Dr. DANELSON'S COUNSELOR

WITH RECIPES.

A TRUSTY GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY. An illustrated book of nearly 800 pages, treating Physiology, Hygiene, Marriage, Medical Practice, etc. Describing all known diseases and ailments, and giving plain prescriptions for their cure with proper directions for home treatment.

THE RECIPES are endorsed by eminent physicians and the medical press. Remedies are always given in a pleasant form, and the reasons for their use. It describes the best Washes, Liniments, Salves, Plasters, Infusions, Pills, Injections, Sprays, Syrups, Tonics, etc. These are valuable to the physician and nurse, making it a manual for reference.

The chapter upon POISONS is exhaustive, and every poison appears in the index, so that the antidote can be readily and, if need be, hurriedly found.

13 pages upon MARRIAGE treat the subject historically, philosophically and physiologically. It should be read by everybody.

67 pages upon HYGIENE, or the Preservation of Health: a chapter of inestimable value. "Everybody wishes to be healthy, and everybody when they think of it at any rate, wishes to avoid such things as might bring disease and suffering."

80 pages are devoted to PHYSIOLOGY, giving an accurate and extensive description of the wonderful and mysterious working of the machinery within ourselves, correcting many popular errors, and marking vividly the stumbling blocks where most people, innocently or carelessly, begin to lose health. Truths are stated which to many will be surprising.

MIDNIGHT DOCTORS are the most unwelcome visitors—even the Doctor himself curses the luck that compelled him to leave his comfortable bed. Suppose you try our method, and keep a Big twenty-five cent Bottle of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER in the house, and let Doctor Squills stay in his bed and enjoy himself.

GENTLEMEN,—I had suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.—MRS. ANNIE BARR, Crewson's Corners, Acton, P. O., Ont.

"We are going to have a late spring this year," said Mr. Hicks, anxious to stave off the spring clothes question. "Then I shall have to have another winter bonnet," said Mrs. Hicks. And then Mr. Hicks wished he had stayed in the frying-pan.

MRS. GADD: Wouldn't it be grand if science should discover the moon to be inhabited, and hit on some way to talk with our lunar neighbours? Mrs. Gabb: Indeed, it would. They would be near enough to talk to, yet not near enough to be running in at all hours of the day, you know.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used Haggard's Yellow Oil for my chilblains and it cured them. I have never been bothered with them since.—R. J. E. KEOWN, Victoria, B. C.

MRS. JONES: How do you like your new boarder, Mr. Dosem? Mrs. Stintem: Oh, he's well enough so far as performance goes, but his disposition is positively atrocious. Do you know he is all the time taking medicine to improve his appetite.

It is stated that a hotel man in Toronto has posted up a notice stating that all diners at his place who use Burdock Blood Bitters to tone up their appetite and strength, will be charged twenty per cent. extra. We do not know how true this is, but B. B. B. undoubtedly does the work and does it quickly and well.

DESERVING CONFIDENCE.—No article so richly deserves the entire confidence of the community as BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, the well-known remedy for coughs and throat troubles.

"They are excellent for the relief of Hoarseness or Sore Throat. They are exceeding effective."—Christian World, London, Eng.

TURN THE RASCALS OUT.—We refer to such rascals as dyspepsia, bad blood, biliousness, constipation, sick headache, etc., infesting the human system. Turn them out and keep them out by using Burdock Blood Bitters, the natural foe to disease, which invigorates, tones and strengthens the entire system.
