

(Notices of Motions)

Item numbered twenty-three having been called was, by unanimous consent, withdrawn.

Item numbered twenty-four having been called and not proceeded with was dropped from the Order Paper pursuant to Standing Order 49(1).

Mr. McCleave, seconded by Mr. Lambert (Edmonton West), moved,—That the question of housing in Canada, including public housing, expropriation practices affecting older homes, financing of home building, the drawing up of a national code of minimum housing standards, and transport services for residential areas, be referred to the Standing Committee on Health, Welfare and Social Affairs, in order that the said Committee may consider and report upon all aspects of national housing policies and their administration.—(Notice of Motion No. 25).

And debate arising thereon;

The hour for Private Members' Business expired.

Debate was resumed on the motion of Mr. Olson, seconded by Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale),—That Bill C-155, An Act to provide compensation to farmers whose agricultural products are contaminated by pesticide residue and to provide for appeals from compensation awards, be now read a third time and do pass.

After further debate, the question being put on the said motion, it was agreed to, on division.

Accordingly, the said bill was read the third time, on division and passed.

Bill C-156, An Act to amend the Animal Contagious Diseases Act was concurred in at the Report Stage and ordered for a third reading at the next sitting of the House.

Bill C-157, An Act to regulate products used for the control of pests and the organic functions of plants and animals was concurred in at the Report Stage and ordered for a third reading at the next sitting of the House.

The House resumed debate on the motion of Mr. Benson, seconded by Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale),—That Bill C-165, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act and Estate Tax Act be now read a second time and referred to a Committee of the Whole.

And on the motion of Mr. Saltsman, seconded by Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre), in amendment thereto,—That Bill C-165, be not now read a second time, but that it be resolved that in the opinion of this House, the
