

PREFACE

Institute for Peace and Security Working Papers, the result of research work in progress at the beginning of a conference, are often intended for later publication by the Institute or another publisher and are regarded by the Institute to be of immediate value for discussion in limited numbers - mostly to specialists in the field. The opinions expressed in the papers are those of the participants and do not necessarily represent the views of the Institute and its Board of Directors.

The Editor, Dianne DeMille, was, at the time of the writing of this report, an editor on staff at the Institute.
