Mercantile Summary.

We read in the Owen Sound Times of the 16th, that there has been received at the C.P.R. elevator at the opening of navigation, per C.P.R. steamers, up to Saturday last, 548,801 bushels of wheat, of which 163,200 bushels remain in store, and 46,896 bushels of oats, the whole of which has been delivered to dealers in the east. This is all Canadian grain.

THE Richmond Guardian publishes figures of the census in Richmond county, Quebec, showing a population of 16,367 against 14,598 in 1881, an increase of 1,769, or 12 per cent. The Guardian adds: "It will be noticed that in the hitherto English municipalities the population has remained stationary, the increase being wholly French. There is no doubt that the English in the Eastern Townships are fewer than in 1881."

THE trade in senega root, hitherto monopolized by Manitoba Indians and half-breeds, has developed considerably lately, and a great many farmers are collecting it. The plant is wild, almost a weed, the root alone being used, and large quantities shipped to English patent medicine dealers. The H. B. Co., McLeod Holiday & Bros., and others in Winnipeg, handle it. The Free Press says that one firm alone paid over $1,000 for a shipment of it the other day. From 20 to 24c. per pound is being paid.
