RIVERSIDES MADE VICTORIAS MOVE

McGiffin's Work in Goal Sav ed Red-Shirted Band at Riverdale Rink.

The small ice surface at the Riverdal-Rink nearly spelled defeat for the Vic-torias, and they were hard put to beat the Riversides 7 to 5 last night. Vic McGiffin in goal saved the day. His work was marvelous. The Riversides had the hang of the ring and after they

ARGOS AND T. R. C. AT ARENA TONIGHT

Senior O. H. A. Should Provide Stirring Battle -Hockey News.

Tonight's senior O.H.A. game at the Arena will be a hummer. Argonauts were outlucked in their contest with St. Michaels and will be 6 to 5 favorites over Toronto Rowing Club tonight. Both teams play a hard-checking game and it promises to be a repetition of the Argo-St. Michaels tussie. Toronto Rowing Chib have put in some hard licks since their last appearance and are greatly improved. They will make the Argos step every inch of the way to turn in a victory. The game starts at $.30.

St. Andrew's College and Upper Canada have agreed on Ernie Jupp as refered for their game at the Arena this after-

BOWMANVILLE, Jan. 21—Bowmanville defeated Oshawa here in a junior hockey game tonight by the score of 6 to
4. The local boys led all the time, but Oshawa fought hard all the way. Roenigk, who played a star game for Bowmanville intermediates in Oshawa last night,
was the best man on the ice, having four goals to his credit. If Whitby wins in Oshawa Wednesday all teams will be equal for the district. Line-up:

WAS GIVEN THE GATE

Owner Claimed That Its Black Hair Had Been Dyed.

Mrs. Mildred Boylen of Westchester, N.Y., is suing Mrs. Alice M. Wiley, who keeps the "Cairndhu Kennels" at Grimsby, Ont. for the return of the $1000 which she paid for a dog, $500 damages and interest on her money since last April, before Justice Lennox in the non-jury assizes. After taking the evidence of Mrs. Boylen the court adjourned until 10-30 this morning.

the court adjourned until 10.80 this morning.

3 Til. 125—451 Wiley for $1000 cash on the understanding that he was pure black. About two weeks after she had got him home and was grooming him, some substance came off on to her arms. She thought this was dirt, but later noticed it was his color. "I at once sent him to Mrs. Thorpe, a dog expert at Sheepshead Bay, thinking," she said, "I was not keeping him right."

Mrs. Thorpe showed the dog for her at the Mineola show, where he took two third prizes. In the variety class, she said, he got the 'gate' which proved to be a new one on the court and she was asked to explain what she meant. She said that he was disqualified on account of being gray. She later took him to a show at Lancaster where he took two prizes, he
