

- Rebates, 40, 194 ff., 209.
 Requisition system, 52 ff.; failure of, in Pontiac's war, 263-266; succeeded by system of Parliamentary taxation, 274.
 Revenue, collection of. See Customs.
 Revenue bills, Parliamentary, 31 ff.
 Reynolds, Governor John, 47 n., 193 n.
 Rhode Island, represented at Albany Congress, 19; contribution of, to expeditions against Du Quesne, Niagara, and Crown Point, 53 n.; Parliamentary grant to, 54 n.; unwillingness of, to aid in common defence, 56; extent of coöperation of, in French campaigns, 60-69; violation in, of embargo on provisions, 83; trade with enemy carried on by, 90, 92; trade of, with French in Florida and Louisiana, 103-104; trade with French West Indies from, 112; independent attitude of (1709), 167; not affected by Iron Act of 1750, 199 n.; spirit of independence in, 240; violations of Molasses Act in, 240-241; refuses troops for Pontiac's war, 264; evidences in, of colonial opposition to Grenville's taxation measures, 291; molasses the basis of commerce of, 293 n.; objections in, to customs officials, 301.
 Rice, duties on, 35-36; colonial trade in, 225-226.
 Robinson, Sir Thomas, 23, 24, 28 n., 55 n., 141; Dinwiddie's letters to, 43, 44, 45; General Braddock writes to, 45 n.
 Rockingham, succeeds Grenville, 299.
 Roubaud, renegade Jesuit, 172 n.
 Royal colonies, 162.
 Rule of 1756, 94, 106.
 Rum, excise on, proposed, 38, 40; illicit trade in, 87; importation of foreign, forbidden, 278.
 Russia, hemp-production in, 216.
 St. Eustatius, headquarters of illegal trade with French, 79, 93, 95 n.; beef shipped from Ireland to, 86.
 St. Kitts, imports to England from (1761-62), 145 n.
 St. Lucia, 15; ceded to France by Treaty of Paris, 153-154; Pitt on cession of, 156.
 St. Pierre, commercial intercourse with, forbidden, 248.
 St. Vincent, 15; provisions from Barbados in, 89; exports from England to (1766-67), 138 n.; becomes British under Peace of Paris, 154; contraband trade in, after Peace of Paris, 236.
 Salt, importation of, 210 n., 211.
 Scott, Sir William, judgments of, 72 n., 93 n., 94 n.
 Seizures of vessels, 126-128.
 Senegal, acquisition of, breaks France's monopoly of gum trade, 213 n.
 Sharpe, Governor, 29 n.; quoted, 69 n., 269 n.
 Shepherd, W. R., cited, 69 n.
 Sherwood, Joseph, 128; quoted, 300.
 Ship-building, 196, 201.
 Shirley, Governor William, 18, 29, 102, 127, 255; quoted, 78, 266 n.; Parliamentary union and Parliamentary taxation favored by, 46-49; on desirability of taking Canada, 140-141, 142; cannot foresee that conquest of Canada will affect unity of the Empire, 171.
 Silk duties, 281.
 Six Nations, Sir William Johnson appointed colonel of, 27.
 Smith, W. R., cited, 11 n., 192 n.
 Smuggling, 228 ff.
 South Carolina, garrisons in, 11; expenditures for military force in, 13; exportation of rice from, 35-36; boundary dispute between North Carolina and, 50 n.; Parliamentary grant to, 55; troops raised in, against Indians, 65 n.; favorable effect of indigo bounty in, 218; rice trade of, 225-226; absence of contraband trade in (1764), 237; Parliamentary payment of governor of, 276.
 Southern colonies, condition of illegal trade in, after Peace of Paris, 236-238.
 Spain, importation of wine from, prohibite. 91.
 Spanish Succession, War of, 8, 32, 73.