ILL NIGH UNTO DEATH.

THE EXPERIENCE OF A LADY WELL KNOWN IN COATICOOK.

PTRICKEN WITH LA GRIPPE, FOLLOWED BY PNEUMONIA, SHE LANGUISHED FOR MORE THAN A YEAR-DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS SAVED HER WHEN OTHER MEDI-CINES FAILED.

From L'Etoile de l'Est, Coaticook, Que.

The town of Averill, Vt., is situated about eight miles from Conticook, Que., and is the home of Mrs. Ada Hartwell, who has many relatives and numerous triends in the latter place. Mrs. Hartwell has passed through an experience which L'Etoile de l'Est thinks worthy of giving the widest publicity, as many others may derive much benefit therefrom. Mrs. Hartwell has ever been considered a woman enjoying a healthy constitution until about two years ago, when she was, like hundreds of others in this vicinity, stricken with influenza, or as is more generally termed la grippe, a disease which carried off many people in this town and vicinity, and in the case of numerous others lett behind wrecked constitutions. As often happens, pneumonia followed the first symptoms of la grippe, and Mrs. Hartwell was sick, nigh unto death. The

Mrs. Hartwell was saved from what seemed to her friends imminent death. but when convalescence came, she remained deprived of her appetite, exremely weak, and in constant danger of relapse, and all her physicians could lo could not bring about her former condition of health. Numerous medicines were tried but to no avail: she was weak, dispirited and despaired of again enjoying her former vigor and health. For a whole year after her attack of pneumonia she continued to languish in this state. At last one day her husband purchased a few boxes of Dr. Williams Pink Pills. He had read of the many cures wrought by this wonderful medicine, but procured them, he says, for his wife in order to be able to say "we have tried all," rather than from strong faith in them. To please her husband Mrs. Hartwell willingly consented to take the Pink Pills, and great was her surprise and that of her husband, when, after taking three boxes she was able to take a short ride without feeling any fatigue. She wisely resolved to continue the treatment, and before long found that she had regained her old strength, and she declared that she owes her recovery entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Last winter Mrs. Hartwell felt a slight recurrence of her former weakness and again resorted to Pink Pills, since which time she has not had

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have a more potent influence on the blood and nerves than any other known medicine, and speedily restore the bloom of health to pallid cheeks. Pink Pills cure when all medicines fail. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Refuse all substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

CATHOLIC WORLD,

In a paper on "The Retreat of St. Etheldreda," in the Catholic World for January, J. Arthur Floyd throws much light on the foundation of the see of Ely and the theatre of the last struggle her In a paper on "The Retreat of St. Etheldreda," in the Catholic World for and the theatre of the last struggle be- bushel. tween Norman and Anglo-Saxon in eastern England. In an erudite paper on "Shakespearean Chronology" Mr. Appleton Morgan analyses the evidence as to the order of Shakespeare's plays in point of time, and lurnishes many curious facts bearing upon various literary points embraced in those imperishable masterpieces. "A Neglected Call," by S. C. Burnett, gives a picture of the world and the cloister in the far West which will impress many by its lifelike truthfulness and its striking moral. The tale of choice fresh light hogs brought $4.90, is illustrated. Rev. Dr. Patrick F. Mc-Sweeney, the zealous temperance some "Old-time Temperance Societies," full of point and kindly humor, and conveying a vast deal of sound and judicious advice to over zealous but well-meaning reformers who wish to go too far and too fast. Maurice Francis Egan reviews at length Rev. Dr. O'Gor-man's work on the Catholic Church in the United States. "A Memorable Christ-mas Night," by A. H. H. Keane, mas Night." by A. H. H. Kenne, is a thrilling story of real life, of what happened to a distinguished divine on a past eve of the Nativity, and its far-reaching consequences. and its far-reaching consequences.

THE ROSARY. The excellence of this magazine of the Dominicans, especially since Rev J. L. O'Neill, O.P., assumed the editorial chair, has been universally recognized. We need only tell our readers that the January number is fully in keeping with its predecessors to assure them that it is one of the best of current periodicals. In outlining the policy of the magazine for the coming year the editor says: We do not publish a detailed prespectus for 1896, but we assure our readers that we have many good things in store for them. Papers on history, travel, biography and art, critical and literary essays, fiction and our special Rosary articles will regu-

In this connection we commend to parents and teachers the children's department of the Rosary Magazine. The editorial pages will include devotional notes, answers to questions pertaining to the rosary, its mysteries and its indulgences, and book reviews, and comments on current literature which we offer to our readers as a helpful guidance. In the matter of paper, illustrations and press work we shall give to our subscribers the same excellent quality that they have hitherto received.

THE AVE MARIA,

There is no periodical which we can more cheerfully recommend to Catholics than the Ave Maria. It occupies a unique position in literature. Its aim is to further the devotion to the Blessed Virgin, and the means which it uses to accomplish this end are as interesting as they are effective. It is an admirable magazine to put into the hands of the young. The Catholic parent will make no mistake it he sees that it comes regularly under the eyes of his children, who will certainly derive both entertainment and edification from what they read between the covers. The Ave Maria has a remarkable staff of contributors, embracing, as it does, such excellent writers as Right Rev. Bishop Spalding, Rev. A. A. Lambing, LL.D.; Rev. Father Edmund, C.P.; Rev. Reuben Parsons, D. D.; Rev. Arthur B. O'Neill, C.S. C.; Very Rev. J. Adam, Rev. Wm. H. Kent, O.S.C.; Rev. R. O. Kennedy, Rev. Andrew Dooley, Aubrey de Vere, Maurice Francis Egan, Katherine Tynan Hinkson, Christian Reid Charles Warren Stoddard, Percy Fitzgerald, the Countess de Courson, Austin O'Malley, Eliza Allen Starr, Nugen Robinson, Elemor C. Donnelly, P. Goldie Wilson, Marion Muir Richardson, Orby Shipley, Mary Catherine Crowley, E. W. Beck, Anna T. Sadlier, "Mercedes," George Prospero, Flora Haines Loughead, J. K. Foran, LLB.; E. L. Dorsey, William P. Coyne, Sara Trainer Smith, the author of "Tyborne"; Octavia Hensel, William D. Kelly, Angelique de Lande, Ellis Schreiber, Mary E. Mannix, L. W. Reilly, Harriet M. Skidmore, Eugene Davis, Flora L. Stanfield, Frederick J. Liscombe, and others.
