The church is kept up by voluntary subscriptions and if its people's sympathies go to the suspended rector their money—and it is not a rich congregation—will not likely be given to another. It is said that, by paying the mortgage interest Rev. Mr. Geoghegan can, if he desires, hold the church against anyone.

The Fox Wasn't There.

Major Prentice and 10 policemen surrounded a house on North Walnut-street this evening, it being reported that Billy Brooks, the notorious thief, who is wanted was inside. The place was searched, but he could not be found. The Major had the men take off their coats, so they could run faster, in case Brooks appeared and ran.

> WOMAN GAGGED AND ROBBED. Burglars in Chicago Carry Things With a Cruel Hand.

Chicago, March 15.—While alone in her home last evening, Mrs. Charles Nix was seized by two burglars, who gagged her and tied her to a chair in the basement. They then looted the house, securing $200 worth of valuables. After this the burglars carried the woman, still gagged and bound in the chair, to the second floor and locked her in a clothes press. After two hours and a half she succeeded in slipping the gag and called for help. A stableman heard her cries and came to her rescue.

Man Suffered From Want.

New York, March 15.—Mrs. Henrietta Schmidt, a professional beggar, was found dead in her apartment at No. 189 Harrison avenue yesterday. On searching the âpartment the police found a bank book on the Williamsburg Savings' Bank, which shows she had at least $20,000 in that institution. She never spent any money for food, clothing or coal, but begged it all from her neighbors. She had lived at the address given for more than 20 years.

The Demon Dyspepsia—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by carcless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislotge him.
