exciting and conflicting rumors from the Valley were received here to-day. Averill held Martins- letter received by a gentleman in this city leon has, however, at last made some sign of burg. No rebels in sight; but indications showed that they were moving toward the Shenandoah. Refugees are ariving bringing intelligence of rebel advances.

marriage.

SYRACUSE, August 18. - Vallandingham addressed a mass meeting to-day, and where he will remain two days, and after a in the lurch, but has merely showed an apsaid he expected the nomination of trip to the Dalles, make his way across to this parent indifference, which can at any moment the Chicago Convention to be pledged city via Olympia, lecturing at his different be thrown off. I say "apparent indifference" for a suspension of hostilities, and stopping places. Our citizens may, judging since nobody believes that he has not some a convention of the majority of delegates from the notices in our American contem- griere pensee, or other, and will, when the not more note will be taken of her than if a convention of the inajority of doits and participal speaker of out and participal speaker of and participal speaker of the participal speaker of t was John B. Weller of California, who re-viewed the history of the Administration, as the lawyers assert, nihil ad rem I Fight-Richmond, dated June 27th, in which the ing shy of Denmark, he appealed, as it were, ad misericordiam, and in unconnected sentences, and with stammering utterance, made erate's breastworks, but quietly assume the ply was a better specimen of oratorical powdefensive. He says the question is one of er than was his opening speech; but the specimen of special pleading, as the other. There was no sincerity about it. The divisthe South, as well as the James River Canal ion itself was a scene, such as never has been witnessed in the new Palace of Westminster.

and the railroads from the North be utterly strong enough to do. He admits that Grant's Accustomed as I have been to the transacoperations may cause the Confederates to be actions of parliament for nearly half a century, I have never been present in such an

The Alexandria (Egypt) correspondent of the Times gives the particulars of a quarrel between the American Consul and the Egyptian Government. An American, in crecting a steam engine, partly destroyed an aqueduct for supplying the town with water. The Consul, on being applied to by the authorities, stopped the works, but subsequently permitted them to proceed. The Government then forcibly interfered, and ejected the men from the works. The Consul thereupon demanded a satisfactory apology for the insult to the American flag. He refused to accede to the proposal that each party should send down, and a despatch from the Government, was returned unopened. The Consul has telegraphed to Constantinople, and the matwho have already fled before them. The Times says it appears likely that of Mexico before England. But what has become of you, ill-used, Vienna despatches state that an armistice down-trodden Denmark, whilst this strite of has been concluded with Denmark for three parties has been going on ? She has found months, to terminate on six weeks' notice. at last, and to her cost, that there is nothing verton failed to establish the validity of his whatever to be expected from England. She with her opponents, and to obtain from them as much of their " tender mercies" as they

DENMARK. America will recognize the new Government

A CELEBRITY .- We learn from a private may be persuaded to bestow. Louis Napolast evening, that Dr. Bellows, the talented taking up a cause that he has helped to saand eloquent President of the United States done; and he can do what he is disposed to ven Sanitary Commission, intends to visit Victoria, ture upon with a much better grace, inasand may be expected here in a week or ten much as he has not bullied anybody, and then days. He will be in Portland about the 20th, left those whom he pretended to help

France, and permanence and stability to many years past, and the absence of the chief

uproar since the stormy Reform Bill days. that the Federal steamer Kearsarge which The halt, the lame, and the blind, were lite- suck the Alabama, had come to grief off rally dragged up to vote for ministers. Baron Jersey, having been encountered by the Flor-Rothschild, who has not been once present in | ida and so disabled as to have sought shelter his place for two years, owing to severe ill- in port Goree, about 15 miles above St. Helness, tottered into the House, and Lord Ro- en's. But a few hours served to dispel the bert Clinton was positively carried into the general excitement which this report arousvote, not by passing through, but 'merely fight at all, but the Kearsage was all the that it was a matter of life and death with efforts have been made again by Mr. Mason, them, and they should not hesitate to resort the Confederate agent here, to induce Lord to practices to save themselves, which were Palmerston to do something in the way of only worthy of a severely contested election, interference. Mr. Lindsay, the ship builder, in the most corrupt anti-Reform Bill days .- | introduced Mr. Mason yesterday to the Pre-However, they are safe for another year at mier, but nothing came of the interview beleast, and the country bears with them, be- yond an exchange of civilities, and an ascause if there is little confidence in them, surance-which very sately might be saidthere is none at all in Mr. Disraeli, and those that when matters appeared more ripe for who would come into office with him, could consummation interference might be thought the two parties change places. The business of. Lord Palmerston having already had his of the two Houses is now being hurried fingers burned by interfence in foreign afthrough as fast as possible, and in another fairs, has no intention whatever of departing fortnight, the few ministers who remain be- from that neutrality which has been deterhind for it, will join those in moving away, mined upon with reference to American af-

> The London season is coming rapidly to its termination. Places of public amusement are beginning to be closed. The opera making promises for next year. The princiand less thronged every day, and houses are makes the squares and better inhabited districts wear all the semblance of a deserted illage. Her Majesty has left Windsor for Osborne, and next week the Prince and able d Princess of Wales will flit to the country to bian.

obtain something of that rest for which, after been week by week subjected, they must pine. It is now currently asserted that Her Majesty | Bull Run.

will next year appear amongst her people, and that the present is really to be the last of mourning. Heartily glad will the public be, if it is so ; but, if it be not, it is not to be denied, will get from $1,200 to $1,500 each.

pleasure seekers happening to be about four miles above the Pitt river road on that stream a few days ago washed up several pans full of houses are playing their last pieces, and surface dirt from which they obtained prospects which although small yet were of a pal thoroughfares at the West-end are less character to indicate the near proximity of the source from which the particles of gold putting on that autumnal appearance which had come. The pieces were not of the class of flour or scale gold, but minute nuggets of that sharp angular description which proves that they had not been washed any considerable distance from their native bed.-Colum-

FEDERAL PRISONERS -The Richmond Exthe enormous exertions to which they have aminer says that there have been 97, 00 prisouers received at Libby suice the battle of

> A GOOD PRIZE .- It is stated that by naval laws, when an inferior vessel sinks a superior one, her entire value goes to the victors. The Alabama being estimated to be worth $500,-000. Captain Winslow will be entitled to from $70,000 to $100.000, while the seamen