Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Other Mothers

"I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers who are troubled with female weakness to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I think it is the best medicine ever made. You may advertise my letter." Mrs. G. M. Allen, Cambridge, N. B.

My First Child
I have been greatly benefited by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was troubled in this way for nearly four years following the birth of my first child, and at times could hardly stand on my feet. A neighbor recommended the Vegetable Compound to me after I had been doctor's medicine without much benefit. It has relieved my pain and given me strength. I recommend it and give you permission to use my testimonial letter." Mrs. G. M. Allen, Cambridge, N. B.

Women who suffer should write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cambridge, Ontario, for a free copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Advice Book, "Women's ailments treated in 100 letters." Albany, N. Y.

SAYS YOUTH TODAY MORE IGNORANT

Blames Education System Because Young People Less Intellectually Independent

Oxford, Eng., June 15.—Professor John Burnet, of St. Andrew's, delivering the Bannerman lecture recently at the Sheldonian Theatre, Oxford on the subject of ignorance said that the recent enormous growth of "potential knowledge" had been accompanied by a corresponding growth of actual ignorance.

He had no doubt that the young men of the present day were on the whole less intelligent than those of his own generation. On the other hand, he was certain that the young men of today were absolutely and relatively more ignorant than those of forty years ago, and what was worse, that they had less curiosity and intellectual independence.

NOTE AND COMMENT

If the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada yesterday results in nothing more than an earlier closing of the export liquor companies' traffic in New Brunswick than might otherwise have been the case, it will at least have done some good.

Friend of my soul, farewell to thee! Thy truth, thy trust, thy chivalry. As thine I may my last end bet—Miserere, Domine.

Even more convincing evidence is given in Pope's Life of Sir John A. Macdonald, which tells in some detail of the dream which McGee had day or two before the battle found a mark. On Sunday, April 5, McGee had dined at the home of James McGee in Ottawa after dinner he lay down on the sofa in the library, and presently started on his sleep. He was in a dream when he heard a voice say to him: "I have had a fearful dream."

Canada's waterfalls developed 400,000 horse-power electrical energy during 1922. The revenue to manufacturers from this power amounted to $21,600,000, according to a report issued by the federal water powers branch of the Dominion Government.

Ontario, with Niagara Falls as its chief source of power, led in production among the provinces with 1,330,000 horse-power, the report shows. Quebec followed closely with 1,100,000 horse-power, and British Columbia was third with 310,000.

FORESAW HIS DEATH

McD'Arcy McGee Know His End Was Near? Whether D'Arcy McGee foresaw his own death has been often debated, and the anniversary of his assassination in 1868, recently, has brought back the question. A man whose high Celtic imagination might well be credited with premonitions, and who is good reader of the "Woodcock Sentinel" review that, just a month before his death, he wrote a poem on the death of a friend which he believed to have had some significance. In that poem he said:

Friend of my soul, farewell to thee! Thy truth, thy trust, thy chivalry. As thine I may my last end bet—Miserere, Domine.

Even more convincing evidence is given in Pope's Life of Sir John A. Macdonald, which tells in some detail of the dream which McGee had day or two before the battle found a mark.
