out on strike to enforce their demands despite the fact that a conciliation board is adjusting the grievances.

When asked last night whether the meeting had voted in sympathy with the metal workers, Mr. Louis Braithwalte, who addressed last night's meeting, stated that the union favored a 44-hour week. He showed extreme waite, who addressed last night's meeting, stated that the union favored a 44-hour week. He showed extreme surprise when asked if it were true that the meeting had adjourned earlier than anticipated because of the fact that he had received a message to meet someone at the Prince George Hotel immediately. It is understood that the unnamed gentleman was the bearer of news from Ottawa, but when asked regarding the question Mr. Braithwaite refused to commit himself, but showed keen curiosity as to how the reporter had become possessed of the news. Mr. Braithwaite did admit, however, that he had gone to the Prince George Hotel in answer to a message he had received while attending the meeting but would not divulge the nature of the news he had received. A statement made by him during the interview that he had brought his executive committee all the way down town in answer to the message would signify that he had at the time considered the news of exceeding importance. However, as regards the results of the meeting and nature of the news from Ottawa it will remain in the dark so far as Mr. Braitwaite is concerned.

A further meeting of the packers and meat cutters will be held this evening The place and time could not be learned last night.

It will be borne in mind that many of the unions noted have decided to remain aloof from the strike, and others again don't know what action they will take. It is generally conceded that the psychology of the situation will force the opposition into line, and that the movement will enlarge its scope within the next week.

HAMILTON NEWS

Hamilton, May 27.—Members of the city council would not stand for the appointment of F. J. Flatman, editor of The New Democracy, to the housing to commission tonight. Controller Halford substituted the name of William Cassady, and had his nominee elected by a vote of 12 to 4. Other members appointed to the commission were: F. A. Magee. Thomas Robson and Wm. Herron.

While strikes and labor disturbances are causing business confusion and unrest in a number of Canadian cities, Hamilton, one of the three largest manufacturing centres in the Dominion, continues on the even tenor of her ways. Her workingmen, well organized and well led. with a very few exceptions, appear to be in perfect harmony with their employers, and as a result there is not the slightest prospect of any large industrial walkout in the Ambitious City.

Early in the world struggle in Europe two hundred men left Hamilton as members of the 4th Field Battery to do their bit overseas. Tenight the 8.28 C.P.R. train brought back to their Hamilton homes the survivers of these gallant men, only three in number. With these originals, came home fifteen other members of the 11th now known.

ISSIONARY SOCIETY TWENTY-SIXTH MEETING

Mrs. J. B. Willmott, president, occupied the chair at the afternoon gathering, and the large building was filled to capacity

Now that the summer season is at hand the lack of life-saving equipment in the vicinity of the river Don is being discussed by the residents of Todmorden and the east end, and a deputation will wait upon the York township council requesting the instalation of life-saving equipment in a convenient location.

Much dissatisfaction was prevalent among the residents of the eastern section yesterday, when the question was discussed, and it was pointed out that the grappling irons at Sunnyside are too distant for immediate use in drowning accidents in the eastern district. and Mrs. W. F. Wilson, corresponding secretary.

Dr. Anna Henry of the China Mission, delivered an address outlining the progress of the Methodist Church and the societies in China, followed by a brief address by Mrs. Simpson (Alice Estabrook), also of China. During the proceedings the church choir rendered appropriate music.

Offerings, followed by the benediction, terminated the proceedings.

The meeting will be continued today and close on Thursday.

OLD LANDMARK LOST

in connection with the new block of buildings, which is being erected by G. Lucas, contractor, an old landmark of the Danforth district will disappear, namely, the old Playter Hall, erected on the corner of Ellerbeck and Danforth avenue over half a century ago by the late John Playter and now occupied by Panter and Bryson, real estate agents. The building will be torn down. It was for many years the centre of religious, political and social activities in the district, and was used by all denominations with the exception of the Catholics, while their own permanent churches were being erected thruout the section.
