GOT DRUNK—THEN FROZE
A Wanderer on Carling Heights Begins the New Year With Frozen Hands.

A man giving his name as Jerry Savage was found early Saturday morning wandering aimlessly around in an intoxicated condition on Carling Heights in the bitter cold. His actions attracted the attention of the yardmen on the C. P. R., who telephoned the police. The patrol wagon was sent to the Adelaide street station, where Savage had been taken in the meantime. His trousers were wet and frozen to the knees, and his hands badly frozen. When the patrol arrived he was taken to the hospital. Savage says he was caretaker of the London Rowing Club's premises last season, but, if this be true, his name is Jerry Myers. Myers is said to have a wife and family in Kingston.

About ten years ago I felt the beginnings of what is commonly known as Eczema. The disease commenced in my ears and spread entirely over both sides of my head and also developed on my hands. During those ten years I was a great sufferer. Specialists on skin diseases treated me. As I write this I am commencing on the fifth box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and, judging from the rapid improvement effected, I am certain that before the box is used I shall be completely cured. It takes 2,000 of the Korean coins known as "cash" to equal $1. Travelers need an extra bullock to carry their funds.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and, less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
