| Canada..... | Aug. 23, 1930 |
| †India..... | May 15, 1931  |

†This accession is subject to the following reservations which have been accepted by the Contracting Parties to whom they were communicated in accordance with the terms of Article 17 of the Convention:—

"A. Under the terms of Article 11 the obligations of the Convention shall not extend to the territories in India of any Prince or Chief under the suzerainty of His Majesty the King Emperor.

B. (1) Article 2 (I) (a). The provisions for returns of "transit trade" made in Annex 1, Part 1., 1 (b) shall not apply to India nor shall returns of the "land frontier trade" of India be acquired.

(2) Article 2 III (a). The question whether a general census of agriculture can be held in India and if so, on what lines and at what intervals still remains to be settled. For the present India can assume no obligations under this article.

(3) Article 2 III (b) (1). For farms in the "permanently settled" tracts in India, estimates of the cultivated areas may be used in compiling the returns.

(4) Article 2 III (b) (2). The returns of quantities of crops harvested may be based on estimates of yield each year per unit area in each locality.

(5) Article 2 III (d). Complete returns cannot be guaranteed from Burma and in respect of the rest of India, the returns shall refer to Government forests only."

* With the reservation that, in accordance with Article 11, Bouvet Island is excepted from the provisions of the present Convention. Furthermore, Norway does not assume any obligation as regards statistics relating to Spitzbergen.
