bookies must have come out well ahead. J. H. Barnett, one of the Rambang's, met with an accident on the road home, destroying any chance his team might have had of getting a ken and pretty centage, in which at starting the many-headed shirts and flapping ribbons, adopted as colors, created a brilliant effect in the bright sunshine, the Royal Canadians won by 12 points, the Queen City second. 2 Short of the Royal Canadians speedily assumed the lead on the road, led by a quarter of a mile at the turn and by half a mile at the finish from J. W. Smith of the Queen City team, who was second.

While the trophy competitors were doing their miles on the Kingston road, an all high ordinary race took place, once more

With five competitors, being the fourth of the tire trials to have a victory over the others. The wheels used were old racing wheels with cushion tires. Mr. G. Hurndell, in a plain hat of antique shape and novel decoration, led for a part of the distance, but that old champion and once the champion of the Toronto, took up the running again. Mr. S. on the road, the victor of Ceyling, who had lots left in him at the finish and made good his own bet, but had a dozen yards behind. Mr. Hurndell pulled up third, and the famous Wanderers band, which had been called to select a place during the afternoon, struck up "Anne Laurie," while Referee Orr gave an exhibition of the "Cape Horn" dance.
