

THE PRACTICAL BOOK-KEEPER.

This is the most practical work on the science of Accounts and Rusmess Correspondence yet published. It differs in some respects from other books on these subjects—

ist. In its simplicity.

2nd. In its completeness.

3rd. In the practical character or its contents.

4th. In the practical method in which Business Correspondence is treated.

From PROP. D. W. BATSON Millersburg, Ky.

"It is simply the most practical work I have ever seen."

From the School Supriement, Toronto and Buffalo.

"Mr. O'Dea's 'Book-keeper' is a very valuable work, which has met with much favor in schools and among business men."

From GEORGE HAGUE, General Manager of the Merchants' Bank of Canada, Montreal.

"It has evidently been compiled with much care and trouble, and will, I have no doubt, prove of much service to students and others desirous of becoming acquainted with the subject."
