Without Diminution.

out to see the show, and many others came to see the show and society. Two thousand people attended the show in the afternoon and close to three program of bright music was given by the band of the Queen's Own Riffes.

annex by a festival orchestra. Vocal the main hall by Ross Thorne Slack, the Toronto bartione. Pipe-Major Beaton of the 48th Highlanders' played a number of selections on the pipes.

Society Night was under the distinguished patronage of Sir John and Lady Gibson, and a number of society leaders, many of whom were present at the show. A feature of the evening was the distribution of hundreds of flowers by auto exhibitors. An auto in one exhibit was filled with red carnations, which were handed out to the visitors by a little girl, who seemed to hugely enjoy her task. The day was one of the best of the entire show.
Fine weather favored, and the big attendance brought the total since the opening last week up to thirty-five thousand. The management aim to reach a total attendance of fifty thousand before the grand finale on Friday

Of Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, who oilled to lecture in the Association Hall next Monday evening, The New York Times of Jan. 27 said: "A little rosycheeked slip of an English girl last evening held the attention of a distinguished New York audience, which filled the Carnegie Lyceum, for over an hour and a half. It was Miss Sylar hour and a half. It was Miss Sylvia Pankhurst making her first public appearance in New York to tell the story of the action of the English millitant suffragists and the reason for it. Walker De Mille Recital.

Miss Mildred Walker, entertainer, assisted by Hartwell DeMille, baritone, and harold Rich, accompanist, held a most successful recital in St. George's Hall Saturday evening. Miss Walker has an attractive stage presence and possesses a splendid voice, which she has under perfect control. In her literary numbers she displayed great dramatic talent, particularly in the scenes from "Romeo and Juliet," for which she was recalled several times. Her humorous readings showed a clever mastery of Scotch and Irish dialects. In her vocal solos Miss Walker displayed a high flexible soprano voice, perfectly trained. Mr. DeMille was in excellent voice and delighted the audience with his artistic singing. He was recalled for all his selections and also appeared with Miss Walker in the duet. "I Feel Thine Angel Spirit," which was a most efficient accompanist. Miss Walker was the recipient of many beautiful bouquets of flowers.

DISTANT FIELDS ARE GREEN

The old saying that distant fields are green finds no better illustration than the tendency of many Canadlans to patronize foreign products when home grown materials are the best, and those who understand thoroughly the analysis of different mineral waters are often puzzled why it is that anyone would prefer German and American products to the wonderful water flowing from the Radnor springs. Many English and foreign dectors have praised Radnor, and without advertising at all it is becoming more popular in London. Radnor is not only a splendid mixer, but alone is one of the most palatable, delightful and invigorating waters in the world. Would Unseat Montreal Alderman.
