

opinions is in direct opposition to the 'Scripture of truth.' It is sufficient to point out that they are utterly irreconcilable with the teachings of the Editor-in-Chief of THE MISSIONARY REVIEW as contained in his written and spoken utterances; and such as many of the most valued contributors to the REVIEW would thoroughly repudiate.

"Now, I do not think it is God's will that truth and error, food and poison, should be served up to the Church of Christ in the same vessel. Jehovah forbade Israel to sow their land with divers seeds! Has that statute been repealed?"

"Yours faithfully,

"JAMES WRIGHT.

With the sentiments of my friend, Mr. Wright, I am in hearty accord; and, so far as I know, my co-editors would be were this communication submitted to them. I ask contributors to let such speculations alone. There is no salvation in Buddhism, and this alone separates it by an infinite distance from the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Managing Editor is responsible for the insertion of the article referred to by Mr. Wright, though not in sympathy with the sentiments expressed. It was given a place in the REVIEW because it had been solicited on the recommendation of a friend to the Editor-in-Chief.—D. L. P.

Some of the evangelical missionary societies invited to take part in the World's Congress of Missions in Chicago are asking how they can consistently appear on the same platform with the so-called "Christian and Catholic Church" that is just now conspiring to drive out 28 devoted Protestant missionaries from Algeria, and has everywhere been, as in Uganda and at Gaboon and Corisco, etc., the foe of Protestant missions.

L. D. Wishard, Secretary of the Foreign Department of the International Y. M. C. A., gives in the present issue of the REVIEW the first of a series of articles on the Y. M. C. A. in foreign lands. The forthcoming papers will treat of the progress and prospects of the movement in Japan, India, China, and other countries which Mr. Wishard has recently visited.—D. L. P.

A sketch of the life and work of the late Dr. McAll was expected for our present issue, but was unavoidably delayed. Sketches of both Dr. McAll and of Dr. Arthur Mitchell will appear in our next number.—D. L. P.

English Notes.

BY REV. JAMES DOUGLAS.

The McAll Mission.—A successor is already appointed to fill the place so long and honorably held by the late Dr. McAll. The new director is the Rev. Charles Greig, a Scotsman, and son of a Free Church minister. Mr. Greig has had fourteen years' experience of the work, having been induced to become a helper through the instrumentality of Mr. Dodds and of Dr. Horatius Bonar. It is earnestly hoped and believed that Mr. Greig is in the line of apostolic succession, and that the same Divine hand will be with him as wrought so graciously with his lamented predecessor.

Cape General Mission.—Mr. Spencer Walton, of the Cape General Mission, has had a good time in the Dutch town of Worcester, South Africa. At least 150 souls were dealt with. Deep conviction of sin accompanied the Word, and that sometimes in cases where very little English was understood. At the close of the mission a large missionary gathering was held, when the cause of the heathen was advocated, and a short account given of the Cape General Mission.

Native Missionaries.—Dr. Pierson, in the fourth lecture of his recent course
