bottom lands, gorgeous in vivid colors, and much of
with all the glorious promises of a fruitful harvest. be one of the most admired features of landscape the American Continent. The Hudson is praised for its beauty, and the Rhine of Germany is exalted for its beauty, but after all there is but one St. John River. This location in the conformation of the universe, boundless in length with the grandest outlines and perspectives, had no equal in the geographical location of the above comparisons, would go among the greatest of picturesque water courses of the world, will you, what you can find on the Rhine that the natural features which nature has sketched upon the St. John River flows to coming back from its confluence with the Bay of Fundy, hundreds of miles towards its source, are rolling hill lands, short level levels, and a sky that rivals in its loveliness the Mediterranean.
