

Maj.-Gen. W. Bethune Lindsay, - 2-

what time he could spare whenever you called upon him in Washington. I am quite sure he will not forget.

We have not yet succeeded in getting a house, and will all be very much happier when we do.

With all good wishes, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,