DEATH CAME WITH A RUSH.

Fourteen Bridge Builders Drowned Like Rats in a Calson.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., January 9.—The most appalling accident known here in many years occurred this evening about six o'clock. A calson of the new bridge now under construction between Louisville and Jeffersonville gave way, and the workmen employed in it were crushed to death by stone and timbers. Only four of the eighteen men in the calson escaped. The calson was one hundred yards from the Kentucky shore. As the workmen of the pumping station were looking for the men on the calson to put off in their boats leaving work for the night, they suddenly saw the low dark structure disappear in dashing white waves and heard the roar of a terrific maelstrom. A runner was dispatched to the life-saving station and three skiffs, pulled off to the scene of the wreck. A squad of police was also sent to aid in the work of recovery. The coroner was called and went with a corps of physicians.

The site of the bridge is at the upper end of the city, just below Towhead Island. Within an hour from the disappearance of the calson three thousand people were on the shore and strained their eyes trying to see something of the wreckage. Dozens of boats were plying about over the spot where the calson had stood and lights danced to and fro with them, but there was no trace of the massive structure of stone and timber. The water rolled silently but smoothly down from the coffee-dam above the pumping barge below, where the calson had stood. The grief-stricken wives and mothers of the victims were among the spectators. The officials ordered the reporters off the pumping barge and made it difficult as possible to get near the maelstrom.

NAMES OF THE KILLED.

The following is the list of the killed:—Wm. E. Hayden, aged 40; John Knox, aged 20; James M. Adams, aged 26; Frank Mahon, aged 23; Pat. Taylor, aged 27; Hamilton Morris, aged 20; Thom. Smith, aged 27; R. Bert Tyler, aged 16. The following were colored men:—Thos. Aeb. Monroe Bowling, Chas. Collins, Thos. Johnson, Jos. Gordon, Frank Soaper.

The saved are:—Abe Taylor, Lewis Coon, Frank Holdox, Murray. The last man out of the calson was Frank Holdox. He was barely saved by Murray, who dragged him from where he was caught waist deep in the quicksand. Taylor says he stood nearest the iron ladder by which they got in and out of the calson. He heard a rumbling and there was a rush of air almost at the same instant. He jumped up the rungs of the ladder followed by other men. They had hardly got clear of the calson when the water burst through the maelstrom in a surge, knocking them into the river, where they were pumpled up. Holdox says he saw Sam Mercer, who was climbing next below himself, swiftly drawn under by the sand and heard his cries for help, but could do nothing.

THE BOSS' FATAL ORDER.

Later—the calson was not wrecked, as at first supposed, but was settled down in the bed in the stream, completely filled with sand and water. The pumping station is hard at work clearing the way to the bodies, but none will be reached to-night. There seems absolutely no hope for any of those caught within the calson. John Knox, the gang boss, took charge of the work Monday. The negroes who resented any had them dig to sleep before letting the calson settle and the digging was too close to the side of the calson. Just before the accident Knox gave some order to R. Bert Tyler, the keeper in charge of the upper door to the calson. Baldwin then opened the door and the compressed air which kept out the river rushed out letting in the stream. The men say they were working in an ugly quicksand at the time. The calson was about forty feet by twenty, and built of timbers twelve inches square. It was protected by a cofferdam but the river was very high and the pressure of the water was very great.

THE DEATH LIST INCREASED.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., January 10.—At 12:20 o'clock this morning the bodies of three of the victims of the calson accident were recovered by the workmen. The position in which they were found shows that a desperate struggle had taken place at the narrow door of the calson. One negro had succeeded in pulling his body through the aperture, but death had overtaken him just when his was promised. Another negro had crawled partly through. His hands were fastened by death in the clothing of the negro in front of him, showing that he had died in a desperate endeavor to escape first. Between the two negroes was the body of a white man. It appeared from his position that he was trying to push back someone who was clinging to his legs. The sand accumulating at the door by the sudden sinking of the calson had wedged in the body of a white man in such a manner that it could not be removed.

Abe Taylor, one of the rescued laborers, says: "I could hear the water rush through the shall door and it seemed as if everything gave way at once. I broke for the door. I hardly knew how I did it, but I managed to get through. The men behind me were rushing and tumbling over each other and I could hear them crying 'We're lost, help, my God, save us.' Badly frightened as I was, I could not help but pity them. I could do nothing for them, so I helped myself. I could hear the water rushing in on the poor fellows as I climbed up through the maelstrom, and their cries sounded louder than the roar of the water. I got out safely and thanked God for my deliverance. I never will forget that awful night as long as I live."

Taylor was asked if he thought that by any possible means the men could have been rescued. "No sir; they couldn't have," he said. Further investigation shows two more men have lost their lives. Hamilton Morris and Lewis Cox, making the total dead a total.

The effects to recover the bodies in the bridge calson by pumping in air have been given up and in the morning men will be sent in by the excavation shaft. It is hoped then that the 13 remaining bodies will be taken out. The body of Hamilton Harris was recovered to-day in the pipe at the top of the sand before the machinery broke to-day.

THE FUNERAL OF AUGUSTA.

Impressive Ceremonies Attending the Obsequies of the Deceased Empress.

BRILLIANT, January 11.—The funeral of the Empress Augusta took place to-day. The weather was fine. Court Chaplain Knagel delivered the oration in the chapel of the Schloss, where the remains were lying. His discourse was based on the motto of the dead Empress, "Be joyful in hope, patient in adversity and steadfast in prayer." He extolled her fear of God, her devotion to duty, her charity and sincerity, and her love for her husband and the Fatherland.

The religious service was concluded at 12:30 and amid the tolling of the church bells the cortege moved at once for Charlottetown. Unter Den Linden, through which the procession passed, was profusely draped with mourning emblems. The street was lined by troops and by various trade guilds, by students from the public schools, by members of veteran societies and so on, and behind these thronged thousands of silent sympathetic spectators. The ecclesiastical services and military part of the scene were repetitions of the honors paid to the renowned husband of the deceased, while the throng of family and official mourners was nearly as large and as illustrious.

The Emperor laid upon the coffin a magnificent palm branch with long white silk ribbons bearing the Imperial arms and crown in gold. Baron Levebor, president of the Reichstag, laid upon the coffin in behalf of the Reichstag a wreath of palms, white roses and carnations, upon the ribbons of which was this inscription:—"The Reichstag to the first Empress Augusta. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy."

Prince Bismarck sent a large wreath surrounding a cross of violet, the Prussian Imperial emblem, and a wreath of roses and lilies of the valley. The Kings of Italy and Rumania each sent an exquisite tribute of flowers, as did the sovereigns of all the German and foreign countries. At the junction of the Charlottentag road and Luges Alley the procession dispersed. The Imperial family in carriages accompanied the remains to the Mausoleum at Charlottentag. The Fourth Grenadier Guards, of which the dead Empress was honorary colonel, escorted the coffin.

PROTECTED BY A BULL-DOG.

How a Handsome Young Woman of Montreal Keeps Insubordinate Admirers at a Distance.

One evening as I was lighting a cigar in front of the post-office, I saw a pretty and attractive woman, about twenty-three years of age, of medium height, fair complexion, and good figure, walking with a graceful swing on the other side of the street. My interest was aroused in her by the strange company in which she was accompanied. A large snow-white bull-dog following at her heels.

Gloomy Outlook for Shoemakers in Haverhill, Mass.

Haverhill, Mass., January 13.—To-day a great labor strike was inaugurated in the local shoe establishments of Haverhill, whereby 3,500 employees are locked out, and more than twice that number will suffer if the factories are closed for a very long period. The manufacturers, realizing that they must either strike or be struck by the bull by the horns and inform their employees of the facts of the case, they finally agreed to fight, and each member of the association pledged $5,000 as his share of the expense in carrying on the warfare. The employees are naturally very bitter toward the manufacturers and an early solution of the difficulty can hardly be expected. If the weather continues cold, the lockout will be much suffering among the families of the workmen who are locked out. The members of the association are of the opinion that a number of manufacturers, not members, will support the lockout, and that the lockout will break up the attempt to build an organization of the foot and shoe workers of Haverhill. The strikers are firm in their statement that they will not return to work until the prices demanded are paid.

Sailors Burnt to Death.

BALTIMORE, January 13.—The Northern Central railroad elevator, No. 3, was burned to-night. It was worth $30,000 and the loss on the corn stored there is $250,000. The British steamship Sacra, lying near the wharf, was consumed by the flames from the burning elevator. The British steamer N. 17th Erin and Ohio had their masts and rigging and some of their upper works destroyed. The crew of the Sacra were not injured, and it is believed they were burnt to death. They are Robt. O'Connell, engineer; John White, fireman; Chas. Johnson, stowaway. Among the crew seriously burned are Charles Appleton, steward; Thos. Knight, cook; E. Whitehead, stowaway; R. Robinson, stowaway. The crew aboard the steamer had to jump into the water and swim. Some were picked up after being in the water two hours. The fire at midnight was under control.

MONTREAL MARKET QUOTATIONS.

FLOUR, GRAIN, &c.

FLOUR.—The receipts during the past week were 5,533 bbls against 7,572 bbls for the week previous. Ontario mills write our dealers to the effect that they do not think there is sufficient wheat in Canada to supply the home trade between now and next harvest, and that owing to the late advance in prices they must either get higher values for their flour or close their mills. Still millers are anxious to realize on their shipments at present prices. We have been shown telegrams received from the West during the past few days, ordering receivers here to sell flour on arrival and not let it go into store. Ordinary straight rollers have sold at $4.40 to $4.50, choice do bringing $4.55 to $4.60. Regarding Strong Bakers prices are irregular, although holders are endeavoring to keep prices at $4.50 delivered. It is said that one of Manitoba's best mills is offering to sell at $4.50, and we quote $4.75 to $1.90. Millers in the West are unaware of the great difficulty in selling flour on this market, owing to poor country roads this winter, consequently stocks of low grade flour are large, as farmers in the country have been living on potatoes, etc., and other vegetables rather than on a few sales for their flour, the $3.90 being hard to difficult to travel. But as soon as the winter roads improve, it is thought stocks of flour here will be considerably reduced. The Xmas and New Year's trade was almost completely lost owing to the above causes. The market is quiet, and prices are as follows:—

Wheat—Winter, $5.00 to $5.20; Patent spring $5.00 to $5.20; Straight roller, $4.10 to $4.50; Extra, $4.00 to $4.20; Superior, $4.10 to $5.90; City Strong Bakers, $4.80 to $4.90; Strong Bakers, $4.50 to $4.80; Ontario bakers, extra, $1.90 to $2.05.

BOOKWHEAT FLOUR.—Round lots have sold at $1.25 per 100 lb, and we quote $1.75 to $1.90 as to quantity.

ONION, &c.—The demand is fair for onion meal, but owing to liberal offerings from the West prices favor the buying interest, sales of Western standard having been made as low as $3.60 to $3.75 in round lots, and sales have been made in bags at $1.70 to $1.75. Granulated is quoted at $3.90 to $4.00. Round lots are in bags at $1.90 to $1.90. Rolled on bags all the way from $3.80 to $4 per bbl, and at $1.80 to $1.90 in bags. Pearl barley $6 to $6.80 per bbl, and pot barley at $4 to $4.25. Split peas $3.70 to $3.90.

MILL FEED.—The market for bran is easier under January offerings at the local mills and in the West, and prices are full $1.00 to $1.10 per 100 lb, one dealer claiming that he could buy Ontario bran at $1.20 per ton in car lots laid down here. Shorts are quoted at $14 to $16, and mouline at $21 to $22.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 63,175 bushels against 48,185 bushels the week previous. During the week there have been sales of 3,500 bushels of No. 1 hard Manitoba wheat at points West at $1.05 Montreal freight, and 2 cars were placed at $1.16. We quote No. 1 hard, $1.05 to $1.10 and No. 2 hard, $1.02 to $1.04.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 2,150 bushels against 3,400 for the week previous. The ton of the market continues easy at 39c to 42c in bond, and at 48c to 50c duty paid in car lots. Sales of No. 4 have been made as low as 46 to 47c.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week 17,476 bushels against 17,275 bushels for the week previous. In this market sales have been made at 68c per 60 lb in car lots on track, and we quote 67c to 69c. West of Toronto, however, business has transpired at 55c per 60 lb. The first four steamers from Portland took out about 120,000 bush, or more than was shipped during the whole season of navigation from Montreal.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 23,402 bush, against 18,116 bush, for the week previous. Sales have been made in this market at 90c to 91c per 32 lb. Along the line sales have been made at 28c to 29c per 34 lb.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 2,700 bush, against 3,772 bush for the week previous. The market is steady under a fair local demand for mess pork, with transactions at about former quotations. In Canada short cut mess pork there is an improved feeling, although there is no particular advance in prices. Choice short cut continues to sell at about last week's price. Smoked meats are meeting with fair success, with range quotations. Lard has been placed at $17 to $18 for Chicago in pails.

Canada short cut clear, per bbl, $14.00; Chicago short cut clear, per bbl, $13.00 to $13.25; Mess pork, Western, per bbl, $12.50; Hams, city cured, per lb, 12c to 13c; Lard, Western, in pails, per lb, 8c to 8 1/2c; Lard, Canadian, in pails, per lb, 8c to 8 1/2c; Lard, in tubs, 8c to 10c; Shoulders, per lb, 0c; Tallow, common, refined, per lb, 6c to 7c.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 4707 head against 2,290 head for the week previous. The market during the past few days has shown more strength, sales of carloads having transpired at an advance of 15c to 20c over the 10c to 11c range of the week previous. 100 lb for car lots at $5.90 to $6.25 as to quality. The advance here is due to higher prices west of Toronto, owing to it is thought to the operations of Toronto and Hamilton packers. A letter from St. Thomas says: "Hogs are pretty well all cut of market, and a number of low lots going forward this week will about finish them for the season."

HOG PACKING.—From the Cincinnati Price Current: For the holiday week there has been a fairly good movement of hogs to the West, the total packing for the period being approximately 30,000 head, or 30 per cent. more than the aggregate packing since Nov. 1. It is about 3,000,000 compared with 3,050,000 a year ago, and 3,750,000 two years ago. For the calendar year 1889 the entire packing in the West has been about 12,810,000 against 10,533,000 in 1888. The week closes firm for hogs, and prices generally 10c to 15c per 100 lb higher than a week ago at most points. Until near the close the weather continued unfavorable, interfering with interior packing operations. (The probabilities appear to be that the lowest point for the season has been reached in prices for hogs, if the weather could remain reasonably favorable. In the provisions trade the Chicago market has ruled easy during the week, with moderate changes in prices, closing firmer, at about the same position as a week ago. The shipping for product continues good, and appears to be in excess of corresponding time last year. The week's exports of products were smaller than for a considerable time, falling short of 30,000 tons, and the deficit was probably occasioned by the storms, delaying incoming steamers for which engagement has been made.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 1,181 pkgs, against 1,443 pkgs for the week previous.

DAIRY PRODUCE.

RECEIPTS.—Receipts during the week were 999 pkgs, against 98 pkgs for the week previous. The market is easier, owing to the drop in prices in New York, which has induced Western shippers to ship to this market, and to the fact that there is a large quantity of butter on hand. The market here is quiet at about former quotations. We quote:—

CERTIFICATE.

I certify, by these presents, that Madame Leonora Desmarais, two years ago, cured two of my daughters of diseases caused by cold chills. One of them was attacked with dyspepsia, kidney disease and general debility, which ultimately resulted in heart disease. The other was afflicted with weakness in the blood, catarrh and bronchitis. After four years of attentive treatment they were completely cured, and to-day they enjoy the best of health. After some time I also used it to cure my wife, who suffered from pain in all parts of the body, under their treatment and with every satisfaction, as she was completely cured after three weeks' treatment.
