(In the Committee.)

Contingencies—Department of the Interior ing $760 for J. D. Bollard and $455 for T. W. Hodgins, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Civil Service Act

$5,335

Mr. JAS. SUTHERLAND (North Oxford). Mr. J. D. Bollard was transferred from the Department of Agriculture to the immigration branch of the Interior Department, and in the transference his salary was reduced from $700, which amount he received in the Department of Agriculture, to $500. As the maximum salary of a temporary clerk is $600, in order to bring Mr.
Bollard's salary up to the former amount received by him, his name was included in the vote of civil contingencies, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Civil Service Act. He has received one statutory increment of $30 and another statutory increment is asked for this year, which will make his salary $760. Mr. Bol-lard has passed the civil service examination.

Mr. FOSTER. What about Mr. Hodgins ?

Mr. SUTHERLAND. Mr. T. W. Hodgins has been in the employ of the department for a number of years. He has not passed the civil service examination, and for that reason his name has been placed in this vote, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Civil Service Act. The usual statutory increase of $30 is asked for.

Mr. W. H. MONTAGUE (Haldimand). In what year was Mr. Hodgins appointed ?
