

will continue until 10 o'clock this evening, and there is no indication that the house will sit beyond that hour. Therefore it seems unlikely that we shall have any legislation to deal with this evening. As the other place will resume sitting tomorrow at 2.30 p.m., the prospect of receiving legislation in time for our own sitting at three o'clock is remote.

Therefore I now move, with leave, that when the Senate adjourns today it do stand adjourned until tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

Motion agreed to.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 8 p.m.
