DENMAN'S MISDIRECTION IN EXAMPLE OF WHAT A LITTLE WORD CAN DO. How a Verdict Against O'Don Have Been Secured-Mr. Lowell to Ask for a Mi LONDON, Dec. 13 .- The letter of A. M. ullivan to Charles Russell, chief of O'Donnell's counsel, in reference to the alleged sion of Mr. Justice Den anguage in his charge to the jury contends that the judge misdirected the minds of the jury when he intimated that there was no evidence that Carey had a revolver. O'Donnell's friends maintain that although no evidence was offered to this effect there was no proof that Carey was not armed, and that by harping on the word "evidence" instead of using the word "evidence" judge obtained a verdict of guilty. U.S. Minister Lowell states that if any of the jury say their verdict was influenced thereby, he is willing to ask a mitigation of the sentance.
