Horse Exchange

16 to 28 HAYDEN STREET

"Canada's Leading Horse Market"

OF HORSES,

CARRIAGES, Etc.

Next week is going to be a big one with us. The tirst four days we shall be holding Auction Sales of Horses, Carriages, Harness, Saddles, Bridles, Robes, Blankets, etc., and many a bargain will be secured

We will proceed below to further define the week's

Monday, April 1st

The sale will commence at 11 a.m., when we shall

300 HORSES

Of All Classes, Direct From the Breeders and Ready for Work.

We shall have an exceptionally large number of fine horses and mares on hand for next week's sales. Do not fail to attend if you need one, two or a carload at a right price.

THE STABLE OUTFIT of G. Pears, Esq., City, who is giving up horses, which consists of a Bay Gelding, Park Phaeton by Studebaker, New York, Victoria, Double and Single Harness, 8 Saddles (Ladies' and Gents'), Bridles, Coachmen's Summer and Winter

A Carload of Bush Horses

The Wolverine Lumber Co.

WOLVERINE, ONT.

These horses are all in good condition and are right out of the hardest kind of work. They weigh from 1,400 to 1,600 lbs. each, and amongst them are some very fine mares in foal. They will be sold absolutely without reserve, so don't fail to be on Tuesday Wednesday

April 2nd and 3rd

The Livery Outfit of Mr. P. Maher

19 Bloor St. East, Toronto. The outfit is a very large one, and we cannot attempt to enumerate every kind of carriage or article which will be sold, but here are some of them :-

Landaus, T-Carts, Dogcarts, Phaetons, Buggies,

Surreys, 60 Sets of Harness (double and single, silver and brass), Robes, Blankets, Saddles, Bridles, Coachmen's Summer and Winter Livery, of these horses and carriages, but to others we would say that the horses are all thoroughly broken, young, in good condition and amongst them are a large number of good young mares. The carriages are all in good order, after the best designs and by the best makers.

horses will be offered at all prices.

ranty are returnable by noon

the day following sale if not up not fail to attend the sales.

reserved sale.

P. MAHER,

150 Horses, 45 Broughams, 60 Victorias, 30

The public in and around Toronto know the condition

You should remember the whole will be sold absolutely without reserve, and if you need any part of the outfit do

Thursday, April 4th

250 HORSES

The sale will commence at 11 a.m., when all classes of

Also on Monday and Thursday we shall sell a large number of city workers and drivers, which are consigned for un-

ALL HORSES sold under war- | A YONGE, Dupont, Avenue

Road or Belt Line car will bring you within half a block of our stables.

Auctioneers.

GEO. JACKSON and GEO. FITCH.

of 11 a.m., when we shall offer for unreserved sale

The sales on these days will commence at 10.30 instead

We shall also sell on Monday Next:

hand if you could use one or more.

etc., etc.

CTION SALES

This Classy

Tan Buttoned

Here's a boot

with very handsome lines. Note

the conservative

yet stylish shape,

the slightly receding toe, the

EATON'S

Boot,

neat toe-cap, the careful finish.

An "Eatonia," made of the choicest selection of tan willow calf, on the neat and popular Yale last. Sizes 51/2 to 11. Popular widths ..... 5.00

T. EATON CO.

-Second Floor-Queen St.

R RHEUMATISM

discoverers of remedies be believe that they remained ture. One of lons is Mr. S. T. Delano, testimonial of the effimedy. The photograph the terrible effects of of Rheumatism, but tous perfect health and is to curing others, is hereditary in his fama wouth the disease behim. He suffered unyears, and after spendicines, doctors and exally discovered the remetely cured him, to send any rheumatic ackage of the same remiliterally bushels of letters proof of his liberality, and, Dept. 271B, Delano N. Y.

ULLAN il grades of E PAPER ON, METALS, RUBBET 90 ADELAIDE WEST

patterns for IN ALUMINUM CASTINGS of delivery. Metal Co. Limited

BRAU RACT OF MALT.

igorating preparation introduced to help invalid or the athlete. Chemist, Toronto, lian Agent.

ACTURED BY Salvador Brawery, d, Toronto.

INOI LIIIILU

owing Recent Pron Police Force Made Next onday.

rning next there will all the police stations. ted inspectors will be stations allotted to as transferring around o go into effect on Inspector S. Dickson, ion: Sergeants Pogue. 3. and Hind, 8; patrol rown, Hunt and Re-

-Inspector, R. L. Ged-McFarlane, 2: Crowe, patrol sergeants, Lan--Inspector, Black, 6; n. 6; Umbach, 2; pat-lifith, 2; Egan, 6; Me-

-Inspector, Allison, 1; 4; Dent, 6; Patrol t, 4; Hrag, 8; Hutchi-Inspector, Dilworth, 7, n, 9; Taylor, 5; patrol mald, 3; Francis, 8; Inspector W. Geddes nston, 7; McArthur, 6; Walker, 7; Phalen, 6;

Inspector, Charlton, 5: ey, 7; McCarron, 4; Martin, 1; Grimshaw,

Inspector, Gregory, 4: ie. 8; Dynes, 10; pa-bedford, 8; McKay, 8; Inspector, Mulhall, 6:

9; Irvine, 5; patrol 9; McNair, 7; Lut-Inspector, Miller, 8; ; Guthrie, 10; patrol 4; Drury, 10; Mc.

NEW FIRE TUG.

e Goodwin" will be Arnott shipyards. keley-street, at three Capt. Joe Goodwin missioned for use in will also be utilized fire tug, both at the the water front.

March 29.—(Special.) son, a G. T. R. enng. Eating the conuble. He is out of

SERIOUS CHARGES MAHER'S *

Continued From Page 1.

ernment on the separate achieves ques-tion, and stated that the authors of the act recent,y passed were Messrs. Monk, Nantel and Pelletier. The words "de-ceived" and "betrayed" appeared very ften in the pamphlet. Mr. Rhodes proceeded that there was no mistake, when he stated the docu-ment came from the Liberal party and endorsed by its leaders. It was a propaganda attempt to trade upon race and religion, and it was thrown in the fertile soil of old Quebec.

Provincial Election Tactics. The literature was sent free thru the postoffice franked by the member for Russell, a member of the privy council. Mr. Rhodes twitted the leader of the opposition with his frequent aspresent attempts made by his followers to sow a propaganda of passion, but the reason was obvious. The Liberal party in the Province of Quebec was on the eve of a provincial election, and they were trying to gain votes by disgraceful means. He protested as a young Canadian who wished to see Canada built up strong and firm. Mr. McKenzie (Cape Breton) answered that the Conservative party had used very wrong arguments in the Drummond-Arthabaska election and they were endorsed by the minister of Hon Sam Hughes: "I said if they were used, that the Liberals were only getting some of their own medi-

Mr. Hart, member for Charlottetown, made a plea for proper recognition of

Carvell Opens Attack.

F. B. Carvell (Carleton, N.B.) seized the opportunity of the motion to go into supply for a savage attack on A. B. Morine, chairman of the public service commission, based on Mr. Morine's political life as premier of Newfoundland. The members of the commission, which involved almost the liberties of many public servants, said Mr. Carvell, should be above reproach. They were not only judges, but prosecuting attorneys as well.

He said that Mr. Morine, when he involved that Mr. Morine involved that Mr. Morine involved the colonies, to the governor of the extraordinary agreement which had driven Morine out of Newfoundland. He was allowed his pension, bribe, or whatever it condition that he wouldn't come back. "For $10,000 a year," vehemently declared Mr. Carvell, 'he became an exile from the colony of Newfoundland, and now he comes to this country, forces himself into our politics, and becomes the head of the most important commission, this government has created since it came into power."

He charged that Premier Borden knew all about Mr. Morine's record; that he was read that the was read to the surface of the condition that he wouldn't come back. "For $10,000 a year," vehemently declared Mr. Carvell, 'he became an exile from the colony of Newfoundland, and now he comes to this country, forces himself into our politics, and becomes the head of the meating salved his pension, by the country of Newfoundland, he was allowed his pension, the country of the wou went to Newfoundland, became connected with The St. John's Mercury, which raised a violent creed cry, at first against the Roman Catholics. The about 1890 he turned and appropriate the connected with the about 1890 he turned and supported "The alacrity with which this man was able to get from one side to the other was surprising," said Mr. Car-

Alleged Rallway Deal

But this, he continued, was not the point he wished to emphasize. In 1898, he said, when Mr. Morine was finance minister and minister of customs for Newfoundland, he made an agreement with R. B. Reid, a prominent railway contractor, by which the colony of Newfoundland gave away to Reid almost all the colony possessed, in order to secure the operation of railroads.

to secure the operation of railroads.

The colony under Mr. Morine spent $13,000,000 on this railroad, handed it over with all its branches to Reid for 50 years, with the condition that it should become Reid's property on his paying $1,000,000. Reid was also given 5000 acres of land a mile, which with the other concessions he had got would take a colorest all the available land. take up almost all the available land in the colony. He was given all the coal, with the understanding that there should be an import duty of $1 a ton. should be an import duty of $1 a ton.

He was also given a monopoly of steamship lines on the coast, with a subsidy of $100,000. He was given control of the docks at St. John's for $325,000, a monopoly of telegraph lines and certain other franchises totaling $18,000,000 to $15,000,000.

Then Mr. Morine had fought the election of 1897, with the deal with Reid as his principal plank.

Hon. George E. Foster: "Who was premier of Newfoundland at that Turned Down by Chamberlain Mr. Carvell: "It was Hon. Mr. Win-

Continuing, Mr. Carvell read an extract from the rply of Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, then secretary of state for the colonies, to the governor of Newfoundland, dated March 23, 1898, refusing to retire the agreement in Continuing his recital, Mr. Carvell Continuing his recital, Mr. Carvell told of the governor who had dismissed Morine leaving the colony, and of an application to Gov. McCallum, who succeeded him, to have Mr. Morine reinstated. He had promised the governor in a letter not to have anything to do with Reid and had been reinstated, but was forced by Gov. McCallum to resign a second time.

lum to resign a second time.

Then a general election was held and Morine had the hardinood to join himself to Reid in an attempt to get back into office, but tho he had been elected himself, only three of his followers

Speaks of "Betrayal."

"Having betrayed the colony for the benefit of his employer, he then at-tempted," said Mr. Carvell, "to betray Morine and Reid, he said, had quar-reled over The St. John's Mercury, on which Morine held a mortgage of Morine had refused to return the property, and the matter had got into the courts. Judgment was given that Morine held the paper as fiduciary for Reid and he was ordered to hand it back to him. "But for this suit," said. Mr. Carvell, "the public would never have known all the iniquities of this

In 1908, he charged, Morine had become the solicitor for Reid at $5000 a year, and he had held this position at the time he had promised Governor Mc-Callum he would have nothing to do with Reid. He held it till 1899, when another agreement was made with Reid at $8000 for the first year and $10,000 a year for ten years. This agreement held till Jan. 1, 1912.

Got $10,000 a Year.

This law suit with Reid, continued Mr. Carvell, had resulted in a supplc-when Mr. Morine was a Conservative candidate in Nova Scotia in 1908.

Bishop's Strong Words

and driven him from the colony.

"I wish to warn you against him," wrote the hishop. "This is the man who now bids for public life in Canada.
He has inflicted a wound on Newfoundland that centuries would not the premier for his perusal.

"I'd like to know," said Mr. Carvell in conclusion, "what credence will the people of Canada place on evidence of a court presided over by a man of the reputation described in the document I have read. I want to know how my hon. friend can square this appointment with the professions he made in his Hallifax platform of 1907. Does he not think that the time has now come when he should call a halt? If he is going to investigate the public service of this country he should do it by men who, as he said in his platform, are above reproach, men in whom the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence, men in whose judgment the people will have confidence was doing it at the request of his leader. If he desires the whole conversation that is precisely what took place."

I was aware that Mr. Morine the Newfoundland politics.

I was aware that Mr. Morine the Newfoundland: I wanted to bring that it wanted to bring that conference, I will have a few words to the loon. Granement; I was also aware that Mr. Morine the Newfoundland: I wanted

Premier Borden's Reply.
"My hon, friend," said Mr. Borden in the house with regard to charges made in gard to him.

the house against men who were not here and able to defend themselves.

"I asked this individual, a resident of the ernment propose to take in regard the United States, to permit me to thereto."

"My hon, friend on this occasion has place these charges before Mr. Morine taken a very extraordinary course. One in order that I might get his answer, would have thought that before rising and that individual refused to do me house, to myself, in order that I might submit his charges to the gentieman

There was another episode, Mr. Carvell resumed, the Green-Sawn letter, but it revealed Mr. Morine "in a character so low" that he would not disgrace the pages of Hansard" by reading it. He offered, bowever, to hand it

Mr. Carvell—"My right hon, friend
I think will admit that I gave him notice last evening the it was pretty late.

It was understood that this house warm island Politics.

"Now my hon, friend has gone very
would not prorogue until Wednesday,
would not prorogue until Wednesday, would not prorogue that it might protit. He offered, bowever, to hand it the resume of the gentleman who was the object of his charges.

"Now my hon, friend has gone very extensively into Newfoundland politics.

I was aware that Mr. Morine had been regue on Saturday I went at once to Anonymous Charges.

Mr. Carvell topped his charges against Mr. Morine by reading a letter of Rt. Rev. F. Howley, Bishop of Newfoundland, to Mr. Winton of Toronto, which contained some choice morsels of denunciation. Mr. Morine was, according to the bishop, "the greatest scoundrel that ever entered the narrows—an unmitigated rascal." in the house of commons and making that favor. I told him that unless I charges against a man who is not a were permitted to place the letter, which was marked 'confidential,' become notice of the charge which he letter it would be impossible for me, without hearing what answer he made, to take any action upon the letter at all."

"Further than that he did not see "There was some in the charge which he without hearing what answer he made, all." in the house of commons and making that favor. I told him that unless I the narrows—an unmitigated rascal."

Reid had "found him out embezzling fit to pursue what would seem to letter that the charges would be made from him," held it over him as a threat from him," held it over him as a threat and driven him from the colony.

and driven him from the colony.

and driven him from the colony. proceed to place those charges before Sir Wilfrid Laurier or Mr. Fielding or who is the subject of his attack. My hon friend is not of that type."

In the Dying Hours.

Mr. Carvell—"My right hon friend I think will admit that I gave him not the less granters the less granters the less granters the less granters are subject of his charges.

made on his standing as a member of this house of exceedingly grave char-"My hon. friend," said Mr. Borden in reply, "in days gone by was in the habit, when sitting on this side of the house, of applying to those who endeavored to make investigations in the public accounts committee or elsewhere the term of muckrakers simply for the reason that he proposed to endeavor to protect the public interest. There was a great deal of outcry from hon. gentlemen now on the other side of the house with regard to charges made in gard to him.

Anonymous Charges.

Anonymous Charges.

This house of exceedingly grave character. I stand exactly with regard to appointments to public offices where I statement twice. I say that the statement is not correct. A letter was written to me by some person whose name I cannot recall. I have endeavored to hoke up this correspondence. It will be this house of exceedingly grave character. I stand exactly with regard to appointments to public offices where I statement two appointments to public offices where I statement two appointments to public offices where I statement two appointments to public offices where I statement two. I should place the charges which my hon. friend has made before Mr. Morine and give him an opportunity of making an answer to the charges against Mr. When Mr. Morine's answer has been made to these charges, I will announce to this house of commons and to this country what action the grave char-acter. I stand exactly with regard to appointments to public offices where I statement two appointments to public offices where I statement two. I should place the charges which my hon. friend has a statement two appointments to public offices.

THE REPOSITORY

SIMCOE & NELSON STREETS. TORONTO,

BURNS & SHEPPARD Preprietors

ESTABLISHED 1856 " THE CENTRE OF THE HORSE TRADE."

ONE GREAT CONTINUOUS AUCTION SALE

Beginning Tuesday at 11 a.m. and Continuing Wednesday

AUCTION, FRIDAY, APRIL 5TH

We will have a big run of horses for next week, and will have so many that it will be impossible to offer them all on Tuesday, so will commence again at 11 a.m. Wednesday and sell until they are all through. This will be your opportunity to get some cheap horses. The market never was better for the buyer. We will have fresh loads for Friday's auction.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2nd THE GREATEST SALE OF LUMBER HORSES OF THE SEASON Beginning at 11 a.m. sharp.

THREE CARLOADS OF BUSH HORSES

CLEVELAND SARNIA SAW MILLS CO. NAIRN, ONT.

Some of the best horses that ever worked in the lumber woods will be sold at this sale. This company purchases nothing but the best horses, and have paid recently as high as $750 per team to go into the bush, but on Tuesday the horses are to be sold without reserve. They are through with their work, and the harness is also to be sold. Anyone looking for good heavy horses will never get a better chance than on TUESDAY, AT 11 A.M. SHARP

We have also been favored by with a consignment of BUSH HORSES, to be sold without reserve. These horses are all right out of bush work, and are good seasoned horses of the best kind. Altogether we will have a sale that no intending buyer should miss. They are all to be sold at auction and without a dollar of reserve. We have an order for two or three good, well-broken saddle horses. Parties having such might be able to place them by writing us and mentioning this advertisement.

CHARLES A. BURNS, Manager and Auctioneer,

ISAAC WATSON,

200 Fresh HORSES

Suitable for all purposes.

DRAFT, EXPRESS, FARM AND DRIVERS.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1912.

Auctioneer, J. K. McEwen.

Private Sales Every Day.

We are advised of large consignments of fresh horses from the country for

Will also have two carloads of Horses from the lymber woods which will be sold at this sale.

We have the right kind of horses and proper loading facilities for all classes of trade. Horses loaded on cars at barn doors. No driving through streets. Pure-bred Percheron Stallions and Mares always on hand for sale.

Union Stock Yards of Toronto, Limited

HORSE DEPARTMENT J. B. ASHCRAFT, Jun., Manager

"THE PLACE TO BUY THEM WORTH THE MONEY"

DUNDAS ST. CARS. NIGHT CALLS: JOT. 2244. PHONE: JOT, 557.