DEFER POWER QUESTION TO REGULAR MEETING

Council Daily Again—Southern Gift Is Rejected Earl Grey Visits Stony Creek.

HAMILTON, May 29.—(Special.)—The council this evening decided to defer consideration of the power question until the next regular meeting of the council. The excuse they gave for this action was that there was a suspicion that politics was having some influence on the aldermen. The motion to defer consideration was carried by a division of 13 to 8. All the warm friends of competition in power voted against the motion. They are Mayor Stewart and Ald. A. J. Wright, Hennessy, Ulrichs, Jutten, McLaren, Farmer, Bailey and Anderson. The aldermen after authorizing William Southern last year to build a hospital for incurable consumptives on the city hospital grounds turned around to-night after the work of the council had passed a motion that is practically a refusal of the gift of $15,000. The motion was that Mr. Southern should be permitted to raise funds enough to build such an institution on another site. T. M. Wright and F. F. Dalley were appointed members of the cemetery board. The governor-general, Earl Grey, accompanied by Countess and Lady Sybil Grey, Col. and Mrs. Hanbury Williams and Capt. Newton, was the guest to-day of the Women's West-ern Historical Society. After visiting the Consumption Sanitarium, the viceregal party were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. William Hendrie. In the afternoon his excellency inspected the public school cadets and warmly complimented them for their excellent drill. WRIGHT TO M'PHERSON—'YOU PROVE MY CASE'

Lawyer's Statement Held to Show He Knew Gamey's Whereabouts and Kept Silent.

There were developments yesterday in the Wright-McPherson-Gamey controversy, and Mr. Wright wore the smile last night. Mr. McPherson, during the morning, wrote a letter addressed to Mr. Wright, but which he gave to the press. In it he said: "Mr. Gamey did not telegraph me from Buffalo, but wrote me a letter, which I have in my possession. I also have the envelope in which the letter was contained. It is postmarked at Buffalo, April 19, 1908, at 6.30 p.m., and at Toronto, April 20, 1908, at 10 a.m. "On the morning of Monday, April 20, 1908, the commission met at the usual time, and I was present with other counsel, and had no knowledge whatever at that time of Mr. Gamey's whereabouts. Having remained in attendance at the commission until adjournment for the day, I returned to my office and found Mr. Gamey's letter awaiting me. I at once despatched a telegram to him. "You are very positive as to dates, etc. You admit that you had a letter from Mr. Gamey postmarked at Buffalo, April 19 at 10 a.m., and at Toronto, April 20, at 10 a.m., and received by you at your office that same day, April 20. I am glad to have your admission. It absolutely proves the charge I have made. For, since the commission did not meet on April 20, as you say, but on April 21, you, by your own confession, had a letter from Mr. Gamey in your possession for a whole day before the commission met. You knew where he was when you heard Mr. Blake say his absence was unaccounted for. You had his letter in your possession when you talked with Dr. Pyne and Mr. Bristol for the night of April 20, and you not only knew that he had left the city by your advice, but that he was at that moment in Buffalo when you sent Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Frye scurrying around Toronto searching for the client you were treacherously betraying. "In the face of such a damning confession, do you not think that in the name of political decency you should efface yourself from public life? "Surely you owe it to the Conservative party, that has done so much for you, to relieve it from the humiliation of your candidature. "I said last night that I did not know how you came into the case as coach. I have been informed since, and shall make the information public on the first suitable occasion. If I am correctly informed, your candidature for the observance of professional etiquette would seem to be something of a joke. "I, the undersigned, in the name of the north, authorizes the statement that he has nothing whatever to do with it, and will not speak in Toronto. "I know nothing new," says Mr. Gamey, "that Mr. Wright can say about the old case. I explained every detail of many times in the province, and got my verdict, and am satisfied."

A Sensible Hat.

Now comes the sunshine hat to relieve the monotony of the millinery landscape. It is a fine golden leghorn, the brim waving gracefully. The fine wire frame under the edge is covered with silk the shade of the straw. The crown is hidden under a heap of yellow tulips, in three or four shades of sunlight. The blade leaves of the tulips lie flat on the brim, and the method of sewing the flowers is such that the tangled mound rises high above the crown in an irregular mass of leaves and yellow flowers, some of which are open, some tight buds and some have shed their leaves. The band of the under crown is of gold velvet overlaid with a bunch of yellow chiffon.
