

a college in the near future, to be called Wesley College, for which a Charter has already been obtained. They have the beginning of an endowment in the shape of $20,000 worth of property, left by the late Edward Morrow, M.A., a graduate of Victoria University. It is thought that the scheme will become a fact in less than two years.

TORONTO UNIVERSITY.—The recent remarks of Dr. Grant, in reference to the granting of money to Toronto University, seem to be causing a great deal of stir in certain circles. And well they may, for they are the opinions of a large class of persons. The educational institutions of this land, State and Denominational, are crippled enough on all hands, but the answer is, use what you have economically and properly before you ask for more. We have no doubt that the Province will, in time, increase the grant, and we hope it will be done, for the work of our universities, we think, is under-estimated by the majority of our population. But, at the present time, Toronto University is spending needlessly, without any return, thousands of dollars in various ways, as in the granting of scholarships and fellowships. The scholarship system, as it exists generally, is wrong from beginning to end, and should be abolished. Let Toronto take the initiative and the other universities and colleges will quickly follow the example. Let the first year's work be relegated to its proper place, the High Schools and Institutes, and inexperienced Fellows be no longer given the work of older men. Let the economy, necessary in other poorer Institutions, be more manifest and we are sure that grants will be given freely, opposition will be silenced, and the power and position of Canadian Universities be raised to correspond with the power and position of English, French and German Universities.

CANADA AND HER STATESMEN.—In the foreground, at a single glance, are seen the several leaders of the parties, Provincial and Dominion. It is an appalling fact that there are many of these leaders doing their utmost to carry out their
