

to deal with this situation through the media of cables and telephones, and through someone at the other end who, however trusted and valued a public servant, is not a responsible minister of the crown, who alone can speak with the necessary authority for the people of Canada. I put that forward, with respect, realizing that at the present time there may be difficulties in the way of it. But I think it is something which should be put on record.

I conclude by saying I hope that we shall not be left in this house indefinitely without any answers to these important questions which have been raised today by hon. members in the house and which, so far as I can remember, have not been even adverted to by the ministers, but which go to the very root of this matter and without which nothing else is of any value.

Mr. GORDON GRAYDON (Peel): Mr. Speaker, in order to conform with the usual requirements contained in the rules I shall be glad to withdraw my motion.

Motion withdrawn.

At eleven o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
