A Report That Mis Skull Is Not Fractured-Australian Federation Likely to be Consummitted in the Near Puture—Mr. Lawon's Scheme for Making Abstinent M.P.'s

-Cable Notes. LONDON, Dec. 6.-Stanley cables to Mr. Burdett-Courts that Emin Pasha's condition is in the greatest degree critical and the German naval surgeous who have seen him declare only twenty in a hundred of such cases ever recover, this percentage including all cases of men in the vigor of life. Emin's age, is not rreat but his physical condition is not good. In addition to other had symptoms the hemorrhage from the ears continues and this, though it prevents the immediate formation of a large clot in the brain, menaces life by loss of strength. He is lying in the German hospital at Bagamoyo. Dr. Parkes still has

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Henry L. Lawson M.P. for the West Division of St. Pancras, has for the West Division of St. Pancras, has amounced his intention to introduce, at the next session, a bill to abolish the sale of liquote in any of the Parliament buildings. The introduction of a measure of this kind will mark the beginning of a subborn fight on the part of the younger Tory elementa, in which they will be assisted by a formidable number of the older members of all parties, who are not disposed to throw away their privileges and comforts at the suggestion of a professional reformer.

France and Italy. ROME, Dec. 6. - In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, Signor Ferrari of the Extrem-Left moved an amendment to the address rely to the speech of King Humbert opening the session, declaring it was desirous that the commercial and political relations between Italy and France should be improved. Premier Crispi, opposing the motion, de clared the political relations between the two nations were perfectly satisfactory and were naturally so, as they were neighboring nations. and had too many interests in common to alash with each other. The Cabinet he said had proposed to abolish the differential duties on imports from France in order to end the tariff war which France had originated.

Fool and Liar. BRUSSELS. Dec. 6.-The excitement which has prevailed in the Chamber of Deputies fo the past few days was added to to-day by M sen, who accused the Ministry of hood Jansen, who accused the Ministry of hood-winking the public. The Minister of the Interior, he said, had acted like a fool.

The Minister of the Interior sprang to his feet and branded M. Jansen as a last. A storing scene followed, the 'President's effort to preserve order were fruitless and the session terminated amid the greatest dissease.

A RRILLIANT BALL.

Six Hundred People at the Housewa The elegant new home of the Toronto Club, at York and Wellington-streets, was "warm ed" in a brilliant and successful manner last night, and it was after 20'clock this morning before the last of the gay throng were rolled away homeward in their carriages, A large and energette committee had made every conceivable arrangement for the opening of the new club house, and their efforts were crowned with a magnificent success. Between 500 and 600 members and their guests were present. Sir Alexander and Miss Campbell were absent. owing to illness in His Honor's family, but Government House was represented by Commander Law, R.N., and Mrs. Law and Mr. and Mrs. Harcourt-Vernon, the secretaries of the occupant of the Gubernatorial Mansion. Australian Federation.

London, Dec. 6.—Recently agreements have been reached by the various authorities of Australia on the question of Federation, sationally advocated by Sir Henry Parkes, which foreshadow the almost absolute certain y that the project will very shortly take a serious form. Many of the details agreed upon, it is stated upon acod authority, have had the effect of completely overcoming most of the objections raised by the Victorians, and their objections entirely removed. Australian Federation must in the near future become an accomplished fact.
