The Next Step

HE Proclamation, which issued October 13th, calls for men of Class One to report for service or claim exemption on or before November 10th, 1917. This call includes bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before January 1st, 1917.

It is pointed out that no man will be called to the colors until about December 10th, by which date it is expected that most, if not all, applications for exemption will have been dealt with. So that, it is obvious no one will gain any advantage by delay in reporting for service or claiming exemption.

Registered Letter

THE REPORT FOR SERVICE or CLAIM FOR EXEMPTION should be made on the forms obtainable at every Post Office in Canada, and handed back to the Postmaster. who will issue an official receipt and will transmit the form itself to the Registrar.

The man reporting for service, or claiming exemption will thereafter be notified by registered letter regarding what is further required of him.

Men who REPORT FOR SERVICE and on whose behalf no claim for exemption is received, will, if not already medically examined, be ordered to attend at the nearest Medical Board Centre for medical examination, and will be furnished with return transportation and also with subsistence.

EACH APPLICANT FOR EXEMPTION will be notified of the number and address of the tribunal by which the application will be considered and the date upon which it will be taken up, and he may thereupon submit in writing to the tribunal the facts upon which reliance is placed to support the application.

While applicants may await the day named in the notice and appear personally before the tribunal, this course is not recommended and will result in serious inconvenience and delay.

Remember all Reports for Service and Claims for Exemption should be made at once but must be made not later than November 10th, 1917.

Should Avoid Contest. The meeting was called to order by Robert Hobson, who declared that he was standing on a political platform for the first time in his life. He felt, however, that an election contest should be avoided and that win-the-war candidates should be put in the field to support the union government. He then declared nominations open for the riding of East Hamilton

General Mewburn's name was placed in nomination by Lieut.-Col. Wm. Hendrie, and seconded by F. J. Howell. Before the question was put to the convention, however, a diversion was occasioned by Albert Peart, a returned soldier, who demanded to know why neither the labor men nor the returned veterans had been invited to the convention. He, however, did not oppose General Mewburn, and the minister of militia was declared the nominee of the convention. A telegram was read from General Mewburn regretting his inability to be present and announcing that he would be in Hamilton today.
