Ce-operation, as presented by the coco-operation, as presented by the co-operative committee of the London Methodist Conference and the London Presbytery. Second, to discuss the ad-visability of rearranging the boundaries of the district.

As to the first, the following resolution was adopted:
"We, the members of the Ridgetown tion was adopted:
"We, the members of the Ridgetown district, having had presented to us the plan proposed by the co-operative committee of the London Conference and the London Presbytery, and the reasons for such rearrangements, we are increasingly confirmed in the opin-ion that conditions as they exist are not satisfactory, and that some sys-tem of union is desirable. But we are not at all convinced that the plan pro-posed is a proper solution. not at all convinced that the plan proposed is a proper solution so far as it affects our district, and hence prefer to express no opinion until something more satisfactory is proposed.

As to the question of district boundaries, the Revs. W. L. Hiles, B.A., R. J. Garbutt, LL.B., and S. Whitehall were appointed a committee to look into the matter and report to the district meeing to be held in Highgate Tuesday and Wednesday, May 18 and 19.

MUCH CONSTRUCTION WORK TO BE DONE IN BRANTFORD

Merger of Local Firm With Erie, Pa. Concern Announced. BRANTFORD, May 5 .- Members of the board of works stated today that the city could expend $500,000 on con-struction work alone at once, and still there would be more worked. struction work alone at once, and still there would be more work to be done to improve the city. The disposal of sewage in the newly-annexed district of Belleview promises to be a difficult engineering problem, and is second only in importance to the reconstruction of the supply system of the Brantford waterworks.

TOOL FIRMS UNITE.

Announcement was made here to

Announcement was made here to-cay of the merger of the John H. Hall & Sons Machine Company with the Williams Tool Company of Erie, Pa. A new factory will probably be estab-lished in this city for the manufac-ture of tools consequent upon the merger.

Brantford, Paris and Galt school boards will send delegates to Toronto to take up the matter of the payment for attendance of country pupils at collegiate institutes, which payment, on the present basis, is said to be insufficient.

SECURE BIG CONTRACT.
