FOURTH YEAR.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1883.

PRICE ONE CENT

BON SOIR MES AMIS. TORFIGG THE HOUSE OF COMMUNS

Bills That Were Abandoned-carrying the

W. T. Strong, druggist and W. L. Booth, the holder of the syndicates were subponeated to appear before him. Fraser & Fraser appeared for Mr. Strong and Talbot Macnounced his determination of adjourning the examination till Friday upon which Mesars, Fraser and Macbeth on behalf of their clients pressed the claims in matter of a guarantee of costs. Mr. Feuton gave them to understand that he would consider the yesterday and sat down on the railway track coming down the mountan and leading into that city. He fell asleep. The point where he sat was round a curve and before an incoming train could be stopped the engine struck him and threw him eight feet. He dial in fire minutes. The women who died in five minutes. Two women, who were near by, saw his danger and ran to wake him, but they were a few seconds too

St. Louis, May 23 .- There was a heavy frost on Monday and Tuesday nights throughout the southern and part of central Missouri and in a section of Illinois swept by the tornadoes. Early vegetables were almost destroyed. Fruit and grain were badly damaged. Ice formed in most local-

MILWAUKEE, May 23 .- The schoone Young America, Erie for Milwaukee, is overdue. The Alice B. Norris left there ten days later than the Young America and arrived on Monday, but saw nothing of her. The schooner Dreadnaught is overdue. Inquiries were made to-day from Chicago about the schooner Newsboy, also much

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The treasury department rules that there is no law preventing Canadian vessels clearing from Canadian for American ports and transferr-

New York, May 23. - A panie was caused this morning by fire breaking out in R. J. this morning by fire breaking out in R. J. Greden's artificial leaf menufactory on Green street. The employees of the place, mostly women and girls, jumped from windows and climbed out on the roofs of adjoining buildings. Two lives are known to be lost and search is being made for more victims. The fire only lasted half an hour.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 23.-All over North Georgia the severe cold has alarmed agri-

Georgia the severe cold has alarmed agriculturists and has done considerable damage to the crops. The cotton crop is reported injured in the low lands of Alabama and South Carolina by the cold weather.

HELENA, Ark., May 22—The thermometor was down to thirty degrees here on Monday night and considerable hard frost prevailed. The cotton in the uplands is seriously damaged. Such a low temperature as has prevailed for the past two days was never before known here at this season of the year.

BATON ROUGE, La., May 23.—Bob Morrison, brother-in-law of the Kirbys, was found dead in the woods of Livingston found dead in the woods of Livings on parish yesterday near where the afray took place on Sunday between the Lanier and Kirby parties. The supposition is Morrison was wounded and died in endeavoring to get home. Sammy Lanier, aged 15, has not been heard from, and it is supposed has been shot in a fight and died in the woods. This forcilly fould has already caused the been shot in a fight and died in the woods.

This family found has already caused the death of nine men. There are three members of the Lanier family, with one brotherbers of the Lanier family, with one of the Morrison in law, remaining, and one of the Morrison and two of the Kirby faction.

To be the most stupendous, allair of the Scotch family, and his mother was a Craven. He was at Evon and Oxford, and has always three blocks, a temporary structure extending blocks to the south has been erected on the lake front.

There are three members of the Lanier family, with one brother broken the blocks, a temporary structure extending born of twins. He is descended from an old Scotch family, and his mother was a Craven. He was at Evon and Oxford, and has always three blocks, a temporary structure extending blocks to the south has been erected on the lake front.

washington, May 23.—A correspondent leads to the belief that Loopy is being secretly held by the police, and is not a lunatic as reported. He was attempting to In the words are the senate Farce

Ged Save the senate Farce

Graw, May 23.—The proceedings of the house to day were of the usual prorogation character. A number of minor bills were rushed through the final stages. The factory and franchine bills were withdrawn, and the sapply bil peaced. The speaker left the obasis at 3 colock and resumed it at 9 The house then having no further business of their own to transact sat for some time waiting for reports from the senate. In the words of Gilbert's lord chancellor, this august body "did nothing in particular and did it very well." They meetly passed a number of unimportant measures from the commons and then went into committee immediately rose and report. The committee immediately rose and report. The process from the commons and then went into committee immediately rose and report. The process from the commons and then went into committee immediately rose and report. The process from the commons and the went into committee immediately rose and report. The process from the sense and the sense adjourned, to meet again at eleven o'clock to-morrow.

While these important proceedings were in the sense and report and the sense adjourned, to meet again at eleven o'clock to-morrow.

While these important proceedings were Gled Save the Queen.

Special Despatch to The World.

Special Despatch to The World.

street here this morning, containing a postal card, on which the following was written;

Schooner Sea Gull gone down off Cheago a.m. I am on a spar: send help. James Donanty, Mate.

The Sea Gull was a three-masted schooner of two hundred and one tons burthen and owned in Oswego.

A FATAL CORPSE. It Infects a Number of Persons with Smallpox and Two Die.

ROBINSON, III., May 23.—The body of Susie Young, who died at Mrs. Bauer's conservatory, Cincinnati, was taken to her and the corpse prepared for burial. The undertaker and three of Mrs. Young's family developed smallpox. Mrs. Young died on Saturday. The undertaker died last

UNITED STATES NEWS.

The case of August Belmont of New York against John Devoy, editor of the Irish Nation, for libel has been adjourned until the first Monday in June. Excitement has been caused in Cincinnat by the discovery of small-pox in a conserva-tory of music there. One scholar has died and another and a servant have been at-

A convention will be held at Cleveland. Ohio, next month of the leading insurance men of Europe and the United S. ates for the purpose of forming an international association of insurance.

Gen. Roger Pryor, counsel for the alleged Number One, states that the interview in in the Brooklyn Eagle is an entire fabrication. He claims that his Tynan is the only and original Number One.

During a thunder storm at North Bergen,
N.J., on Tuesday night a stone which three men could not lift fell from the clouds. It resembles iron ore. It will be sent to the Stevens institute for examination. The New York stock and cotton exchanges and probably the produce exchange will close to-day at noon in honor of the opening of the East river bridge Five United States naval vessels have arrived to participate in

of the bucket-shops in the contest of the board of trade and the telegraph companies, thus taking the contrary view to that held by two of the federal judiciary and also two state judges having concurrent jurisdiction

CHICAGO, May 23 .- Archbishop Feehan considers the pope's circular merely a question between the clergy of Ireland and the pope, and without significance elsewhere.
The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Roman catholicism in this city will be celebrated on Sunday with imposing cere

CHICAGO, May 23 .- The national railway xposition opens to-morrow night, and in the character and number of exhibits promise to be the most stupendous affair of the kind ever undertaken. In addition to the exposition building proper, which covers meet again at eleven o'clock to morrow.

While these important proceedings were in progress, an excellent concers was going on in the commons. A number of soles, and choruses were rendered in excellent style by leading vocalists on both sides of the house. When the news was received that the senate had adjournment of the house. Mr. Baker moved an amendation of the house adjourned Sir John moved the adjournment of the house adjourned at 10.25. The national anthem was then sung in good style by the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the sound the terms in the English members of the house and was fallowed by the English members of the sound the terms of the sound that the english members of the sound the sound that the english members of the sound the sound that the english members of the sound the sound that the english members of the sound the sound that the english members of the sound that the english that the english that the engl beth for Mr. Booth. The unsual questione such as were made in the Toronto cases were asked Messrs. Strong and Booth such as "Did you buy any tickets." "Did you win CHICAGO, May 23—A bottle was found bether the toronto cases were cased to the Toronto cases were asked Messrs. Strong and Booth such as "CHICAGO, May 23—A bottle was found chief, by Hampton—Corrie." (Webb) 2 tord Ellesmero's b. c. Highland Chief, by Hampton—Corrie. (Webb) 2 tord Falmouth's b. c. Galliard, by Galliard, by

Lord Bradford's ch. c. Laccoon, by Lacydes—Adversity. (Luke) 0
Mr. Letteve's b. c. Bon-jour, by Rosfcrucian—Bonnie Katie. (Huxstable) 0
Mr. T. Cannon's b. c. Sigmophone, by Young Trumpster—Eau de Cologne. (Huxstable) 0
The field was the smallest since 1823, the next in size having figured in Donoaster's year, 1873, when a round dozen started. It was Wood's first Derby win.
Betting at the start.—7 to 2 against Galliard, 5 to 1 against The Prince, 6 to 1 against Galliard, 5 to 1 against St. Blase, 11 to 2 against Ladisiss, 10 to 1 against St. Blase, 11 to 2 against Ladisiss, 10 to 1 against St. Blase, 11 to 2 against Bondiel, 5 to 1 against St. Blase, 11 to 2 against Bondiels, 5 to 1 against Splendor, 40 to 1 against Ladisiss,
THE WINNER.

THE WINNER. St. Blaise is a bay colt by Hermit. the winner of the memorable Derby of '67, for which he started at the long odds of 66 to 1, a report having got abroad that he had broken a small blood vessel in exercise. To broken a small blood vessel in exercise. To make the win more sensational, and, it may be remarked, more uncomfortable for spectutors, the race was run in a storm of sleet. Hermit, by Newminister, to day is the most fashionable sire in England, his fee being the extraordinary one of 200 guineas for the extraordinary one of 200 guineas for each mare. The successes of his get last year, including the Derby victory of Shotover, placed him on the high pinnacle he now occupies. His victory to-day will make him more fancied than ever and possibly induce several who have been i holding back to pay the long shot asked for his services. St. Blaise's dam is Fusee, a mare with no racing record.

ing record. made his debut in the 24th Biennial at B.bury, which he won easily from four others. His next appearance was at Stockbridge, when he was beaten by Macheath four lengths over the five furlongs of the Hurstbourne stakes. A walkover for the Troy stakes, also at Stockbridge, was follewed by a dead heat and a subsequent divide at Goodwood for the Molecomb stakes with Mr. Gerard's Elzevir, a colt by the content of the Molecomb stakes with Mr. Gerard's Elzevir, a colt by the East river bridge Five United States naval vessels have arrived to participate in the opening.

Poor Miss Lewis.

Chicago, May 23.—The case of Catherine Lewis and her manager Nixon came up in court to-day. Miss Lewis denied that any attempt had been made to defraud the chorus of their earnings. Amid sobs she said she was "so confused with these attachments and things and horrid law business that she did not know whether her life was her own or belonged to some one else."

The larceny allegation was dismissed. The members of the company appear to be stranded.

A Bucket-Shop Victory.

Chicago, May 23.—Judge Tuley of the ofreuit court this morning decided in favor of the bucket-shops in the contest of the contest of the stranded.

St. Blaise carried Sir Frederick's chocolate body and yellow sleeves fourth in the Two Thousand, being three lengths behind Prince, the third, who was beaten a head for first by Galliard, upon all of whom he has turned the tables by his victory in the race for the Biue Riband.

St. Blaise's engagement list is not an exter full one.

St. Blaise's engagement list is not an extra full one. It includes the grand prize of Paris on Sunday, June 3rd, the Prince of Wales' stake, the Derby stakes, and the Rous memorial at Ascot, the twenty-fourth biennial at Stockbridge, and the Paddock plate at the Manchester July meeting.

ST. BLAISE'S ANCESTORS.
Hermit, the sire of St. Blaise, is by New-Hermit, the sire of Sc. Blaise, is by Newminster out of Seclusion, by Tadmer out of Miss Sellon, by Cowl.

Fusee, the dam of St. Blaise, was bred by Mr. Gerald Sturt, now Lord Alington, Sir Frederick Johnstone's racing partner, and was got by Marsyas out of Vesuvienne, by Gladiator out of Venus, by Sir Hercules out of Echo, by Emilius, the winner of the race in 1823 when eleves exacted the same race in 1823, when eleven started, the same number as ran this year.

THE OWNER OF THE WINNER.

Sir F. Johnstone, Bart., who has been, we think, more than once in Canada, was born in 1841, and had the luck to be the first born of twins. He is descended from an old Scotch family, and his mother was a Craven. He was at Eton and Oxford, and has always

The Epsem High-Weight Plate.
LONDON, May 23.—The race for the Ersom high-weight plate handicap was wonby Mr. T. Jennings' br. c. Auctioneer, by Lindmark—Lady Abbess, Little Charlie being second, and Mr. Ten Brocck's Chevronel third. There were no other starters.

Badges for the Races.
Badges for the races have been left on sale at Thomas' chop house, and can be had there this morning. Quofations on To-Day's Baces.

Mr. John Ferbes opened a book last even-ing on to-day's races at Frauk Martin's Turf Club, King street west. Following are the TRIAL STAKES.

10 to 7 on Disturbance
15 to 10 against Ads Glenn,
3 to 1 Bonule Bird.
10 to 3 Jonathan Scott.
10 to 2 Livings on.
10 to 2 Director,
QUEEN'S PLATE.

Even on Princess.

Woodbine Notes Buy Caiger's k'rect card.

Mr. John Forbes will make a book Badges will be on sale this

Forbes says the horse that beats his mare will about win the plate.

Disturbance, in the absence of Ada Glenn, will about capturethe Trial stakes. The Woodstock pair for the plate, with the filly for choice.

Ada Glenn for the Gash handicap, with Maumee second and Tullamore third.

The Vet. says Colonna will get away with the Welter cup handily, but somebody else says he will put a gilt edge on him.

An Englishman abusing our climate was reminded yesterday that Hermit's Derby was run in a snowstorm, and this in Surrey, England, June 1, 1867.

Considering the weather we have been having, the track yesterday was really in capital order. It will undoubtedly be a bit soft to-day, but it will not be bad going.

Mr. Walsh, immediately on his return bit soft to day, but it will not be bad going.

Mr. Walsh, immediately on his return from Montreal, yesterday laid before the committee his claim to enter the horses Fleurette, Enlight, and Lady Archibald as bona fide purchases from Mr. Grand, who is unable to enter them in his own name.

The committee will give their decision in the premises at ten o'clock this morning.

CHICAGO, May 23.—Score bicycle race, third day, Morgan (bicycle champion, Canada) 426 miles; Woodside (Ireland) 424; Madame Armando 422.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.-The Snorky and Hopper baseball clubs, composed respectively of one-armed and one-legged men, played a match to-day. Five innings were played. The two-legged one-armed side had an easy victory. Score, 34 to 11.

That Double-Scuil Race.

LOWELL, May 23.—Hanlan and Lee tolay signed articles for a double-scull race with Hamm and Conley, the course to be agreed upon within six weeks. The stakes are $2000 a side, and the distance Trotting at Philadelphia PHILADELPHIA, May 23. - Trotting meeting at Belmont park-3 minute class, Alexander won, with Index second, and Ward Medium third; best time 2.261. 2 20 class, Buzz Medium first, Brandy Boy second, and Capt. Emmons third; best time 2.22\frac{3}{2}. 2.24 pacers, unfinished, Don Cameron took two heats and Eddie C. and Kismet one each; best time 2.24\frac{3}{4}.

LOUISVILLE, May 23.—The spring meetng of the Louisville jockey club opened today. Ten thousand persons were present. The track was slow. First race, 2 mile, Carson won with Rena B. second and Centennial third.

Second race, a mile and a quarter, Apollo won with Lizzie S. second and Juliet third; time 2.17.

Third race, Kentucky Derby for 3-yearolds, $100 entrance, $1500 added, a mile and a half, Leonatus, by Longfellow—
Semper Felix, won easily with Drake Carter second, Lord Raglan third; time 2 43.
Fourth race, 1 mile heats, Rufus L. won with Snow Bok second and Ballast third; time 1 471, 1 482. time 1 474, 1.483.

Pimlico, Md., May 23.—The spring meeting of the Maiyland Jockey club began to-day. There was a large attendance. The track was heavy. First race. I mile, Bald Hornet won, with Le Petit Duc 2ad, and Goldring 3rd; time 1.22½; mutuals paid $63. Second race, one mile, Bessie won, with Parnell second; time 1.51. Third race, one mile and a quarter, Flower of Meath won, with Clournell 2nd, and Oakdale 3rd; time 2 19½. Fifth race a mile and an eighth, Crickmore won, with Haledon 2ad, and Antrim 3rd; time 2.02½. Fifth race, mile heats, Ranger won, with Mary Carbett 2nd; time 1.54½ and 1.58. Steeplechase, short course, Wooster won, with Sky Rocket 2nd, and Florie third.

The prisoners were remanded until Wed- the whole matter, viz.:

As there is no top light, large wooden feet and legs shows that an anatomical screens, on which to hang the pictures, have had to be made in the shape of triangles, the base being at the north side of the rooms, the light, of course, coming from the north windows.

Oa passing through the corridor, on the attend a meeting, which was to have been held last Sunday.

The notice appeared in last Saturday's insue. It was a seditious placard beginning "To hell with the queen."

As there is no top light, large wooden screens, on which to hang the pictures, have had to be made in the shape of triangles, the base being at the north side of the rooms, the light, of course, coming from the north windows.

Oa passing through the corridor, on the way to the oil room, several fine pictures by Homer Watson and a couple by Perre hang in almost davkness. One fine piece by Watson, No. 123, might nearly as well have been turned face to the wall, and it have been turned face to the wall, and it here is no top light, large wooden feet and legs shows that an anatomical class is very much needed in Canada. There are no bones and flesh under the child's dress.

No. 18 is Mr. Perre's diploma picture, and is in this artist's well-known style.

No. 20, a large canvas from F. A. Verney, some control of a place in our national couple by Perre hang in almost davkness.

Oa passing through the corridor, on the way to the oil room, several fine pictures by Homer Watson and a couple by Perre hang in almost davkness.

Oa fine picture, on the study of a place in our national couple to the best thing he has seat since his departure from England.

"In the Studio," by a new comer, E. W.

Coronation.

Moscow, May 23.—The emperor remains

ARCHBISHOP CROKE AT HOME. Kingstown, Ireland, May 23.—Arch

He was given an enthusiastic welcome.

Replying to an address presented him, he said he had no reason to be dissatisfied with his visit to Rome. TROUBLE IN THE GERMAN CABINET.

A Difference of Opinion as to the Treat-

BERLIN, May 23 .- There appears to be a division between the German and Prus-

FOREIGN CABLE NEWS.

It is announced that the marines assist-

British government to support its application to the khedive for a grant of additional land for purposes of cutting a second and parallel canal, and is preparing to begin work as soon as the necessary privileges can be secured.

To quote the words of a passer by, "The artist has just left off where the difficulties commence."

Nos. 11, 12, 16, 19 and 22 are by our old friend T. M. Martin and show no falling The Alabama Award Surplus desire of the tory leaders, has decided to still that Circular. DUBLIN, May 23 .- John Dillon publishe letter advising the Irish people to make the Parnell fund such a success that the pope will realize how grievously he has been seems almost impossible that the hanging Grier, No. 21, is a very cleverly painted The Emperor of Russia Preparing for his committee should escape blame in this par- interior, and will bear close inspect ticular instance. It is surely a mistake to Moscow, May 23.—The emperor remains for the next three days fasting in the palace within the Kremlin.

hang the corridor with immense paintings Lily." This is a portrait of one of Toron-of very broad treatment, when because of to's belles in seathetic garb contemplating a the czar on the cocasion of his coronation include civilians exiled to Archangel and soldiers drafted to disciplinary companies.

The ceremony of blessing the imperal flag was performed at the Kremlin to-day in presence of the emperor, empress, imperial family, and the emperor's military household. The emperor and empress drove from Alexandrovsky palace to the Kremlin in an open carriage and without an escort.

A portion of the parapet behind the church of St. Busil fell to-day on the heads of the people below, wounding several. It is reported some died. Fifty suspicious persons have been arrested in the last few days.

The emperor and empress will remain in ductions from Cruickshank, Grier, Boisseau, Among the pictures loaned for the occasion are a Turner and a Sir Joshua Reynolds. Sir Fred. Leighton, P. R. A., has also presented to the academy a fine head entitled "Sansone," which is well worth going to see.

Altogether the exhibit is undoubtedly the finest ever held in this city.

No 1 by Mrs. Schreiber, entitled "A Christmas Morning," is an animated picture of a group of beautiful children who have evidently been early at the Christmas stocking. This picture and No. 6, "Priscilla and John Alden," by the same artist, though thinly painted, are still stronger than any previous work of Mrs. Schreiber's, and show improvement.

No. 2, "A Montreal butcher's shop," by A. Boisseau, the vice-president of the side of the side of the conquered patriot's pensive brow when Caronuve arise triumph thronged the streets of Rome."

Paul Peel has here another large canvas "The geturn of the Flock" A Fressh land-scape with sheep coming home in charge of the shepherd. The whole picture is woolly and not up to his landscapes of last year.

Nos. 26 and 32 are by Mr. Perre. They should both sell as they are good faithful bits of nature.

The next two on the catalogue are loaned, one is the work of Lawrenson Rome, lent by Sir Joshua Reynolds, lent by Mr. Harper of Ottawa. These two with the Turner lent by Mr. R. F. Gagen, and the Sir F. Leighton should be seen by all lovers and students of art.

We intend taking up the oils again in order, and will thereafter' commence with the watercolors of which there is a splendid collection.

A. Boisseau, the vice-president of the sian ministers as to the manner in which academy, is a faithful and realistic thing, the inhabitants of Schleswig should be treated. When Scholz refused to answer the question of Johannsen in the Reichstag yesterday, whether the Germans living in north Schleswig who became Danes after the Danish war would be re-admitted as German subjects if they desired, Von Puttkamer, vice-president of the council and minister of the interior, approached Scholz in an excited manner and held a conference with him. Subsequently when Scholz began to speak on another question, Von Puttkamer left the house.

but it is hard to get much poetry out of a leg of beef. The figures are well grouped. Nos. 3 and 4 are by Allan Edson, a painter well and favorably known. It is to be hoped that his residence abroad will not affect his originality, as these two paintings smack very much of an impression from the popular painter Corot, and to our mind are not up to Edson's showing at last year's academy.

No. 5, "The Meadow," by Paul Peel, is but it is hard to get much poetry out of be hoped that his residence abroad will not and confine myself to writing puffs a synode, min weak and ineffective, and the same could almost be applied to No. 9, a winter piece by the same artist, but his No. 10, a large painting called "The Sardine Fishery off Cape Finisterre," shows that he has taken It is announced that the marines assisting the police in Ireland are to be withdrawn.

Three Americans Lave been swarded medals at the Salon in Paris, namely, Pearce, Whistler and Dannat.

A secret society with 300 members has been discovered at Acres. Thirty-four members have been arrested.

Reports from Bosnia state that the ground is covered with three feet of snow. The crops are entirely probably ruined, and great suffering will result.

The trial of the great case of fraud at Cronstadt is connection with the failure of a savings bank, resulted in the santencing of two directors to transportation.

A disastrous fire in the Russian navigation company's building yards yesterday at Sebastapool destroyed the machinery, models, and workshops for ironclads.

Lord Dufferin has arrived in England from Egypt. The British government has protested against the imposition by Turkey of an ad valorem duty on English goods instead of the regular tariff.

There is an impression among the Irish members of parliament that the government that he government are looking for an opportunity to remit the remainder of the term to which Healy, Davitt and Quinn were sentenced to prison.

The Suez Canal company has asked the British government to support its application to the khedive for a grant of additional a long step in advance. The canvas is about off. No. 12 especially, "Where the Lilies Grow," is a sweet little bit of scenery, and well treated.

commons in relation to the disposition of the surplus of the Alabama award. It is thought the question can be raised more conveniently at the expiration of the fishery treaty in 1884.

Mr. Robert Harris, who has recently obtained so handsome a commission from the dominion government, shows No. 13, "Chaff." If a medal for progress were to be voted, to our mind Mr. suffrages of the electors. His works show that he has made remarkable improvement during the two years of his absence, and a visitor cannot fail to be struck with the pope will realize how grievously he has been deceived by the English government and the miserable pauper landlords who infest tions to this year's academy. "Chaff" is a picture which tells its own story. A French

ROYAL CANADIAN ACADEMY. | cuirassier in full armor is sitting at an in-The first thought which will be suggested to the mind of the observant visitor to the Normal school rooms, in, which this

PRELIMINARY FXAMINATOV OF year's academy exhibition is being held, is that it is high time that Toronto should A Witness Testifies to Having Seen Paid to Harder Landfords.—Freat Excisement in the District.

DUBLIN, May 22.—Two more arrests have been made at Castleba in connection with the recently discovered murder conspiracy in County Mayo. There is great excitement over the arrests. Two hundred extra members of the Royal Irish constabulary have been drafted to the town.

Nally, brother of 'Scrab' Nally, one of the defendants in the state trials in Dublin, and several other prisoners were examined to day on a charge of conspiracy. An informer named Coleman will testify that he received twenty pounds to shoot landlords. No reporters were allowed at the examination.

The prisoners were remarked with Wed. The heading of the catalogue will explain the whole matter, viz.:

armor and surroundings as well, and alto-

The prisoners were remanded until Wednesday.

In o der to avoid the unpleasant glare caused by the side light, and to view the pictures to the best advantage, it is suggested that visitors should be gir their inspection near the windows, and as much as possible turn their backs to the light.

Setzure of a Paper Owned by the Member

The prisoners were remanded until Wednesday.

In o der to avoid the unpleasant glare caused by the side light, and to view the pictures to the best advantage, it is suggested that visitors should be gir their inspection near the windows, and as much as possible turn their backs to the light.

As there is no top light, large wooden feet and legs shows that an anatomical feet and legs shows the shows the statement of the feet and legs shows that an anatomical feet and legs shows that an anatomical feet and legs shows the shows the shows the shows the shows the shows the shows

The persons to be granted an amnesty by the railings the observer cannot possibly does not deserve commendation from any

WHAT THRY ARR KAVING

They say that I am sixty-four-The Queen. They say that I really came up here to write for the Globe and keep it straight—T. W. Anglin. They say that I must leave the politics to Anglia

Brown.
They say that I'm going to win the plate—Ork They say that we are worth seeing-The Picture

MORE ABOUT THE WORLD.
The Sun, like the Toronto World, ender

And marching all day in a review for the edification of the mob,

And eating buns and reacle with a bayonet, And puting in a second night or the care.

And not having your boots off for 72 hours.

The fo'lowing 'tips' for the Queen's Plate were left

	One of	them is sure	to win	1:
ä	That	Orkney will	win	the	plate.
	. 46	Princess Lou	ise	. 44	**
i	"	Inspector	44	46	"
ă	"	Williams	"	**	**
	.46	Marquis		'44	"
	"	Edith Brown		 -	- 44
	"	Wild Deer	44		4
	"	Hercules	44		44
	"	Athlete	44	44	14
	"	Rescue	"	**	"
1	"	Bonnie Vic	11		16
9		Roddy Pring	le	**	**
	"	Fred Henry	44	**	"

MOVEMENTS OF OCEAN STEAMSHIPS

WRATHER PROBABILITIES

TORONTO, May 24, 1 a. m.-Lakes: Moderate