The whole scheme originated with the board of trustees, who felt that a building 50 or 60 years old which had been was not a fit building for the treatment of patients under modern antiseptic conditions now imposed by the hest medical and surgical authorities.

The simple truth is that the present General Hospital is not creditable to the City of Toronto. There is no city on the confinent with a population approaching that of Toronto where the hospital accommodation is so far behind the times. Dr. Osler has stated that every hospital should be burned down every ten years. Yet part of the Toronto General Hospiis over 50 years old, and 30 years.
