

in the Crown land department; that the majority of the existing executive council had not the confidence of the country as the first named on the list held the situation of commissioner of Crown lands and forests, and would succeed to the administration of the government of the Province in the event of the death or absence of the Lieutenant Governor, while the persons second and third on the list of executive councillors held public positions which were inconsistent with the administration of the government.

END OF VOLUME I.

