MILLIONS IN STOCKS HELD BY EXPRESS CO.

the United States are owned in large volume by the four express companies. This is brought forward in the report of the interstate commerce commission, the basis of ownership being, as of date June 30, 1911.

Adams Express Co. as of this date owned stocks of common carriers to the par value of $14,350,170, and bonds of similar companies of a par value of $33,123,125, a part of which is pledged as security for bonds issued by the company as dividends. It also owned 19,160 shares of its own stock, $100,000

The American Express Co. and $650,000 in the Southern Express Co., as well as the entire capital stock of a number of small express companies such as the New York and Boston Despatch.

American Express Co. on the above plate owned bonds of common carriers having a par value of $4,995,000, and stocks to the amount of $12,922,100.

United States Express Co.'s investments in bonds of railroads and other common carriers amounted to $3,751,000 par value, and stocks in similar companies to $276,800 par. The company's investments are widely diversified, it not holding any bonds.

company incurs of $100,000 par value with one exception, while its largest stockholding in a common carrier is $37,230, the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Wells, Fargo & Co. have investments in bonds of railroads and other common carriers to the amount of $3,022,099, par and stocks of $559,000, or a total of $3,581,000.

Mrs. E. H. Hartman holds $5,465,500 par value of the stock of Wells, Fargo & Co., or nearly 27 per cent. of the entire stock outstanding. She also owns $2,202,800 par value of the stock of the United States Express Co., or more

The premier is almost an object of worship here to-day. At Belfast the most violent threats are being made against him, and should he visit there, it is more than likely that he will suffer actual rough handling. Anger felt here toward the suffragettes, who are alleged to have plotted to burn or blow up the Theatre Royal, and who attempted to interrupt the premier's speech there, is intensified from the Washington despatches state that legislative recommendations in the forthcoming report of the Stanley committee will include amendments to make the Sherman act much more drastic, prevention of interlocking directorates in connection with railroads, and other measures intended to cure evils of the industrial trust situation.
