belief and an ardent affection; they can-jobserve more of the amazing blindnot mention them but their hearts are ness of heart, unbelief, selfishness, and straight taken with such gladness, as vile idolatry, which so benumb our they are forced to vent in praises .-Leighton.

They who are not made saints in a joy of God.—Venn. state of grace, shall never be saints in glory. The stones which are appointed for that glorious temple above, are hewn in ourselves, yea, the very strongest of and polished, and prepared for it here: as the stones were wrought and prepared in the mountains for building the temple at Jerusalem. -Leighton.

were we more alone to pray and look omnipotency supports us, and the everback upon ourselves, and to look into lasting arms are under us.—Leighton. ourselves-not to find any good, but to'

feelings of the love of Christ; were we to be more alone for these purposes, we should enjoy more of the presence and

When we consider how weak we are us, and how assaulted, we may justly wonder that we can continue one day in a state of grace; but when we look on the strength by which we are guarded the power of God, then we see the Solitude is a great cherisher of faith; reason of our stability to the end; for the Christian Monthly are now being October number is received as payment sent to all the reading rooms of the in advance for the 8 months to run of Young Men's Christian Association in this volume which entitles the sender, Ontario and Quebec, some twenty in (with the balance of thirty-three cents number; and also to some of the Julis already in his favor,) to the Christian and Hospitals in addition to those re- MONTHLY for one year - from July 1873 to ferred to in a former number. This is June 1874. We trust parties who have being done through the kindness of a received these slips, or who may receive Christian gentlemen, who is personally them in future, will remit the small a stranger to the editor, and who wishes sum at once. It can be done by means his name to remain unknown. It is of twenty-five cent bills and postage very encouraging to find a stranger at a stamps. Each subscriber may think distance-City of Quebec-forming so that his little trifle is nothing here or favourable an opinion of the usefulness there. This would be true were there of our humble periodical, and willing only a few dozen such sums owing, but to give so liberally ($25) for its circulal when these are hundreds it becomes of Publisher's Postscript.—The attention of some of our subscribers is drawn to the slip of paper they received in the September number of the Christian Kennedy and family: MONTHLY: These accounts are rendered ! on the principle that all payments for our periodical are in advance. Let us suppose that $0.66 was the amount charged on the bill: this means that

Notes.

CHRISTIAN LIBERALITY.-Copies of sixty-six cents is due at the time the consequence to the publishers. these matters among Christians a word should be enough.

Personal.—Contributions for Mrs.

Brought forward	833.00
T. A. Dawis,	5.00
Keady,	4.00
Mrs. Aitken,	5.00